

The Hot Roommate

By ChronoEclipse

Tiffani loved living with three guys. She was a young sexy girl right out of college and enjoyed living in a place where she could party and get lots of attention. The three guys she lived with drooled over her gorgeous features, tanned skin, long toned legs, firm ass, and huge bouncing breasts. At night they were rewarded when Tiffani decided to take her nightly shower before bed. She would take a hot steamy shower while the boys would watch TV on the couch and when she was finished she would saunter out in a small bath towel leaving very little to the imagination. It was all a show and a tease, she never had sex with any of them. She just flashed and flirted and then sashayed into her bedroom with a sexy “Bye boys, off to bed!” And that was that.

However one night, one of the roommates, Chuck, saw a cream in a local shop downtown with some chinese lettering on it that he thought might spice things up a bit. Having a very basic knowledge of Chinese he thought the cream made the user incredibly horny. However he overlooked a character and what the cream actually did was make someone incredibly old. He placed it in the bathroom and let Tiffani know she could use the new body wash he bought.

The hot young girl went into the bathroom that night and stripped naked admiring herself in the mirror. She was proud of her sexy body and knew she could get any guy she wanted. She turned on the water and began to wash herself. squeezing some of the cream in her hand she rubbed it up and down her long smooth caramel colored legs not realizing that as she washed them her leg muscles began to atrophy and become flabby until her calves and thighs were very soft and wrinkled. Varicose veins snaked their way up and down where the cream had been and the backs of her formally perfect thighs dimpled from fat and age.

She then began to wash her tight plump ass, squeezing and massaging each ass cheek they began to droop and sag. The skin oozed downward until they looked like sad melting pancakes of flesh. She began to rinse her pussy not noticing that the chestnut colored strip of hair down there instantly turned white under the cream or that her vaginal lips began drooping lower and lower with each pass of her fingers. She moaned softly as she gently massaged her old worn out pussy, that looked as if it had seen 80 years of wild sex that the top part of her body had not.

She moved up to lather her back and stomach. The water ran down her formerly smooth back that was now plumper and filled with fatty areas and wrinkled crevices. Her lower back tattoo had become a distorted mess of splotchy colors. Her belly pooched out and wrinkled, sadly making her belly button which was moments ago a cute little dip in the middle of her flat abs, a frowning gap in a sea of pale cellulite and wrinkled skin. She brought her trembling wrinkled hands up to her perky gravity defying breasts. They were tits a goddess would be envious of. With half dollar sized brown nipples and perfect orb shape to them. But immediately as she began to massage them they withered and sagged down lower and lower until they dangled, formless and half empty on either side of her frowny belly button.

The lotion was now making a shriveled turkey waddle out of her neck as she got ready to wash her face. She rinsed water over her beautiful face with her sparkling eyes and pouty lips, but when she brought her hands to her face and rinsed again the water revealed a mass of wrinkles, sagging cheeks, thin withered lips, drooping eyes and a distinct lack of teeth. Her hair was last as her long curls became gray and white. She slowly, creakily shut off the water. Tiffani steadied herself in the shower and rubbed her crooked back as water dripped from her withered body. The wet naked old lady was a far cry from the energetic, sexy girl who danced into the tub and started the shower.

A wrinkled, age spotted, yet perfectly pedicured foot found the bathmat and she stared at her shrunken shriveled body in the mirror. She saw her aged, wrecked nude body with her shriveled tits and her long white hair and knew something was off but couldn't quite place it... she ran a trembling hand up and down her wrinkled sagging features and tried to remember what she was supposed to be doing. "What do I do every night when I'm done with my shower? Oh yes! I give those nice boys a treat..." She wet her thin lips and shuffled to the bathroom door forgetting to put on a towel.

The guys were all gathered in the living room waiting for the evening show. They heard the bathroom door open and were getting erect at just the thought of the sexy tanned coed that would be sauntering into their line of sight momentarily. However, when a small incredibly wrinkled 100 year old woman hobbled into the living room bare ass naked they freaked. Tiffani shuffled one wrinkled foot in front of the other toward them slowly, her wrinkled pendulous boobs swayed back and forth with each careful step. She puckered her wrinkled lips and posed seductively for the boys causing two of the roommates to scream and lock themselves in their bedrooms. But Chuck stayed, his boner not subsiding.

“Bye boys... off to bed.” Tiffani called out in a quavering voice and gave Chuck a seductive wink with her sunken eye. She then looked a little disoriented and finally slowly began to shuffled towards the bedroom. Chuck watched her formerly tight toned ass that was now two lumpy sacks of sagging cellulite as the wrinkled cheeks bounced behind her. To Chuck's pleasant surprise Tiffani was hobbling into HIS room. He waited for the aged coed to make it through his door and then sauntered in behind her. “I wonder if that cream wears off?” He thought as he shut the door and began to undress, not really caring one way or another.

The End.
