Good to be Green

Ch. 4

Goblins are stupid but they are not fools

“Angh!?” The diminutive green monster was sent flying by the roundhouse kick from the beautiful chinses woman. Her powerful, muscular legs pivoted to send a back kick to the other goblin that tried to sneak up behind her.

Chun-li smirked as she bounced on her toes. The tassels keeping her hair tied in two neat buns, sway and shook with her light movements. Her blue sleeveless qipao, leotard, and brown pantyhose are spotless even in the damp and musky cave. Though the sunbeams from the holes above illuminated and the green-skinned monsters that swarmed the area. The goblin cave is reminiscent of a pirate’s treasure cove with a massive lake in the middle. Wooded parts from pirated sky ships made a home for the green devils.

The mast formed a bridge from the holes of their homes to the main deck of half the ship. Their treasures and stolen goods throne about the bow of the ship. Mainly surrounding the small throne for a leader of the group of green thieves.

“Nagh!?” Who now has half his body through a wall from a palm strike from Chun-li.

“Another day and another easy paycheck~.” The former detective chirped as swept the leg out from under one goblin, ducking under the cocky axe swing of another. And then rising up to kick both monsters in a wall.

It has been a month since Chun-li was dropped into such the strange world of floating islands and monsters. The sky world, a magical place filled with travelers and adventures called skyfarers, was a shock for her when she arrived with Ryu and Karin to take place in some strange tournament filled with monsters and thugs from a world none of them could understand.

If was not for the young captain of the GranCypher, Gran, finding them they would have been lost without any knowledge about the world.

“Hiya!” The high kick to the goblin’s chin sent him soaring to the ceiling.

After the young captain had assisted them in the tournament and telling them about the world, they all decided to branch off from each other to try and find their way back home. Ryu took off on his own journey. Though it was less to find a way home and more to continue his quest of finding inner peace by fighting stronger opponents. Karin took Gran's advice and stayed with the crew.

'Honestly, Gran really was a worry wort.' The woman thought as she backhanded a monster they tried to. For a month Chun-li has been traveling by herself, even getting a skyship of her own, to try and find her way back to her home world. Using her combat and detective skills to finish quests and gain some renown.

Goblins have become nothing but fodder for her now. Things she can take on with ease as she has even help best a primal. The ogre the goblins had protecting their entrance laying dead with a broken neck at the foot of the cave proves her skill.

"Neagh!?" Another goblin screamed in pain as it was slammed through the stone from a palm strike to his nose.

The goblins that are doing everything including throwing themselves at Chun-li dwindled more and more in number as they could not come up with anything to stop the martial woman. She would parry their swords and axes, break through their armor, and shatter their bones. She is too quick and too strong for them, and they are too stupid to think of parrying her own attacks or retreating to rethinking that maybe just jumping wildly at a woman who has years of combat under her belt is not a good idea.

However, a wise man once said: Goblins are stupid, but they are not fools.

Sure, they cannot figure out fighting her head on is not a bright idea, but maybe something more magical.

As another goblin was sent tumbling into the lake with a snapped neck, Chun-li turned her attention to the last monster at the head of the broken pirate ship. Dressed in more mystical clothes, with the skull of a wolf on his head and the pelt of many other animals around his waist.

The monster is muttering spell, but it did not matter. Chun-li has faced fireballs, lighting blots, and even black holes. A simple spell from a goblin is something she can easily deal with.

"Mindula!!" The goblin snarled as he trusted his hands forward and letting out a bright flash of light.

However, Chun-li dashed forward. Avoiding the ray of light and appearing right in front of the monster for her palm to deliver a killing strike to the forehead.

Except she did not. Her whole body stopped moving just before her palm even tickled the tip of the goblin mage's curved nose. The martial artist woman's visage became blank and vacant of thought. Her face slacked while a pink glow hummed around her eyes.

"Human good at kick but stupid with magic! Heh heh!!" The goblin cackled at his mind control spell was a success. Though instead of interrogating her to get information on where her friends or treasure is, leading her to a village to help him to take over, or even simply killing her for revenge for all his fallen brethren, he planned on humiliating her.

With a flourish of his cloak, he walked back to the so-called throne of the cave. Sitting on it as if he is the king of a castle. Even though all his subjects are dead at his feet.

"Come! Hands and knees! Crawl Bitch!"

“Yes. I will crawl.” Chun-li her expression vacant, got on her hands and knees. And crawled towards the goblin sneering down at her. Enjoying the sight of her large hips swaying side to side as she crawled to him like an obedient dog.

“Heh! Human stupid! Stupid stupid!” Though the goblin is not too stupid himself. His spell will wear off. How long depends on the mental fortitude of the victim and the magical power of the user. So, he had to do something to keep her under his spell for a while.

“You new breeding sow!” Was the first thought in the monster’s head as it pulled back his loincloth and let his meaty cock slap Chun-li on her forehead. The massive thing cast a long shadow over her face with a thick powerful musk. Dark green with large rounded warts, and pulsating veins, it looked menacing being larger than the gentiles of an average man. Its weighty heavy ball sack, covered in the sparse curly pubic hairs bounced with an untold amount of semen.

“Suck! Suck and worship slut!” The diminutive green monster commanded and Chun-li obeyed.

Eagerly opening her mouth, she took the tip of the massive cock in her mouth. She bounced her head up and down the cock tip, her tongue working around the and under the hood. Licking up the filth and sweat that has gathered from the unclean member. Slurping loudly, and slovenly at it as she started to push herself down its length.

With utter lust in the bright pink hearts in her eyes, the detective turned monster slut greedily slurped down the goblin’s mighty cock. Her eyes never leaving her master’s as she bounced her head up and down half the throbbing shaft. Drooling as her tongue tickled the winding veins that crisscrossed under the goblin’s dick.

“Your cock is so delicious master~. ♥” Chun-li praised as she popped the cock out up to the head and circled her tongue around it. The magic in her mind making the smelly, wortty dick look marvelous. As if she is praising a lover she whispered sweet nothings to the monster’s shaft as she kissed the side of the length.

The goblin all the while took joy in bullying and demeaning Chun-li. Slapping her face with his cock, smearing her spit, and the gooey pre-cum all over her face. Reaching over as she suckled on his balls to slap her wide, fat hips. Enjoying the firmness of her cheeks and her full lips on his balls as she licked at them as if they are the sweetest treat.

Grabbing her roughly by the hair, the goblin slammed her face down on his cock. Burying her nose into his unwashed pubic hair and forcing her to gag and choke. Tears of pain swelled in Chun-li’s eyes as her mascaras began to run. Normally she would be slapping the monster. Cursing at him and demanding he let her go and yet all she could do is happily guggle around the dick as she felt oxygen leave her body.

The goblin bounced her head up and down his shaft like a child with a new toy. Not caring if his, causing her neck to bulge out, hurt her in any way. Neither does Chun-li as she happily choked and sputtered around his prick. Her tongue licking up pubic hair as her face is mashed into the monster's crotch, spit coating her cheeks as they ballooned out when the monster twisted her face to the side as he threw his hips in her face.

“You suck good! Suck harder!” The goblin cackled as his slutty new toy’s gagging moans echoed throughout the cave. His pounding of her messy slutty visage getting more and more feverish as he felt his climax come sprinting froth. The sadistic green monster ripped his shaft from the slut’s full lips. And as Chun-li finally took gasps of air, her lungs were suddenly filled with sticky white semen that felt heavy as it slammed on her face. Her whole mouth is already covered in the honey-like jizz from the frit long spurts with the res drizzling her face until her master shoved her mouth back down on his prick. Shooting the rest of his seed down her mouth, Chun-li is back to choking for air as her neck bobbed and bulged outwards from her swallowing the healthy load.

“Slut drink dick spit good...” The goblin gave a loud sigh as it leaned back and let loose its entire load. Warping his legs around Chun-li’s neck to lock her down on his shuddering cock. His prick having a seemingly endless it is clear the little devil has not been able to get his rocks of much as he wanted. Even as strings of his semen oozing out from the sides of Chun-li’s stuffed mouth and shot out her nose profuse glops of cum shot out with constant force down her mouth.

For an hour Chun-li nearly drowned in cum. Finally, the monster pulled his cock from her slimy mouth. Stings of spit and jizz dangled between her lips and the bitch breaker of a cock.

“T-Thank you, master...” Chun-li gasped out through the bubbles of cum popping from her panting mouth. The goblin laughing at her as he slapped her face with his prick a few times. Still hard and willing to toy with her, the member felt warm against the cock dazed fighter’s cheeks.

“On back! Spread legs! Hurry slut! Beg for me to fuck!” The monster commanded with one last slap of his cock against her messy face.

Getting on her back, Chun-li with bright pink hearts in her eyes did what her master said. Grabbing her plush calf, she pulled her legs back and tearing a hole in her tights. Showing off her hairy moist cunt that twitched with need. Even without the magic forcing her to debase herself, her cunt still dribbled and dripped with lust. She pulled back her puffy lips to show off the vibrant pink of her muff.

“Please fuck my greedy pussy master~♥. Use your fat dick to reshape my cunt to make it yours~♥♥.”

The goblin gleefully pounced on his fuck toy. The monster pierced her pussy deep, hard and without any restraint started slamming down deep into Chun-li’s cunt. Fucking her into the ground with lust that would put a wild beast to shame. Snarling in her breasts with his hands digging into her plump fat thighs with its cum churning testicles slapping at her upturned rear.

Chun-li moaned like a neutral-born whore. Even without the spell turning her mind into her slutty mess, the goblin’s cock is still spreading her pussy lovingly. Filling her utterly as the mighty prick pounded down into her. Her tongue flapping out of her mouth as her eyes rolled in the back of her head in pleasure. The monster’s plan of drowning the would-be adventurer in pleasure. Shattering her dormant thoughts with his cock barreling down into her.

The monster only had a big dick and clearly does not know how to use it, but the large lumps slide against the sensitive part of Chun-li’s greedy fuck hole while the length made a small lump in her stomach form the girth of the member rampaging inside her. The goblin is relentless in his ravaging of, not only Chun-li’s pussy but also her modest breast as he tore open her shirt and took one of her stiff nipples in his mouth. Nipping and sucking at the tit while he continued his rampant thrusting. Getting his breeding whore to give out a bestial roar of delight.

“Hunyyaah~♥!” Her pussy sprayed a gushed out in orgasm while the monster kept plowing down into her. His claws digging into her thighs as he held back from depositing another climax of his own. Her pussy clenching and squeezing his prick while he still rampaged deep inside the mewling slut. Even as her second climax rushed through her; the goblin did not hold back.

Finally, with a fanged snarl, the monster gave one last thrust and unleashed its virile seed. It erupted in ivory thick white, gushing out of Chun-li battered pussy as the weighty blasts of semen slammed into the martial slut's womb. Each shot mad ever shiver and moan at being filled with the semen of the monster she was meant to kill. The little devil shaking and shivering as he tried to unleash as much spunk as he could.

The goblin suddenly reared his hips back, slowly pulling his stiff shaft cock back from the suffocating pussy and slammed his dick back fully inside Chun-li. His balls tensing up as he unloaded another dizzying load once more. Somehow it was twice as much as before as most of the cum oozed and pushed out of cock drunk woman's pussy. Her body shaking and wailing stupidly as her mind shut down. Thoughts of cocks flooding her thoughts as she went limp with lust just as the spell finally wore off.

“A-Ah...c-cockish...~♥” Chun-li moaned stupidly. The effects of the spell are gone but her head is too filled with pleasure to make a coherent thought.

The goblin smiled as he noticed Chun-li's drunken state of lust. Finally getting the upper hand on her and now he has the choice to do whatever he wished. By the time the would-be skyfarer would regain her thoughts his mind control spell would be ready to use again.

The lewd possibilities are limitless for him.

But.

Goblins may not be fools, but they are stupid.

-OOO-

“She will make a good breeding cow to help repopulate us.” The werewolf snorted. In front of him, his bother kept Chun-li's face into the ground as his bright red cock plowed into her abused cunt. Her large ass raised in the air with her legs spread wide. It jiggled and shook from the massive wolfman slamming his massive red pecker, knot and all, in and out of her slick cunt. All the while Chun-li moaned and wailed with a cock drunk expression on her face.

The woman was tied and bound at their cave door. Not knowing where she came from with only a letter tied to her saying ‘breed me.’

“I still do not know where she came from, but all the same, a good strong brood mother is what we need right now.” The wolfman nodded to himself. With their race on the decline, the werewolves needed strong women to bare their children. Though it is not like they could go out in random towns and ask strong women to just spread their legs to mother at least six wolf pups. The beast man gave a thankful nod to whoever it was that left him and his people such a pleasant gift.

“Ha~! Sho-ngh~! M-More~♥!” The mind control lost its effects hours ago and yet the only thing in Chun-li's mind is the knotted member of the werewolf slapping her wide ass. Her pussy clamping down happily on it even though she has no clue how or why she got here. She was fighting goblins in a cave one moment.

“Ooooh~!” And the next she has a canine cock gushing thick white semen in her womb.

The goblin nodded to himself from his hiding spot behind a tree. His genius sacrificing even him as his plan to give Chun-li to the werewolves as a plaything so she can raise pups that he could steal away and make into an army of his own worked. Sort of.

Though it would have been smarter for the mage to simply turn Chun-li into his own sex slave and bodyguard too.

But as a wise man once said; Goblins are stupid, but they are not fools.

Though this one is still rather dumb.
