

Underground Duels

Yugi enters the world of underground dueling, he isn't holding back and plans to rule it all until he is the king of the underground.

Chap 1 The Underground

Card games were a common thing, soon duels went underground with more risk. The underground duels had their own unique rules and power. You didn't just play for money or cards...no in the underground you bet your very self. Losers could be made into the personal fuck toys of the winners.

The man behind this was Pegasus, he harness some mojo and made these special collars, in each one held a stone, when it glowed green it meant the wearer was free, blue it meant that the person was the king, red meant the person was taken. There were two other powers should the stone glow purple the person is attacked with pain, so much so someone could pass out, those with stronger wills can stay awake but won't be able to move for some time; the other is if the stone glows gold the person receives powerful jolts of pleasure attacking all their most sensitive places, it can bring someone to an orgasm in seconds, one's with strong bodies can last a few minutes but still will be brought to release. These last two settings are brought on by the subs masters, another benefit of these special stones they release a special energy that allow one's body to completely absorb one's food boosting one's energy and an added bonus keeps their asses nice and clean, perfect for taking.

The underground was split up under 5 houses, the north house was ruled by Seto Kaiba, the south was ruled by a duo of Bakura and Marik, the west was ruled by Duke Devlin, and the east was ruled by the duo of Joey and Tristan, at the center of it all was Pegasus' house. Being King meant the highest status in a territory, Kings got to have harems, as well as received a steady income to keep their sector going.

This is a world not for the faint of heart, one duel could make or break you. Some came to the Underground just to watch, you either got a sweet duel or a live show. Some duelists came to challenge the king(s) sometimes guests duel each other to hook up. It was a wild place, yet surprisingly a young boy named Yugi has plans to enter the fray and become top dog in the underground.

'This place can make my dream come true.'

Yami was a bouncer at the East House where Joey and Tristan ruled, he may have let it slip to his little brother about it and so the boy got his deck ready. When he showed up at the gate Yami was shocked. "Yugi, what are you doing here?"

"I came here to duel of course." He had brought his own deck, not his grandfathers.

"You brought those cards? You really are serious aren't you?" he looked around. "But Yugi if you lose there is nothing I can do to protect you." He may have been a duelist, but once you were claimed it was hard to escape that.

"I'll be fine Yami, don't you trust me?" the older male sighed in defeat. 'I trust you plenty, it's the guys here I don't trust.' he runs his fingers through matching tri colored hair.

"Alright," he brought out the collar he needed to wear, the boy put it on without a hint of hesitation. "Good luck.” The stone turned green. Yugi smiled and gave his brother a thumbs up.

Yugi entered, and was surprised at the various males in risky clothing. Some guys wearing skin tight shorts and nothing else(except the collars of course). Other guys were wearing large jackets with nothing underneath showing off their pecs and abs. Some guys were even getting it on having their subs lick their muscled bodies.

The boy’s dazzling purple eyes sparkled and he got more and more excited. His manhood throbbed, pushing hungrily at the confines of his pants. ‘Down boy, we’ll have our fun soon. He headed straight for the kings, he was going for the gold on this one.

Joey and Tristan were lounging basking in joy as they had some of their subs taking care of them. Joey was wearing an open green jacket, showing off his pecs and perky nipples, along with his rock hard abs, he wore tight green shorts with no underwear showing off his bulge and his chiseled legs. At his feet was one of his subs Rex Raptor, the boy had not only lost a few duels to Joey losing some of his best cards, he also became his sub. Rex wore nothing but his collar, and a cock ring binding his 5 inch cock. He was Joey's favorite pet and the male often seen licking his feet, like he was now.

Rex had grown a hardcore fetish thanks to his master, the smell of a man's feet and the taste, it got him so hard and needy, he played with his dick as he licked the blonde's feet. He moved from the left to the right licking between his toes.

Tristan was basking in a similar manner, though he was wearing a tan jacket showing off his own firm body, he wasn't sporting abs like his buddy but he had firm pecs, he wore knee length loose pants and a jock strap. At his feet was the green haired smart mouth Weevil licking away at his master's feet, his hard 3 inch cock pulsing angrily. "Nothing beats being the king!" he said with a laugh.

"You said it Tristan, we rule this territory." The blonde said and the two bump fists.

"You guys are the kings?" the two look towards the voice, and see Yugi standing there.

"Who let this kid in here?" Tristan said with a laugh.

“This is no place for little kids, get lost before you end up hurt!” Yugi just smirked, and readied his duel deck.

“If you two are scared to fight me, I will go, but I came to challenge the kings, it wouldn’t look good if I was sent away without a single duel.” he pointed at the two. “It’s time to duel!”

“Grr you runt!” Tristan snapped, and then smirked, regaining his composure. “You want us get past our pets first!” he snapped his finger and Weevil stood up, Joey nodded to Rex and the dino duelist stood as well.

“Fine but if I win there contracts are suspended and I get to choose one of them to be my pet.” He challenged, and the kings agreed. “But if you lose, you’ll become our pet and service us day and night.” Ash agreed.

It was a simple two on one duel. Yugi would go then Rex, then Yugi again then Weevil and so on. Weevil and Rex both had 6000 life points giving a grand total of 12,000, while Yugi just had 6000. Also a benefit Yugi was also not allowed to attack till his second turn so he could attack after Rex played.

“Let’s see what this kid is made of.” Tristan said and Joey nodded, he didn’t get why such a kid would come here but if he wanted to play with the big boys who was he to turn down a challenge.

‘He’d make a fine addition to my harem!’ he thought, and felt his cock twitch as he imagined all the fun he could do with Yugi.

So the duel began!

Chap 2 Spoils of the Underground

Everywhere in the underground had their own unique stadiums or ways to do cyber/virtual dueling. The trio took to the field.

Yugi drew a card and examined what he had. “Alright I’ll begin with playing Magical Spectrum. This spell card allows me to special summon five monsters this turn, so I special summon. Red Magician,” a handsome male magician appeared dressed all in red, wielding a sword with magical spheres in it. “Blue Magician,” another handsome magician wearing glasses dressed in a similar outfit but in blue appeared, he was holding a magical book with magical stones on it. “Green Magician,” once more another magician appeared, he had green eyes and green robes while his counter parts had red eyes and blue eyes matching their respective robe, he had an emerald band with magical stones embedded in it.

“Yellow Magician,” a magician in yellow robes appeared, unlike his companions he had short hair, he wore a necklace with a magical stone in it. “And last but not least Violet Magician!” the last magician joining them was the only one who’s robe didn’t have a hood and who’s hair reached down to their lower back. He wielded a staff with magical stones embedded at the top.

Each of the magicians only had 1000 points but they each had their own unique abilities. He played two more cards face down and ended his turn.

“Impressive move but with weak monsters like that he won’t survive against them.”

“Maybe, but that look in his eyes, he’s full of confidence.”

It was Rex's turn, he summoned a monstrous dinosaur monster wielding 2000 ATK points. "Next I play the Prehistoric Land this gives any dino or bug type monster summoned and additional 1000 attack points." His monster was boosted to 3000 ATK.

"Sounds like you two are skilled, and good at working together but I'm afraid a move like that won't do you much good against me." He says, and gives Rex a wink, the male blushes but ends his turn. Yugi draws again and is ready to play.

"First I activate the effect of Violet Magician, he is a master of support magic and nothing brings support like a power boost, using his effect all spellcaster monsters ATK power is increased by 1000." All his monsters got a boost. They now all had 2000 ATK points. "Next is my Red Magician's ability he is a master of battle magic when fighting an opponent he can draw half the attack power of my opponent's monster." The sword glowed and drew on the power of the dino raising his attack to 3500. "Now attack!" his magician let loose a blade of flames slashing the dino apart.

Rex and Weevil 11,500

“Now the rest of my monsters will attack!” the yellow magician sent a flurry of glowing pages to strike, while the green fired a blast from his bracelet, blue fired a blast from his pendant and violet his staff.

Rex and Weevil 3,500

“Now to end my turn I will activate Yellow Magician’s effect. Element barrage, for each spell caster on my field I can deal 500 direct damage to your life points.” With five he dealt 2500 damage bringing them down to only 1000 points.

“Tsk, don’t think that beating dino brain over there means anything it’s my turn!” Weevil snapped. He played Demon Comb allowing him to summon 5 Demon Hornet monsters, they were big and red and black, with monstrous stingers and claws. Each one thanks to Rex’s field spell had 2500 ATK points, and since Yugi’s battle phase was over Red Magician was back to only 2000 points. “But I won’t attack them with my monsters when I can crush them all with a spell card, Rain of Stingers! For each bug monster I have I can destroy any of your monsters, and with five I can wipe them all out and attack your life points directly.”

“I don’t think so, not with the effect of Blue Magician on the field, with his ability I can shield my monsters from your spell card.” As the rain of needles fell, a blue barrier appeared over them and the spell was blocked.

“Then your monsters will die in battle go my swarm.”

“Not this turn Weevil thanks to the effect of my last magician the Green!” Weevil watched as his monsters attacked only to be met with a wall of emeralds. “I can negate your battle phase once with his power shielding my monsters.”

His turn was over, and now it was Yugi’s. “Now to end this duel, I activate my spell card Magic Stones! This restores my magicians powers, including my Yellow Magician, and with his ability I bring down the rest of your life points.” His magical stones glowed and they were blasted with a rainbow of colors their life points going to 0.

Their collars beeped and turned green. Yugi pointed to Rex and gestured him over to him. “You shall be mine.” He cupped the dino user’s cheek and his collar stone changed to red. Rex nodded, and Yugi slipped the cock ring off him.

“Ah need to cum!” he panted out. Yugi smiled and kissed him, while pumping the dino boy’s neglected cock. With a muffled moan Rex came shooting his load all over the boy’s hand. Once the kiss broke Rex went to Yugi’s hand and began lapping up his cum off his new master’s fingers, and he groaned when he felt him pet him.

He leaned against Yugi, resting his head against the boy’s crotch, and letting his still aching manhood rub against his leg. ‘Fuck he smells so good, I think I’m going to enjoy being his pet.’

“Damn he actually won but this isn’t over I’ll duel you next and on my own!” Joey stepped up to the field, while Weevil slinked off to get his clothes.

“Sure thing!” he kissed Rex on the forehead. “Stay back a bit once I win this duel we can go home together.”

“Uh sure thing.” The dino spoke, his heart racing a mile a minute.

Chap 3 Not a One Trick Pony

Joey was pissed to have his rule challenged. Not only did he and Tristan lose their pets, but this little kid was gunning for them. Yugi was actually the same age as Joey and Tristan he was just short for his age. While Yugi was getting ready to duel Joey, shuffling his cards, an evil eye was watching.

'Those two fleas dared to make me their servant, but I'll make them pay.' The greenette had found his clothes but he hadn't left the Underground. He wanted revenge, he wanted the same combo. The bug duelist believed if he had it he would win every duel, he'd conquer the entire Underground. He'd start with Joey and Tristan first.

Yugi had finished shuffling as had Joey. "Hey man, we should duel him together." Tristan says. "We've gotten so far by working together."

"I know, but I gotta teach this punk a lesson." he got his deck ready. "You ready short stack?"

"Right," just before Yugi loaded his cards, Weevil dashed forward and snatched his deck. "Hey!"

“Weevil!” Joey shouted. “Stop him!” the other duelists glared at Weevil and tried to corner him. He was a slippery bug. Weevil searched for the cards. He wanted, Yugi's 2 spell cards and his 5 magicians.

“Now I got them,” he stopped in his victory getting lost in his dreams of grandeur. He didn't even realize he had been surrounded.

“Hand over the cards Weevil you snake.” Joey snaps, Rex lunged and got most of Yugi's deck, but Weevil still had the 7 cards.

“With these cards I will rule the Underground I won't give them up!” Weevil snapped.

“Give my cards back,” Yugi demanded. Weevil glared, he was boxed in.

“If I can't have them no one will. Say Goodbye!” he ripped the cards into pieces. The shredded bits hit the ground and Yugi looked on in horror.

Weevil was grabbed and arrested. The Underground didn't have too many rules but stealing, destroying, or sabotaging another person's deck was taboo. Yugi stared at his destroyed cards.

Joey sighed. "Look if you want to call off your challenge I understand."

"Why?" Yugi pulled out a small gold box. He collected the pieces of his ruined cards and put them in a bag and set them in the gold box.

"Here you are master," Rex says, bringing Yugi his deck. Yugi gives him a smile, and a peck on the cheek. "Thank you." Yugi took 7 cards from the gold box and added them to his deck.

"I'm not a one trick pony, Weevil destroying my cards sucks, but I'm still able to duel!" Joey was taken aback by the fire in Yugi's eyes.

"Fine, let's duel!" the two loaded their decks. Tristan had a bad feeling about this.

Challenger went first. Yugi drew, and smiled. "First I summon Time Magician!" a magician clad in red and gold robes, appeared. He carried a wand similar to Time Wizard's except it only had 3 faces on the watch, red blue and yellow. "Once per turn I can activate one of 3 effects, I choose the effect of the past!" the dial turned to the blue face.

Time Magician: 4 Stars: Dark: Magician/Effect

Past: Send 1 card from your hand back to the deck, shuffle and draw 1 card. You can Normal Summon again this turn. Present: Draw 3 Cards if any of those cards are Spell or Trap cards set them on the field, send any monsters to the graveyard. Future: Tribute this card, all monsters on opponents field are destroyed, and opponent takes damage equal to half the collected ATK points.

ATK 1000 DEF 1000

Yugi sent 1 card back to his deck and shuffled. Drawing a new card he set one card face down in defense mode.

"I'll play 2 face downs and end my turn."

"My move," Joey drew. "I play the spell card Warrior's Soul, this spell card let's me summon as many normal monsters from my hand as I want. It's continuous so I can do it so long as it's on the field." Yugi blinked.

He knew of the card in question, it was an easy way to fill your field so you can tribute a heavy hitter.

Apparently Joey didn't know how to use this card properly as it was the only spell card in his hand.

Joey summoned Tiger Axe, Armored Lizard, Alligator Sword, Axe Raider, and Masaki the Legendary Swordsman. Each one had a higher than 1000 ATK, but Joey's hand was completely empty. 'He isn't seriously gonna attack right?'

"I attack with Masaki!" Yugi could see Joey's plan a mile away, he was gonna try and take out his monsters with his less ATK monsters then strike Yugi's life points with his higher ATK monsters. 'Is he seriously gonna attack knowing I have a face down monster, plus two face downs.' The green armored samurai monster charged on his face down. It flipped face up.

There was an explosion, and Joey was confident he had won. However when the smoke cleared, Masaki's sword was broken. The creature he attacked had a hard shell.

"What the, I've never seen a monster like that!"

“This little guy, is called Armored Shell Bomb!” The shell opened up to reveal a red orb inside. He stuck his tongue out at Joey.

Armored Shell Bomb: ATK: 0 DEF 2000 2 Stars Fire
Pyro/Effect: When flipped face up inflict 1000 points of damage to opponent(s). When this card is destroyed by battle inflict damage equal to the attacking monster's ATK points to opponent's life points. At the end of the turn this card can be flipped face down in Defense mode.

Masaki only had 1100, so Joey got hit with 1900 points of damage.

Joey 8000 – 1900: 6100

“Oh man 2000 DEF how did this kid get a monster so strong in defense!” Yugi sweat dropped. “No matter you still got a weak monster in attack mode. Tiger Axe attack!” The beastly warrior charged at Yugi's Time Magician.

'Guess he didn't learn his lesson, oh well.' one of his face downs activated. “You activated one of my face-downs Negate Attack, it stops your attack and ends your battle phase.”

“Oh man, not again.” He ended his turn and Yugi drew.

“My turn, I summon Blast Magician!” The magician was mixing potions his robes were decked out with vials and flasks full of strange contents.

Blast Magician 4 Stars Dark Spellcaster/Effect

When this monster destroys a monster in battle inflict 700 points of damage to opponent. Should this card be destroyed by battle destroy the attacking monster. If this card is destroyed by card effect search your deck and set one spell card to the field.

ATK 1500 DEF 1400

“Next I activate Time Magician's Present Effect: I get to draw 3 cards and if any of them are spell or trap cards I get to set them on the field.” Yugi drew. “Awesome!” he played 3 cards face down.

“No way, all 3 were spell and trap cards?” Joey gasped.

“Yep, my deck is balanced between monsters and spells and traps. Don't tell me your deck is dominated by monsters is it?”

“Shut up, your monsters may have a couple effects, but look at my monsters they are super tough. I'll tear through your puny monsters then smash your life points.” Joey snapped.

'Well it takes all kinds I suppose...' Yugi sweat dropped.

“It's still my turn so now I shall attack. I use Blast Magician to attack Masaki!” the magician chuckled mixed up a potion and tossed it.....BOOM! Masaki was blown up in a massive explosion.

Joey 5700

“Thanks to my monster's effect you take an additional 700 points of damage.”

Joey 5000

'Darn it I knew it, me and Joey should have taken him on together.' Tristan had a bad feeling. Their legacy was using their buff monsters ganging up and taking out an opponent before they can make plays.

“I end my turn, flipping my Armored Shell Bomb face down.”

Joey drew. "I sacrifice my Tiger Axe, to summon Battle Steer!" Battle Steer was the strongest monster on Joey's field. "Go attack and destroy his Blast Magician!"

Battle Steer attacked and Blast Magician got destroyed but he wasn't the only one. One of his vials came down and Boom! Battle Steer got destroyed. "Oh man not another effect, no matter, go Axe Raider attack his Time Magician!"

The Axe Raider charged. "I activate a trap, Counter Barrier!" the trap activates when opponent attacks one of the holder monsters. It reflects the monster's attack as battle damage to the opponent.

Joey: 3300

"Go Alligator Sword!" Yugi activated his second face down this time a spell.

"You activated my Spell Card Cry of Battle!" This spell card ends the opponents battle phase, but doubles their ATK for the remainder of the duel. Joey's monsters doubled in power.

3400 and two 3000 ATK monsters.

“Big mistake there shrimp, now my monsters have double the strength to pound you next turn.”

“You won't be having a next turn, for I activate a Time Magician's Future Effect by tributing himself all your monsters are aged into dust, and you take damage equal to half their combined ATK points.”

Time Magician created a portal of time, he vanished while the others were turned to dust. Joey took 4700 points of damage as his monsters crumbled.

Joey lost, and he wasn't able to scratch Yugi's life points.

“I...lost...” he couldn't believe it, it was a total defeat.

'I've never had a such a one sided match.'

“That means you belong to me now.” Joey couldn't deny it. He stripped off his clothes. He exposed his 8 incher.

'I can't believe I have to serve this runt.'

“Hold on, you aren't taking him first we gotta duel first.”

Tristan says.

“Okay, but first I gotta use the bathroom.” Yugi headed off, Joey and Rex following him. Tristan waited anxiously.

-x-In the bathroom-x-

Joey and Rex stood in the wings as Yugi relieved himself. 'This little runt I bet he's packing light to,' Joey took a peek at what Yugi was packing. 'Oh my gawd! He's huge!' Joey was a bit of a size queen, not that it mattered, he had the biggest cock in his sector. A clear case of big fish in a small pond. Well a small shark just showed up and Joey got swallowed up.

Even Rex was staring at the huge tool. Both males got hard as rocks. Yugi turned and saw them, staring. "Jeez you two." Yugi stroked his cock, making it rise to it's full length.

Both his subs had hearts in their eyes at the sight. It was true Yugi wasn't very tall, it seemed most of his growth happened below the belt. "Go on have a taste." the two knelt down and got closer to the boy's crotch.

His manly musk hit them like a hurricane. It made them both shiver. Rex and Joy leaned forward and licked Yugi's shaft. It was like sparks went off in their brains. The two went at it like dogs after a giant bone.

They took turns, when Rex went high, Joey went low, and when Joe went high Rex sucked on Yugi's balls. Their own cocks went untouched, but continued to twitch like excited puppies.

Pre spilled all over the floor, none of it Yugi's the two subs didn't waste a drop. Even as the mighty length leaked pre, the two lapped up his essence. When the manly essence hit their tongue's it was like lightning. The flavor matched the smell, completing the experience.

The two pulled back, gazing at the mighty rod. They shared a look and the competition was on. They each took 8 seconds to go down on Yugi, slurping and sucking as much as they could before pulling off giving the other a chance.

Rex's oral skills had been more refined than Joeys'. Joey however took to cock sucking like a fish to water, each time he got a chance at Yugi's cock he got much more into his mouth.

As his throat was filled Joey felt more pleasure, a spark of joy that laid dormant inside him finally sprung to life. He breathed through his nose, taking in Yugi's delicious musk.

He swallowed more and more, and by the time he swallowed every inch he came. His seed exploded all over the floor. Yugi's pre gushing down his throat, he chugged it moaning in bliss.

The vibrations sealed it for Yugi, he came. His cock twitching as his big balls emptied into Joey's mouth. The blonde pulled back to catch some spurts in his mouth. His taste was explosive. Joey moaned, as the thick jizz filled his mouth.

Yugi grabbed the base of his cock, and stopped the flow, he pulled out of Joey's mouth and offered his dick to Rex. The boy swallowed the tip, and Yugi let go, and the flow of cum continued.

Tasting Yugi's cum, pushed Rex over the edge, his own seed splattering the floor. The boys took a minute to collect themselves, and clean up.

-x-

When the boys returned, Tristan's jaw dropped. "Oh Yugi, I totally misjudged you!" The blonde was holding Yugi. "You really are a big man, and your dueling skills are aces. Can you teach me?"

“Sure Joey.”

“Joey what the fuck!?” the blonde put the smaller male down. Joey was fully erect. He blushed and rubbed the back of his head. “I don't know what you are up to, but I'm gonna crush you!”

3 Turns Later...

Tristan was completely fried, he wasn't able to scratch Yugi's life points either.

It was official Yugi had become the new king of this sector of the Underground.
