Leona looked to her left and right to check if someone was around. For her lewd hobby, she had wandered quite a bit, to find a good – and completely private - spot. A few months ago, she had stumbled upon this erotic-streaming-platform that allowed her to earn some extra-buck. With her very dominant role-play, it did not took that long until Leona had gathered quite an impressive amount of followers, but it was getting more and more complicated to play a Ketoran dominatrix without letting her two flatmates know.

Up a steep hill, Leona arrived under an old tree that was casting a broad shadow on the lush grass. She made out a small cave between some rocks nor far down the hill and put her backpack down. "This looks like a perfect spot... Noone around!" Leona started to grope her tits through her top - hiking without a bra was kinda weird with all that bouncing and the thought alone of what she was up to had turned her nipples stiff, as they rubbed against the fabric.

She took the cam out of her backback and placed it under the tree, knowing that her viewers preferred the direct view of a female crotch combined with some dirty speech. "Time to get slutty then" she smirked, as she took off her trousers and threw them over a rock behind the tree.

Carefully, she pulled down her panties while swinging her hips in a lewd way and looked down to the camera, which she had placed between her legs on the ground. "Hey boys, Sorry for keeping you waiting" – she smirked and left out a lustful moan as two of her fingers ran over her tight, and already moist pussy.

"The way up here was quite exhausting" She moaned, as she saw more and more viewers entering her stream, lured by the lewd perspective. "Yeah.. Im all moist and sweaty.. time for you to give me a proper cleaning.."

Leona started to squat and lowered herself, to move her tight, moist slit closer towards the camera. "Im not asking you... you are trapped between my legs... you have no choice... I have walked a loong way up here.."

More and more heart-icons appeared in the chatbox on her phone, together with submissive comments as her viewer-mark passed 300.

Blissfully moaning, Leona felt her back rubbing against the old tree-trunk while she was presenting her dripping cunt to the web. Sticky fluids ran down her tights, as a sweet smell was waving through the air. A little confused at first, Leonas free hand touched something wet on the tree behind her... Something round and sticky...

It took her a moment to realize that the sweet smell wasn't her own, it was coming from the tree instead! A little confused, but still true to her role, her hand found a sticky, warm hole in the tree behind her and closed around a warm, pulsating object almost instinctively.

"Look what I found, a lewd plaything!" Completely NOT sure what her body was doing, her hand with the egg-shaped object slowly moved closer towards her pussy.

Leona tried to fight the urge, but it seemed that the sweet smell in the air around her was controlling her and telling her what to do! With every breath, she felt her pussy becoming more wet... more ready to welcome that strange object... she knew it was wrong, but this was feeling so right....

"Hno... What?!" the soft object touched her pussylips and slowly slipped inside her while hundreds of viewers watched and send emotes about how hot this was.

Leona herself started to panic, as her hand forced the pulsating object further inside her cunt.

"This... I don't wanna do this... sorry guys!" She tried to flip the camera over and turn it off, but a gush of a thick, milky liquids squirted out of her tight slit and onto the lens.

Suddenly, she felt something like a lewd pop in her nethers - This thing was changing inside of her!! "Ho gawd, no what the fuck is this?!" Desperately, she forced her fingers into her pussy, trying to get a hold on the round, slippery object, but eventually, she slowly just pulled out an empty, clear husk from her cunt that looked like a condom someone had just left inside her.

A warm feeling was filling her crotch from the inside, almost as if something was directly absorbed by her flesh that created that numb - but also kinda blissful feeling. "Wh-Whats happening to me?!" The skin on her inner tights turned wet and slimy, small holes where her fur fell out revealed an insect-like, disgusting skin below.

"Why did I came out here?! Ho god, It's a Lunoos nest!!" More slimy, greasy skin formed on her tights and replaced the color of her dark-greyish fur with a sickening, half-transparent yellow-grey.

"I I don't wanna be an insect abomination!!" Leona tried to move, but slowly realized the tiny tendrils that were growing between her leg were trying to fuse them and turn them into one vile insect-body. "I don't wanna be one of these centipedes!!" Leona screamed, as she saw the brown plates of carapace growing on her hips and tights. Disgusting insect-limbs reached out from them, moving on its own

Leona tried to pick up her phone... she had to call for help! "I Chrrr! I need to..." But the sunlight seemed to blind her... everything around her was suddenly causing a headache to her... she needed to move to a darker place... less sun... wet.. her head was feeling like it was up to explode.

-The cave! The cave would be her last chance... she could wait until nightfall and then try to grab her phone again!

With insecure steps, Leona slowly walked towards the entrance - The tendrils between her legs had mercilessly started to fuse them into one slimy piece of horrid insect-flesh. Her knees rendered worthless, she tried to jump the last few steps inside the cave. "Hnoo Chrrrt! Nooo!"

Dozens of blind insect-limbs twitched aimlessly all over her legs, as she finally stepped into the pleasant darkness of the cave. Leona looked down on her body, while still standing in the entrance: Her legs looked bloated and slimy, her beautiful paws had transformed into disgusting, fleshy lumps and her cunt was slowly fusing with the sickening, slimy membrane of her new skin.

Every now and then, a feral hiss Leona could not control escaped her throat, while her mouth was unable to hold her drool back. "I Chrrrt! Noo.." Her legs grew weaker, and as she tried to move deeper inside the cave, they eventually gave in.

Surprised by the sudden betrayal of her legs, Leona lifted her arms to break her fall. The weight of her lower body started to grow more and more heavy, as it elongated into a disgusting centipede. More and more insectile legs broke out from the slimy insect skin and started to move over the dirty ground.

Looking back on her body, Leona noticed that her cunt had started to produce a massive amount of liquids, which was forming a pool of milky fluids on the ground below her. It was then, she heard a very dominant, female voice echoing in the darkness of the cave.

“Leeeona... body isss minee”

In Panic, Leona looked around and listened carefully – nothing “Who is there?! Get away chrrr.. I... Ugh.. I warn you...” Suddenly, a wave of unbearable pleasure shook down her spine The lips of her pussy twitched and squirted another silly amount of disgusting liquids.

“Youu... will obey meeee!”

Leona shook her head. “I dont know who you even a-” Another massive pleasure shook her body, much worse this time. It was like her mind was melting in bliss! “What is this*chrr* STOP IT!”

“You was in charge long enough... now you will please meee... be my tool!!”

Leona felt her tongue swelling, as a salty liquid filled her mouth “Whut tfe Phuck?!” With a slimy smack, her tongue broke out of he m outh, transformed into a long, disgusting proboscis with countless tiny legs.

Leona sobbed, as she saw her new disgusting tongue twitching through the air squirting a clean substance out of its tip.

“My tool.... My cock!!”

Leona felt her lower body lifting, but she had no control over it anymore. Horrified, she looked down on her and saw that her pussy which had grown into a huge, disgusting slit that constantly drooled and smacked. It finally dawned on her, that the voice was not coming from a person inside this cave... it came from inside HER... In horror, she looked down to the smacking opening her cunt has transformed into... was this even possible?!

“Stop thinking.. let me take over” Her cunt smacked “Cocks do not think... Cocks only fertilize...”

Leona, still in control of her upper limbs twisted and turned, trying to gain back control of her lower body, but again, her cunt paralyzed her with a rush of unbearable pleasure.

“Stop struggling... or I will boil your brain with pleasure! From now, you are just a cock, and I am your mistress, do you understand? You will spill your filthy semen whenever I ask for it!!”

Again, the salty taste started to spread in Leonas mouth “Please... no..UGhhh!”

The voice sounded more dominant than ever: “What are you from now on?!”

Leona sobbed, as salty cum ran over her lips:

“I’m a Ugh I’m a Cock mistress... please...”

A few days had passed, and Leona had learned the hard way, that it was useless to fight her new situation. With direct control over her lust, the feral creature - or whatever had become of her cunt due to her transformation - even the slightest try to gain control her body resulted in mind-breaking pleasure. Even thinking about moving out and using the phone to call for help had resulted in a massive climax.

This was her fate now and on the other hand, it made life a whole lot easier for Leona. The taste of insect cum in her mouth still almost made her puke, as well as seeing the unholy amount of unfertilized eggs her body was producing and pressing out, but all in all, life was good and easy.

Her lower part was even taking care of feeding the two, even if it was a rather unappetizing process of vore with a lot of smacking and drooling.

A strange maternal love had started to connect her to the hundreds of centipedes that hatched from the eggs she fertilized, and in a strange way, she was even happy.

After a few months, It seemed that the dominant nature of her lower body had even somewhat cooled off. It now started to randomly talk to her about past affairs and kinky things... more like they were partners or old friends - weird and intimate friends for sure... but somewhat on the same level.

One day, Her lower half even allowed Leona to gain control of her body every now and then, saying that it was tired and bored of just laying eggs all day, remembering a past that was way more exciting, easier and fun.

So came the day that the two made a pact: Leona was free to use her body, as long as she kept her lower half pleased.

"You cheated me Leona!" The angry voice of her mistress echoed in her head. "It had been months that I last vored a cute guy or even had a satisfying dick to suck on!"

"Please... give me a few more days... I can find someone to have fun with!" Leona tried to calm her down, but she already felt as the control of her body was slowly fading.

"It has no use... I was stupid trusting a cock...You will get what you deserve for betraying me!!"

Leona started to panic and carefully caressed her pussy
"No... please... everything will be fine!!"

"Your appearance is no use for me... I shall give you the shape that you deserve... I need more semen... I need more COCK!!"

"Pfeafe wait!!" A gush of thick semen gushed out of Leonas mouth, as her hand touched her face...Something weird was happening to her!

In horror, she noticed, that her tits had formed into one giant, leathery and wrinkly sack "hnnw!!"
Her jaw stretched open, as something wet and slimy pushed up her throat... something that looked like... a Penis glans!

Disgusted, Leona saw her lips and nose slowly degenerate into lewd foreskin, as the glans pushed forwards even further, giving her head more and more the phallic look of a giant cock .
