

Welcome to the context document, where I elucidate you on the specifics on what's happening!

Maximalist Cozy:

This one is categorically not NSFW, but I figured I'd throw it into this pack just so people had access to the high-res/unsigned version. No special lore here, I was just going for The Most Cozy vibe possible.

Human Contact 1 & 2:

In our LancerRPG campaign, Cygnus got shot in the arm and he was pretty butthurt about it (understandably so). I wanted to depict the night fresh out of the hospital and the healing power of skin-to-skin contact. Just some good ol' hurt/comfort content. Originally, I had only drawn the upright one but quickly realized that it didn't actually show the aftermath of the bullet wound, so I whipped up the laying down version. These pieces are also the first time I've drawn Cygnus completely nude, if you could believe it. Usually he's got something on, but I wanted him to come across as extremely vulnerable and weakened.

Lounging:

No lore here, just an experimental pin-up painting I did a little while ago.

Hot N Bothered:

This is little comic about the fact these two have completely mismatched libidos at times, and the silly situations that come up because of that. Socket's asexual (don't let my art fool you), while Cyg's high maintenance. Don't worry, Cyg backs off immediately if Socket's not interested.
