

Firstly! Take your hand away!
Secondly! I'm helping, by watching you making sure you won't screw up anything.
Thirdly! I'm not.

You know what? Are you going to help me? Or you are already tired or maybe you got tired of walking with that big wheel of yours?

Anyway, I don't need to do the same work as you do. BECAUSE I'M THE QUEEN OF THIS BEACH!!! No No, better AN EMPRESS!!!

Yes yes keep telling yourself. Now come and watch out for the people in the water!

How is she still believing in this?

Because it is true! And now I'm going to sunbath, watching the sea is your job.

Well, you can go back to work and have "fun".
I'll be back at the end of "our" shift!

You will find a way,
Hahaha!

And how am I supposed to cover the whole area by myself?!

I hate her...

Working with her together is a real struggle...
Not only I have to do almost everything alone, but also hearing her babbling about how magnificent she is...

...HEY, YOU IN RED SHORTS, GET OUT FROM THE WATER! NOW!!!

At least this job is not difficult, well for someone like me it is not. People do not even try to argue with me, because they know how it may end for them.

Well, it looks like the time of boredom is over.
Time to save someone's life and get paid.

I'm coming, just hold for a little bit longer!

Running on the sand isn't hard if you are fit enough. Or rather if you are as fit as I am and your legs are as strong and and long as my.

And how about moving on the water?
Easy, I Like the feeling when my thighs are colliding with each other.
Well it almost impossible for them to not do if they are so big and muscular.

Every swimming style mastered: crawl, butterfly, backstroke and breaststroke. Sometimes I wonder which is stronger? My legs or my arms? Long crawl swimming can be exhausting, especially when I have to keep my head above water all the time to keep the drowning person in sight

Breaststroke style, seamless, underwater even faster than above water.
I see him, the guy in the red shorts,
he's going to get screwed.
Drowning here won't save you from me.

There you are, little one,
it looks like you need a spare hand.

Sometimes I don't feel...

...any challenge or resistance at all. During the courses we were taught how to fight a man in the water, who with all his strength tries to stay afloat at the expense of others, of course he would not dare to fight me. But he looked like he was obviously looking for something.

I can barely feel his weight.
He looks like an adult and has the figure of a child.
And the kind that doesn't like to move at all.
I think that two guys like him could be a challenge, or could provide a fairly decent workout

After basic CPR

Och, you are finally awoken.
How do you feel?

Still alive. But I feel dizzy.
Thank you... by the way
how long have I been unconscious?

It will pass quickly.
Less than 2 minutes.

Are you feeling better now?

Okay, well, then we can get down to business.
You know the rules?
I saved your life, so now you have to pay me.

Ehm, yes a bit.
Thank you for asking.

Well, I think I left my wallet in other pants.
Anyway, thank you again for saving me...

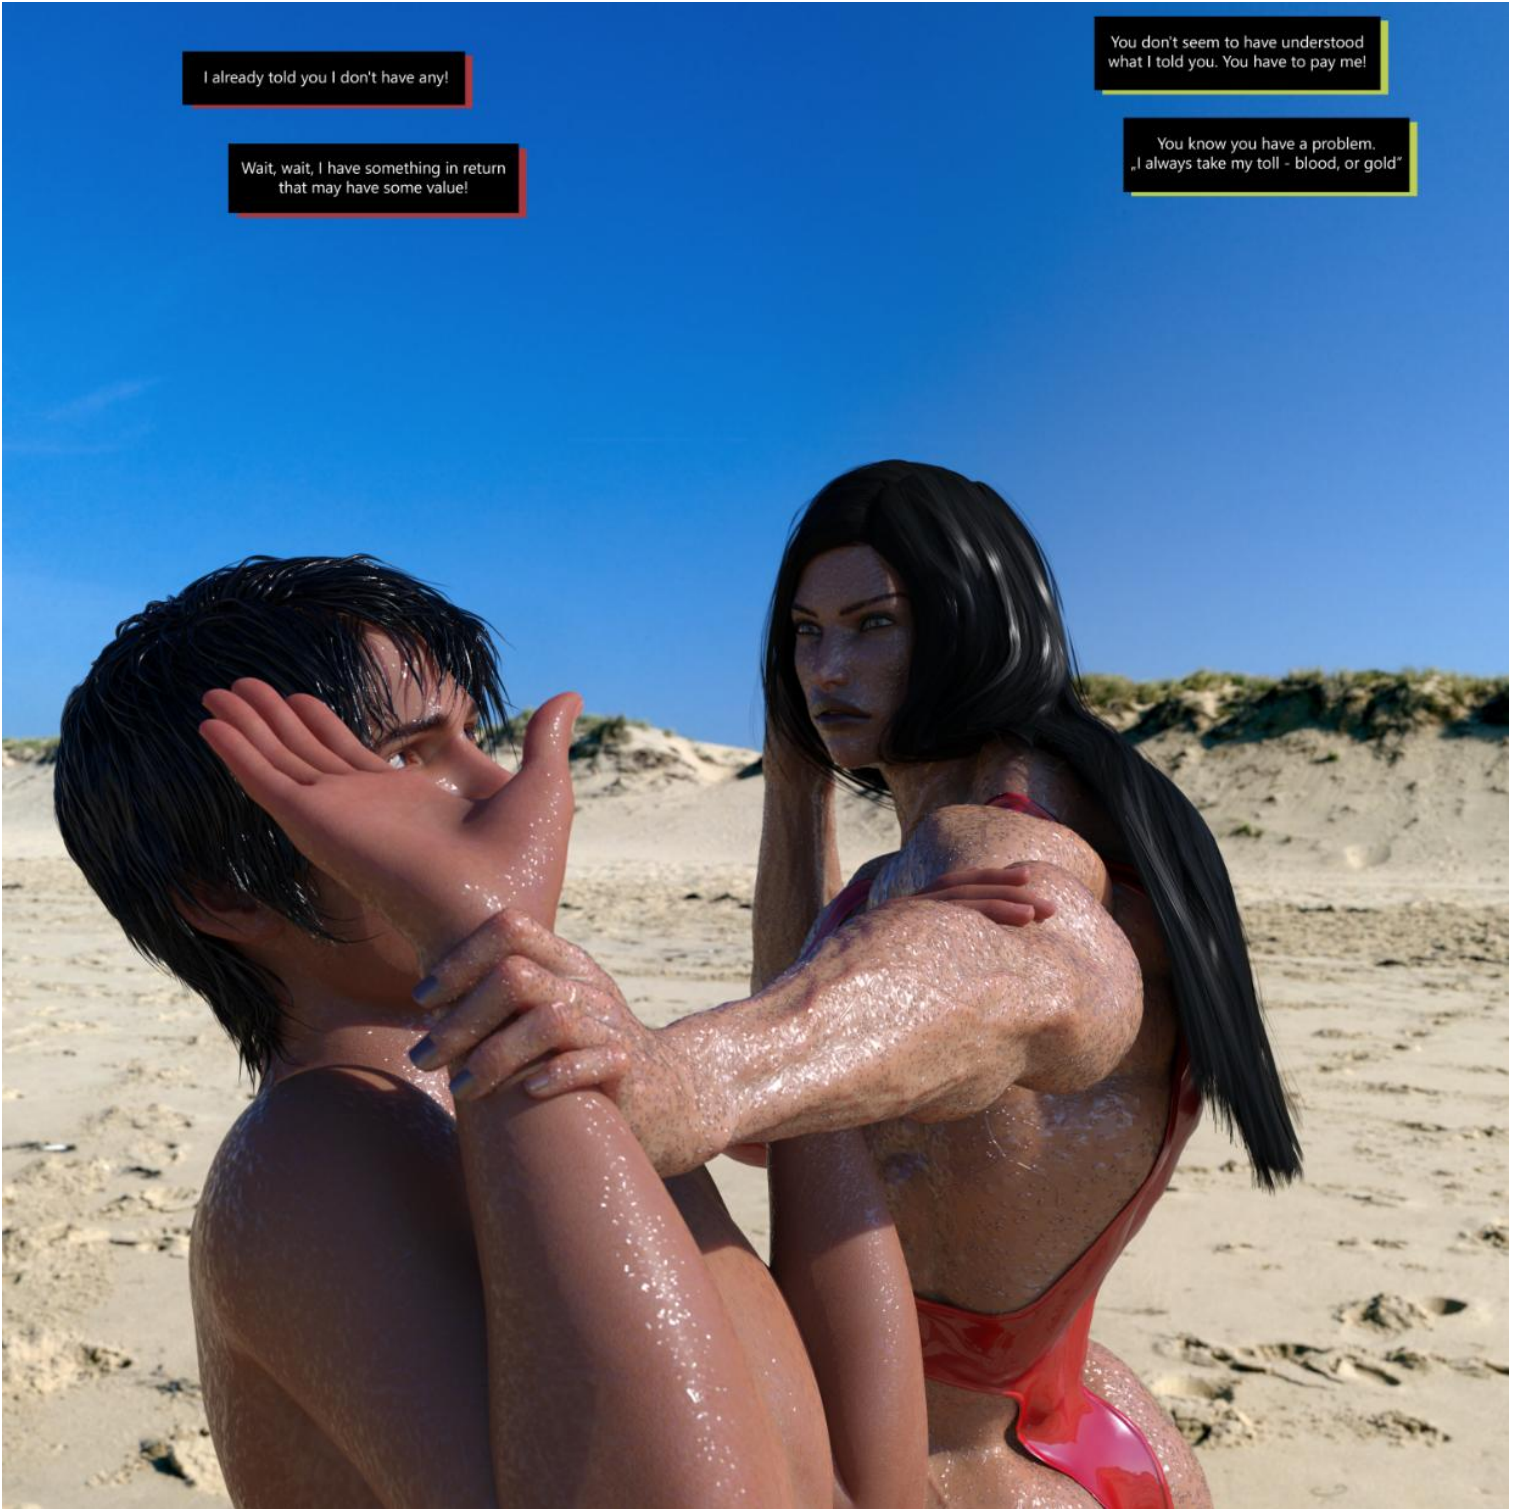

I already told you I don't have any!

Wait, wait, I have something in return that may have some value!

You don't seem to have understood what I told you. You have to pay me!

You know you have a problem.
„I always take my toll - blood, or gold“

Just before I started drowning, I found this coin. Strange then, there under the water it seemed to glow, but now it doesn't.

Or maybe your imagination is playing tricks on you.

Show me that damn coin finally

I'm not making this up, I'm saying what my eyes saw before I lost consciousness. But you don't have to believe me. Here it is!

Am I free to go now?

Well, thanks.

Yeah, we're even.

It's gonna be a weird day, I can feel it.

Glowing coins at the bottom of the sea? No shit, was he stoned or what? But I have to admit, it looks... expensive

I wonder how it looks in better lighting

The coin starts to heat up, I don't know why, and my palm is starting to go numb.
What if it spreads throughout my body and immobilizes me all over?
Maybe it's from the sun?
That's how it started to glow in the sunlight!
Maybe if I cut off the light source...

A hand with light-colored nail polish holds a glowing gold coin against a bright blue sky with a sun flare. The coin is held between the thumb and index finger, and it appears to be emitting a bright, shimmering light. The background is a clear blue sky with a large, bright sun flare in the upper center. The hand is positioned in the lower half of the frame, with the fingers curled around the coin. The overall scene is bright and surreal.

Ohh, shit! This coin is GLOWING!
My fingers go numb. What's going on?

It's not working! I can feel the heat emanating from my hand and it's like I've lost control of it. I feel terribly hot, like I've been in a tanning bed. My muscles are sore as if I am in the middle of a very intense workout!

Where does this pain come from? Everything... hurts, like I've been hit by... a truck.

This...

... pain...

I don' want to dieeee!...

Killed... by my own... greed...

...by cursed coin

The pain ...stops, I think I can get up

What a relief, thankfully it stopped. I thought, I was going to die here.

Wow, what happend here!?

I can't believe it ... is it really my arm?
That ... explains the pain I felt.

It's not just my arm, I'm bigger everywhere and ... almost naked

Where am I going to get a proper swimsuit now, this one was already the biggest they had!?

On the other hand, why hide such a body? I look even better than before. Besides, clothes are not a problem since I have strength now. And if someone doesn't like it, just tell me I dare you.

I wonder what will Qiyana say...

Noooo!...
It's your fault!
Help!

What's going on out there?

This cry for help, sounded like a child's voice.

Now what? My ball floats away, and we can't swim.

Now you know, and my dad will yell at me.

I'm sorry, I didn't know you didn't hit the ball with your fists.

Maybe someone can help us get her back

Were you the ones who called for help? What happened?!

Ohh, good morning maam.
We have problem, a big problem...

... Mr. Round is gone.

Okay, one more time, what's going on?
Who is Mr. Round?

So, this one. Me and my sister were playing with Mr. Round and then she bounced badly and now
Mr. Round is now in the water.

I'm sorry.
I really didn't mean to.

Mr. Round is our ball, we call We call it that because it's soooo round. Can you Pleasssse save him?

So, I ran across half the beach here as fast as I could, only to hear that the ball needed help!? You know that's not how you do it?!

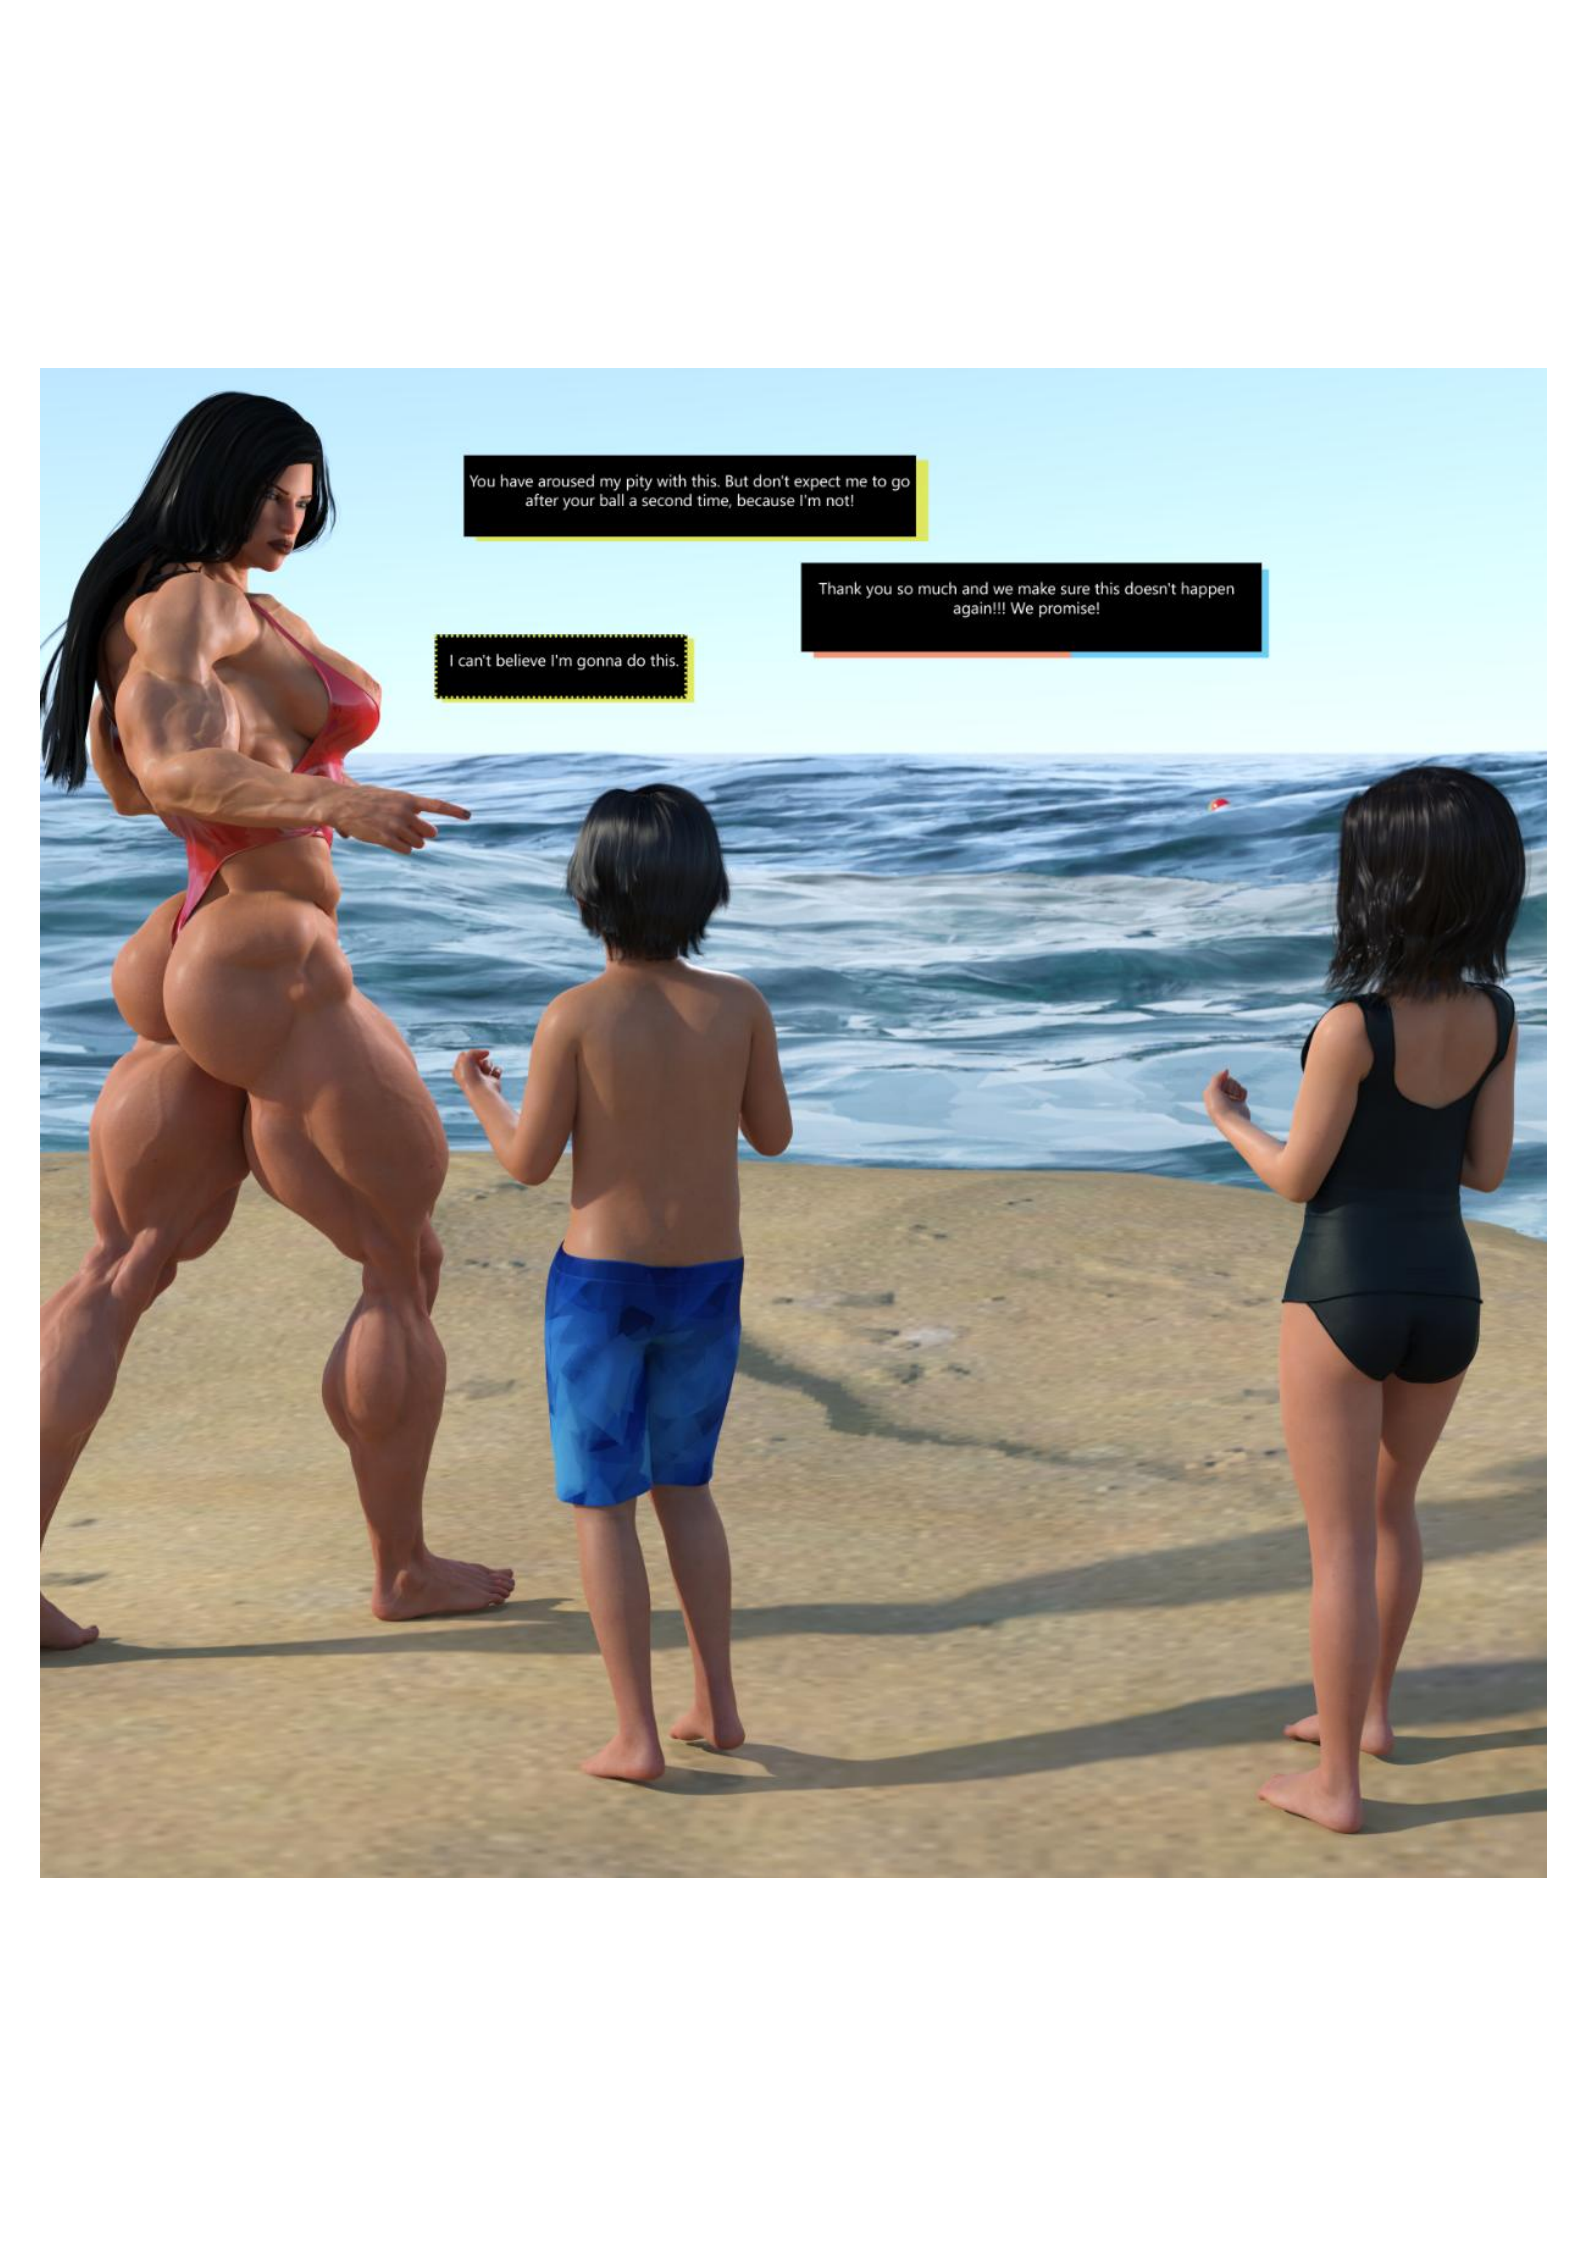

Sorry, we just don't know what to do, dad will be screaming because he just bought us this ball. And we've been asking him for so long.

Ehhh, where is the ball now?

Is right there in front of us in the water, far away from us.
Does that mean you can help us? Maam?

Please help us, we promise not to call for help without a good reason.

You have aroused my pity with this. But don't expect me to go after your ball a second time, because I'm not!

Thank you so much and we make sure this doesn't happen again!!! We promise!

I can't believe I'm gonna do this.

Now look, a ball in mortal danger that's drifting further and further into the ocean and poor children are falling deeper and deeper into despair for their favorite toy. Gods how silly that sounds. It's time to save this ball.

Wow, that bigger body really is stronger, faster, more powerful and ... sexier? Oh what an amazing feeling, and a swimsuit that feels even tighter when wet.

I was almost at that ball.

Quite a big ball, just a moment more and the wind would carry it to the open sea. How good that I am a great swimmer... great, powerful and sexy.

She's got our ball, hurayy!!

Maybe it was stupid, throwing myself in the water to get a ball for those kids, but now when I see how happy they are it makes me happy too. They see me as a hero!

Hey! I got your ball!

But they deserve some kind of reprimand.

I got your ball back, but you must know that was the first and last time. As a lifeguard, I am there to save lives and not things! Besides, never ever call for help when it's so petty! And as punishment, you both do 100 squats!

Thank you, thank you, THANK YOU !

We understand, we will behave more responsibly.

Well, finally, back at the station.
That half hour was really strange.
First, some weird guy with a weird coin that made me grow. Then those kids who lost the ball...
I wonder what else awaits me today.

On the other hand, why should I complain, I'm so big now. Well I was big before too, but now, this chair seems so small next to me. I wonder if I can still fit in there.

And even if I don't fit in, I'm still tall enough to see everything without it. Not to mention those muscles. Heck I didn't even have time to look at them too much. Every inch of me is big! Sooo sexy and...

Ahhhgggg!

Oh no! The heat, has returned, but not as intensive as before, still hurts but less in general...

Well, accualy...

it doesn't...

fell bad...

it's kinda nice...

Mmmm, it hurts, but in a good way...

Ufff, that was intensive...

Wow, I've really grown again.
I think I'm starting to like it!

Mhhh, I like it, now I'm definitely taller than this chair and certainly sturdier!

Just the thought of those strong muscles makes me want to flex them, all day long... and it would be worth it

In fact, why not do it now, the beach is pretty much deserted anyway and hardly anyone will see what I'm doing here.
Well, it's their loss, Hehe.

And now it's time for the big flex!
This outfit got even tighter and smaller on me. I wonder how it will hold up.

Oooo yes, a small outfit how do you feel when a wave of hard muscle is pushing against you? Because I feel great being so tall, strong and tough.

For the first time, I like the sound of clothes being ripped. But unfortunately the time for fun will come later because now I have to take care of the beach.

This may be a little more difficult than I planned, I can barely fit in this chair. My thighs don't fit between those railings. Maybe if I bend them a little....

Uhhh, it wasn't as hard as I thought it would be. Those muscles are definitely not for show.

It's good that it's relatively quiet today.
But also, on the other hand, it's a pity, because it's boring to have such a body and not be able to test it. I think I am able to pull 2 men out of the water in one go.

But there is something that doesn't give me relief, I just don't know what....

Oh fuck, I'm almost naked.

The whole growing sensation made her forget that this outfit was exposing my boobs.

I just hope no one has seen it.

What to do, what to do,
think Sivr think...

I have an idea!

I just need to lay low somewhere for a while so no one can see me.

These will be ideal for this.

It is so unusual that the beach is so deserted at this hour.

It's better for me this way.

I will admit that those beach couches were not heavy for me, but now they are much lighter and smaller. I wonder would someone else fit on it beside me?

I'll just check one more time to make sure no one is nearby.

Ahhhhh, it's nice to get that mega-tight swimsuit off my shoulders and boobs.
