

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

Examinations guide

Here you'll find a guide to Medical Exams present in the game. Don't read this if you don't want spoilers and want to try to solve the exams the old fashioned way: by trial and error.

Red choices are the really bad ones

Orange choices are bad, don't use them!

Yellow choices are neither good nor bad

Green choices are good

Blue choices are the best ones!

Exam #1: Rita

AAA Medical Center Clinic Record
Date: ww-2017
Last: Maxwell First: Rita Middle:
Age: 23 DOB: January 29, 1994
Sex: Female
Ailment: Medical certificate of well-being for job use.
Medications: Aspirin before going to bed, to fight cold symptoms
Allergies: none. Her father is allergic to spores.
History: came to the clinic asking for a certification of well being required by her new job.

Recommended level of undress: keep bra and underpants

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

Liked attitude: calm
Disliked attitude: strict

Questions

- "How old are you?"
- "Any present or past illnesses I should be aware of?"
- "Do you smoke or drink alcoholic beverages?"
- "Are you in a relationship?"
- "Are you sexually active?"
- "Are you pregnant?"

Examinations

Skin – Back – Height – EEN – Breasts – Abdomen – Extremities – Genital – Legs

Anamnesis

"So, doctor, how am I doing?"

- "You are perfectly healthy, I shall sign up your certificate right away"
- "It looks like you got some problems on your back"
- "It looks like you have some skin problems"
- "Your abdomen doesn't convince me"
- "It looks like you got genital problems"
- "I think you just got some cold"
- "You are completely unable to work, Rita, I'm sorry"

"What are your prescriptions?"

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

"You should take painkillers every time your back hurts"

"There's no need of a prescription at the moment"

"You should take some antibiotics for the cold"

"Aspirin for the cold"

"Any special recommendations?"

"You can go home and tell the nurse to make an appointment with a physiatrist to check your back"

"I think it's better if you go to the hospital. They will check you out"

"You should take an appointment with a general surgeon to check you"

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

Exam #2: Clara Porter

AAA Medical Center Clinic Record

Date: xx-xx-2017

Last: Porter First: Clara Middle:

Age: 27 DOB.: August 08, 1990

Sex: Female

Ailment: Unknown

Medications: Psychotropic drugs for stress-relieving.

Allergies: none.

History: came to the clinic asking for a second opinion about her illness. She's being treated by Dr. Hale on Holy Father of Mercy's clinic. Her medical records are not available.

Recommended level of undress: any

Liked attitude: strict, professional

Disliked attitude: any other

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

Questions

- "How old are you?"
- "Any present or past illnesses I should be aware of?"
- "Are you taking medications right now?"
- "Do you smoke or drink alcoholic beverages?"
- "Any family histories of allergies or illnesses?"
- "Are you in a relationship?"
- "Are you sexually active?"
- "Are you pregnant?"

Examinations

Skin – Back – EEN – Breasts – Abdomen – Extremities – Genital – Legs

Anamnesis

"So, doctor, how am I doing?"

"You got some harsh fever. I'm prescribing you paracetamol and dismiss you with a 5 days certification to rest."

"It looks like you got some problems on your back"

"It looks like you have some skin problems"

"Your abdomen doesn't convince me"

"It looks like you got genital problems"

"I think you just got some cold"

"I think you got Labyrinthitis."

GENERAL PRACTITIONER

"What are your prescriptions?"

"Some paracetamol for the fever. You should suspend your drugs too."

"Some paracetamol for the fever. Keep taking the drugs tough."

"You won't need any."

"Painkillers"

"You should exercise a bit to regain your balance."

"Some eardrops"

"Any special recommendations?"

"You should see a psychologist for your anxiety."

"Social services may be needed for your drugs addiction."

"You can go home, no need for anything more."

"You should go to the hospital for another checkup."

