PERSONAL SKILLS

■ Thirty-nine Fountains: A

A skill that allows the easing of the burden of supporting his Noble Phantasm's extensive energy costs. Through strategic placement of "fountains" that concentrate magical energy from the surroundings, the cost is drastically reduced. Replaces the Territory Creation skill.

■ Quarrel of the Ancients and the Moderns: A+

The marriage of Modernity and Antiquity. By establishing that all works of his era are either the equal or greater of the works of the ancient writers and mythologers, the weight and mystery of the beings in his fairy tales is enhanced, and their performance and conceptual strength is proportionally increased.

■ Father of Fairy Tales: A++

He was not the originator of the genre known as fairy tales. However, he was instrumental in their development and popularization, and therefore, having left an indelible mark on the history of literature, he possesses an unbreakable connection to those stories which arose from his.

In practice, the creations of his Noble Phantasm are thusly more susceptible to the influences of later interpretations of his stories. As their progenitor, he must accept responsibility for the children spawned from his own works.
