

Chapter 4 A Breath Of Fresh Air

“Where is he? Did you leave him in your dorm room?” Scarlett asked with curiosity as Amanda wriggled uncomfortably in her seat.

“I uhmm... he’s uhmm...” Amanda stuttered as she leaned left and then right, lifting her ass cheeks one at a time off the wooden seat!

“Amanda?” Scarlett asked again, sounding a bit more serious now...

“He’s... In my ass” Amanda whispered to Scarlett while blushing a deep shade of red! Scarlett snorted and then cupped her hands to her face as she began giggling hysterically! A few women nearby looked over to see what the commotion was! Amanda began lightly smacking Scarlett as she got a hold of her laughter!

“Get him out!” Scarlett said in a hushed tone. All around them women were taking out their tiny victims and seating them on the desk with their books.

Amanda looked left and then right to make sure no one was watching before reaching behind her back and down the waistband of her unwashed leggings! She couldn’t help but grimace in disgust as she felt how wet and swampy it was between her thick ass cheeks! Amanda worked two of her fingers between her ass cheeks to her greasy anus, feeling around for a second before yanking out her fingers in an utter state of disgust! Scarlett leaned away immediately from the odor emanating from Amanda’s fingers!

“Oh god, did you forget to shower this morning?” Scarlett asked in a whisper...

“I woke up late! I can’t get him out! He’s too deep!” Amanda whined a bit like a child as her eyes began to fill with tears!

“Hey, it’s okay, let’s go to the bathroom, this will only take a second!” Scarlett smiled as she got up and began politely excusing herself to the women she was passing by in the aisle. Amanda followed her while keeping her soiled shitty fingers in her pocket to limit the smell. The two of them quietly left the lecture hall and closed the door before rushing down the hallway to the bathroom, finally able to speak freely and at full volume!

“You have to remember to take them out of your ass cheeks before you sit down! You’re lucky he went up your ass and wasn’t crushed to death!” Scarlett giggled...

"I know! I'm such an idiot!" Amanda cried a bit as she pushed open the bathroom door. Scarlett followed her inside and luckily it was empty.

"You're not an idiot! I almost forgot to remove mine this morning before my.. Uhmm... bathroom time" Scarlett mentioned as both of them began laughing...

"Do I just sit on the toilet and push him out?" Amanda asked?

"Try fishing him out with your fingers first, use the toilet as a last case scenario, just because we are at school and it's a public toilet you would need to fish him out of! If we were at your dorm room, I'd say fuck it, shit him right into the water!" Scarlett giggled as Amanda cupped her hand to her mouth in shock before laughing.

Amanda entered one of the empty stalls and closed the door while Scarlett waited outside. Amanda peeled down her leggings and instantly the stall filled with the stale wet odor of girly ass! The odor was so potent that it almost reached Scarlett on the outside. Amanda reached back behind her ass with a wad of toilet paper sliding it up and down a few times, soaking up as much sweat as she could before having to reach back with her fingers. When she pulled the paper away from her crack, she could see a thick brown and yellowish stain! The odor was so sour that she almost puked before dropping it into the toilet bowl! Amanda had NO IDEA her ass was that filthy! She actually felt bad for the little man trapped inside of her! If she had known how bad it was she would have just gone late to class! Amanda had to wipe three more times before it was clean enough to even think about reaching back there.

"What's going on? We can't miss too much of this lecture!" Scarlett politely pushed her to move quickly.

"I'm trying.. Just... give me a second!" Amanda groaned as she reached back and held one of her ass cheeks far to the side. With her other hand she licked one finger before reaching back and slowly feeling around her anus! It was so weird, she had never done this before! When she found the hole, she slowly pushed while bending over and squatting a bit. There was a wet crackling as her finger entered and some wet shit squeezed out from around the edges!

"EWV!" Amanda cried as she quickly cleaned off her finger and manicured nail! Even when it was clean though, the sour smell still hung in the air.

"What's wrong??" Scarlett asked again...

"I think he is too deep!" Amanda cried a bit while stomping her feet in frustration...

"You have to keep trying Amanda!" Scarlett urged her to keep going!

Amanda squatted and parted her cheeks, she was about to lick her finger once more before realizing it had just been inside her sour dirty asshole! She gagged just from having the finger close to her face! Amanda felt around for her anus before closing her eyes and pushing her finger deep inside! The feeling was beyond disgusting! It was wet and mushy, she could feel feces everywhere! Amanda wanted nothing more than to pull her finger out but she could not fail this class! Then... suddenly she felt him! His little hands grabbed the tip of her finger as she pulled out! When her finger came out, the little man wasn't there! She tried again, and again, and again, but his little arms couldn't get a grip of her greasy shit covered finger!

"I can feel him... but he won't come out!" Amanda said while straining.

"We're gonna be too late, just push him out into the toilet!!!" Scarlett rushed her, she was getting a bit impatient now.

Amanda looked down to the dirty public restroom toilet. She didn't want to have to reach in there and pull out her little man, she could just picture the thousands of asses per week that sat on it! She grabbed a handful of toilet paper and began placing the strips around the toilet seat so she would have somewhere to sit. She felt a bit guilty, taking such time and care for her cleanliness well her little man was trapped brewing in her feces, but she couldn't justify her bare ass touching the dirty seat! When it was all covered, she bent over and sat down, her stomach was already bubbling and gurgling considering she had taken her morning shit.

A soft low airy fart blew from Amanda's asshole echoing into the bowl before ending with a very hot and wet sounding splatter. Amanda grimaced in disgust from the odor that began rising from between her legs.

"Uhhmm Scarlett, I think i have it covered from here, I'll see you in class?" Amanda said while holding her stomach with one hand and trying not to fart again.

"Okay! Good luck!" Scarlett said while quickly running out of the bathroom, it was clear she was desperate to leave. Amanda began blushing with embarrassment as her plump sweaty cheeks let another deep wet fart loose into the bowl beneath her!

Amanda felt her stomach tighten as a bloating pressure spread throughout her abdomen! She pushed gently, trying to move things slowly, but her anus spread wide as the soft shit began spewing out! Amanda felt the cool water from the toilet bowl splash to her sweaty ass cheeks as clumps of rancid sticky feces tumbled from her anus creating a massive mountain underneath her! Slowly she spread her legs to peer between them but the odor that escaped was far too foul! She almost vomited before slamming her thighs closed and pushing!

Amanda couldn't help but moan as her anus let loose, it bubbled and sprayed gas as shit coiled out like a hot snake creating a home in the bowl beneath her! Each time she thought she was done, her anus would squeeze closed only to push open and began anew!, Hot shit pouring out as if it was bottomless! Amanda reached back to flush while fanning her face, her finger was on the handle as she PULLED HER HAND AWAY and stopped herself! She almost forgot why she was here! Just like that she could have filed her degree! If she lost her tiny it was all over!

A particularly erratic and messy fart brought Amanda back to the reality of the situation, she tried to peer between her legs and see if the little man was there but all she could see was a mess of brown! The odor was so bad that she thought she might die! She wanted to cry, imaging the little man below her, drowning in her shit. She should get up, fish him out now, but her stomach was in so much pain, she couldn't muster the strength to stand!

her leggings. It felt like she had lost ten pounds! When she turned around though, she was in utter shock!

The toilet bowl was FILLED! The water was a thick mixture of dark brown and clumpy shit with a MASSIVE mountain of crap rising from the center! There was no way something like that would ever flush down on its own! There was steam rising from it that quickly filled the stall and then the entire bathroom! Amanda wanted to run, she didn't even want to try flushing it, but she knew she had to get her tiny man free! He was somewhere in there, and she would need to find him.

(Tom's Pov)

Tom was in hell! There was no up or down, no left or right, it felt like he was adrift without gravity in a sea of sludge! All around him he could feel the hot pulsing walls of Amanda's insides as hot shit flowed over him! Desperately he clawed at the foul goo pushing it away from his face! He would gasp and such in just enough deadly gas to live before the sludge would overtake him and cover his face once more! The process was terrible and tiring, Clawing away shit and gasping for air as more and more piled down! Tom could do nothing but pray Amanda would free him soon! He had no idea how much more of this he could take!

Suddenly there was a pressure as something huge came barreling through the wall of feces! Tom watched through watery eyes as he recognized it to be Amanda's shit covered finger tip! His eyes lit up as his heart began to beat rapidly! This was his chance! He grabbed onto the tip of her finger, holding onto the skin with his nails! The finger began moving backwards and he screamed with horror as he lost his grip! The shit was so greasy and slippery! Tom watched as her finger disappeared into the shit and darkness!

A few seconds passed as he pushed the feces away from his face, The air was getting thinner and harder to breathe as gas and methane filled the small shit confined space. Tom saw her finger reach in again! This time he clung to her nail praying he could hold on as she wiggled her finger back and forth looking for him. Her finger began sliding out and once more he slipped off into the thick feces! It was like quicksand holding onto his body, devouring him!

Tom could see it now, this was going to be how he died! The feces were so hot that it was burning his skin! He could feel the shit making its way through his pores, into his skin, absorbing into his body!

BBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBFRRTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTT

Suddenly there was a thundering roar coming from high above Tom's head! It began vibrating the walls of her intestines until all the shit around him was shaking from the force! The area he was confined to filled with such a hot and terrible stench that Tom thought he was going to die! It was like rotten beef and milk mixed together and left to sit in the sun for weeks on end! The vibration continued as another thundering roar, this time lourdes sent all the gas blowing out from below his feet! Tom watched as a whirlwind of shit was sucked out from under his feet, the sensation was what he imagined it would be like when a plane door was opened mid flight!

BBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBbbfrrrrrrrrPPSPRBBFRRTTTT

Tom watched as the milky shitty ground under him began disappearing, being sucked down through an invisible exit! He could feel himself being pulled, moving down as the walls around him flexed and pushed! That was when he realized, SHE WAS SHITTING HIM OUT! Tom felt his feet being grabbed by the wet dirty walls of her recumt as it squeezed around him like a snake! It was almost like being birthed! He had to close his eyes and clench his teeth from the pressure as he was pushed out and ejected from her asshole!

Tom fell for what felt like 50 feet until he hit the watery surface! He had never been so happy before emerging at the surface and seeing around him. It was like being in a shipwreck! There was brown watery sludge everywhere with massive chunks of feces floating around! The smell was worse than it was inside of her, it was like the oxygen mixed with the gas and methane had made something even worse!

BBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBbbbbbbbbbbbbbbbbbbppsppprprtttttt

Tom looked up to see one of the most terrifying sites he had ever witnessed! Amanda's massive sweaty pale white ass cheeks looked like a UFO floating above his planet! From the center of her asshole a thick brown sludge began to emerge, cascading down and crashing into the water sending Tom flying through the water with waves stories high! There were wet splattering blasts as explosions of gas and methane came from above, filling the fresh air around him with the deadly fumes!

All around him, the toilet was a disaster! Brown shit began piling up in the center like a volcano land mass forming as more and more shit crashed down! A huge boulder of mushy feces rolled down the side of the hill forming coming right towards Tom! He had to swim underwater and out of the way, barely getting out of its path in time! He felt the sticky boulder of feces skin his feet and almost dragged him under the brown water!

BBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBbb sppppfrttttt

Her farts sounded like the roar of a wildbeast the size of godzilla, it roared through the toilet bowl blowing chunks of feces from the mountain of shit that splattered to the side of the bowl! Tom swam around to the front of the massive mountain and clung on as more and more feces piled on top! He could hear Amanda moaning and gasping from the shit she was taking! She seemed so sweet, so loving, it was hard to believe she could be so cruel and heartless! Tom looked up with watering eyes, barely able to see her anus through the thick gas inside the bowl! Her hair shit covered rectum was just visible through the mist as more shitty sludge poured out!

Tom dug his hand into the side of the mountain as his head began to spin! He was going to pass out from the lack of oxygen! He could feel it! He needed to stay above the shit water or he would drown! This was the only way he would live! Tom pushed both hands into the massive mountain of shit, sticking himself in and sealing himself in place! He began passing out just as a huge wave of sludge washed over him, burying him alive!

Tom woke up choking and coughing! He got to his hands and knees and began barfing as a thick brown bitter sludge came rushing from his mouth! It was so thick, like puking up peanut butter! He wretched and flailed his body as cool water rained down over him like a waterfall! The bitter taste and pain was so bad, he would never forget it until the day he died! Even after the content of his stomach were empty, he could not stop gagging. The greasy hot flavor stained his entire throat all the way to his stomach!

"Are you okay, little guy?" Tom heard as he turned around and looked up... Amanda was above him. He looked around and could see, he was in her hand, she was washing him in the sink!

"I am so sorry! I promise, I will try not to let that happen again!" Amanda blushed as she brought her hand back under the cool tap water. Tom would have been happy if not for the key word...
"try"
