

Butt It Up: ButtyBurger

“Hello!” the clown mascot cheered from behind the counter, “Welcome to Wacky Rozy’s. I’m the one, the only, the stupendous Wacky Rozy! How may I take your order to-DAY?”

It was lunchtime time at Wacky Rozy’s and the popular mascot of the chain was manning the counter and greeting all the customers. The newest one to step forward was an average build young man with shaggy brown hair. Wearing square-rimmed glasses and sporting a goatee, he looked at Rozy with a smile and said, “Well, I’m interested in the new thing you got up there.”

Rozy giggled and replied, “Oh really? You interested in our new, special ButtyBurgers?”

“You bet!” the guy replied cheerfully, “I’ve tried a lot of your stuff here before and I’ve enjoyed pretty much all of it. I assume it’s like your BubbleButtBerry Shake, just as a hamburger, right?”

The clown beamed at him with a large smile and said in sweet voice, “Mmmaaayybbbee, mmaaaybe not. You will have to try it out cutie.”

“Of course,” he said with a cheerful smile, handing her the money for the food. Rozy took the cash and went and fetched him his burger. A minute later, the alluring clown woman came back carrying a tray in front of her bouncing chest.

“Here you are honey,” she chimed, “One nice ButtyBurger.” From what the customer could tell, it appeared to be a basic, normal hamburger like the other ones in the restaurant. Well, except for the pink sauce that was slightly drizzling along the side of the meat and bun.

The customer paid it no mind and took his burger over to a booth in the far corner of the restaurant, opposite side of the playland area. Sitting down, he grabbed his burger and took a big bite of it as soon as possible. His entire body shivered with delight and a sense of warmth rocketed through his entire body in almost a split second.

“Man!” he said with a big grin, “Rozy’s food never did that before.” He suddenly let out a light giggle as his voice dropped in tone, turning far more girlish and higher pitched.

His body started rapidly changing almost the second after that, helped along by him taking another big bite out of the burger. All of his body hair, besides his head hair and eyelashes completely vanished in a split second. Arms, legs, torso, and even his goatee were just gone in a flash, alongside any blemishes, scars, or birthmarks. His skin softened and developed a light tan to it as well, his complexion radically different in only a few seconds.

His body form was next to change, completely dropping several sizes until he was only in teen or woman sizes. His muscle mass decreased and his body fat melted away almost in an instance, his figure far more toned and fit than ever before. His finger and toenails also grew longer and more evenly cut, as if he had gotten a professional manicure.

“I don’t know why,” he giggled, “but I’m feeling pretty now.” He giggled and his head commenced transforming as well. His chin became rounded and his cheekbones raised, his jawline becoming less sharp as well. His eyebrows thinned considerably and his eyelashes grew longer and fuller, giving a seductive flutter with each blink of his bright, baby-blue eyes.

As his nose shorten, his thick rimmed glasses slipped down his nose a bit. He let out another giggle and pushed them back up his face, saying, “Put you back into fffrtt place there.”

Taking another bite of his hamburger, his body growled. His insides rumbled and shook, his stomach growling so that the person in the booth ahead of him glanced curiously at him. The customer paid the guy no mind, the feeling quite thrilling and absolutely delightful.

With a few cracks and shifts in his form, his waist curved inward and provided him with a far more hourglass-like figure. His thighs thickened with fat and muscles as his legs extended out a few more inches. His hips widened considerably and his own rear inflated, pushing him up in his seat a few inches.

Of course, the biggest his lower region change was in his crotch. The bulge within his jeans deflated quickly and rapidly, leaving the area completely smooth. His entire malehood had gone away and left her all completely woman.

“Sooooo yummy frt!” the new woman sighed happily, wiping some of the crumbs from her face. As her back pushed out, her chest began to expand and grow. Two small mounds barely bigger than bug bites emerged from her barren chest, but quickly grew and grew like weeds.

Her breasts swelled to B-cups quickly, but didn’t stop there at all. They ballooned out and fast to full-fledged D and then EE-cups that jiggled slightly within her shirt. Speaking of which, the fabric of her shirt warped around her heavy mounds, even lifting it up to reveal her flat and toned tummy.

“Sooooo fffrt wonderful!” she declared, “And there’s still plenty left to frt eat!” She giggled again, amused by her sudden use of raspberries in her conversation. She suspected it had something to do with her meal, but she didn’t care too much, just quickly taking another big bite of the patty.

In fact, she didn’t stop taking bites out of the burger until it was all gone now. For some reason, now that she was all womanly, the taste of the greasy junk food was far better than ever before. It just made her body feel so damn good...

...and also a bit heavier in a certain region: her face.

Her cheeks at first turned slightly red, as if the customer suddenly felt embarrassed or mad about something. But then they grew redder and pinker as well, covering most of her cheeks in almost a rather comical fashion.

She didn't notice the color change, but certainly felt the next part as she finished chowing down on her burger. Her lips started inflating, getting plumper and plumper as if she got a collagen injection. Then beyond that, they turned bright pink and puckered out more and more, giving her rather cartoonish-looking lips.

"Sooooo ffffrttt good fffrttt," she giggled more as she swallowed the last piece of meat, "Like totally, fffrrtt awesome!"

At that moment, her cheeks began to expand. Not too much at first, more looking like they were inflamed or slightly swollen from a bee sting. But then they got bigger and bigger and MUCH bigger than that.

Her cheeks grew wider and wider, stretching beyond the boundaries of just a person normally puffing up their cheeks. They were getting far more bulbous and impressive-looking by the second, being bigger than a pair of grapefruits.

"You looking like you're having fun there sweetie," a familiar, sweet voice cooed from behind her. The customer turned their head around to look and suddenly, gloved hands swung in and slapped her loud cheeks with a loud SMACK. They jiggled and vibrated from the impact and the former guy's mind went wild and dizzy.

Her cheeks, despite the smack, felt tingly and sensitive... in a rather good way. She giggled and tooted out, "Fffrtt, that was fffrtt fun! My cheekies feel fffrtt funny and good now ffrt!"

"Well they should," Rozy explained, revealing herself to be the culprit, "That's the magic of the ButtyBurger! It makes you into a cutie, sexy buttfacer girl!"

"Really ffffrttt?" the customer asked excitedly, her cheeks swelling to the point where they were larger than her fists. They jiggled even more obvious and blatant than before with every shift and shake of her head.

"Oh yes!" Rozy explained excitedly, "I hope you and others really love it! Cost quite a bit to buy the recipe from this handsome guy I met."

The customer's cheeks grew even larger than before as she nodded and listened, eventually reaching the size of volleyballs. Her nose had completely vanished between her huge cheeks, her lips squashed between them, and her jaw and chin completely invisible due to her new face cheeks.

"Well ffffrttt," the customer stated, "that was ffrttt suppppppppeeeerrrrr yummy ffrt! Can I have fffrtt another tasty burger ffffrtt frt?~"

"Another ButtyBurger?" Rozy gasped, placing her hand over her mouth in complete shock, "But having another burger will make your cheeks super huge and super gigantic! No one has dared to try that before!"

Both girls looked at each other completely and utterly stunned and silent. However, a few moments later, Rozy grinned and declared, “Let’s try it!”

“Aw yeah fffffrrtttt!” the customer cheered. Today would be certainly a very buttautiful day for the two of them.
