A photograph of a woman's bare torso from the chest down to the waist, positioned in the center of the frame. She is standing in an office environment, with desks, chairs, and computer monitors visible in the background. The ceiling features a grid of recessed rectangular lights. A white speech bubble with a black outline is located in the upper left quadrant, containing the text "SHE GOES AROUND WITH THOSE GIANT THINGS HANGING". The woman's skin is fair, and her breasts are prominent. Her right hand is slightly extended towards the left side of the frame.
