

The Shower Scene

By ChronoEclipse

She walked into the bathroom in her white cotton robe. The seams of the robe came down just barely to her mid thigh. She smiled at herself in the full length mirror and turned around, stretching herself up to see her firm round ass peek out from beneath the robe. The girl licked her finger and ran it down her chest parting the cloth to each side. She let the robe drop from her otherwise nude body and stretched a long sexy leg out into the tub.

You are waiting there for her. She grins from ear to ear and pulls her long hair back. As she is holding her hair behind her you grab a hold of her thin, delicate waist and move her toward you into a kiss. You are also naked and both of your smooth young bodies press together in soft bliss. Her lips are bright and welcoming. She sucks on your bottom lip and grinds her pelvis slowly into yours. Her arms are now wrapped around your back and the back of your head as she is kissing and fondling you with more frenzy. You don't want this to progress too quickly though so you reach over a turn on the shower.

The water pours down on both of you and it feels refreshing. You back up to see her young firm body glistening with water and you smile knowing it's about to change. You slide your hand down her smooth stomach, down to her pink vaginal lips and you tickle them gently. It makes her crazy with excitement. Just before she grabs you and presses her face into yours in another series of long kisses you see crow's feet next to her eyes.

You grab her firm ass and start to feel it soften up a bit. The jiggling breasts rubbing up and down against your chest give a similar sensation of falling downward. You rub your hands through her long hair and begin to see some grays, though its hard to tell with all the water coming down. She begs you to get inside her and now you are ready to oblige. You slide yourself into her tight pussy and lift her up a bit into your arms. She moans loudly and bounces up and down squealing with each thrust. Her smooth bare feet are tucked up and rubbing up and down your legs.

You see her face has gotten some more wrinkles and she's a good fifteen years older than she was at the start of the shower. Her face is beginning to look tired but her body says something entirely different. You grab a hold of her love handles that she did not have a few moments ago and you press deeper and deeper. She is telling you how awesome you are but it is a much huskier voice. She sounds like her mother. You grin and bring her into a kiss.

You press her against the back of the shower stall and bring one arm up to massage her larger breast. They are lower on her chest but there is more to them. And a bit more to her as well. You feel her thigh that your other arm is wrapped around to hold her up. The thigh has progressively lost its tone and swelled a bit. It feels a little lumpy. Her ass does as well. It's actually starting to droop over your hand as you hold her thigh. As the water splashes on the both of you she progresses more as you stay the same.

She is starting to get lighter again but nothing is firm or smooth anymore. Her hair is completely gray and her face increasingly more wrinkled. You are sucking on her thin lips and her dangling jowls. You start giving her a hickey on her turkey waddle of a neck. She is moaning and yelling so hard but there is a shake to her voice and its higher pitched. Her arms and thighs are jiggling with loose wrinkled skin and the sagging sacks that were her breasts are flopping up and down slapping your bare chest. Her vagina feels much looser now.

You are making out with the girl and squeezing her wrinkly ass when you realize she no longer has any teeth. It just makes you harder and the old woman gets another jolt of pleasure. Her gnarled aged feet are still rubbing your legs but much more slowly and they no longer feel smooth. She is very light now and you work her up and down with ease. Every inch of wrinkled skin jiggles as you do so.

You hear her aged cracked voice whisper to you. "God, you're so hot. You rock my world." You both orgasm over and over and she nibbles on your neck with her toothless mouth. She grins and you set her down. She is much shorter now and a bit hunched over. Her drooping boobs sway and point toward her wrinkled feet.

You turn off the water and the girl tries to extend her thin bony leg out of the tub as if it were still young and sexy. You instead help her out gently and she stares at her old reflection in the full length mirror for a few moments.

She looks very confused as she is now close to eighty years older than she was before the shower but she just wets her thin lips and bends down to pick up her cotton robe. The ends of the robe now reach down to her calves. She opens it a bit up top to show some wrinkly cleavage and winks at you salaciously.

She gets a towel and begins drying off her gray and white hair. You kiss her again and tell her you'll be waiting in bed under the satin sheets for round two.

THE END.
