Some people own it when they're wrong, some people lie and pretend it isn't happening.... personally I prefer it when they shut up shop and never come back.

It's a shame you won't be able to spend Sargon's money on your black supremacist groups. Maybe you should give some of your own money to your racist groups and stop trying to sue people and wasting the courts time. I would love to know how much time and money you wasted failing at that lawsuit. It could have probably kept you alive for months. Just shows

One side wants to talk about the issues and the other side wants to silence everybody that disagrees with them. We want to talk about the issues because we know we are right. You want to shut us down because you know your views are wrong. If you were right you wouldn't need to silence anyone.

"YouTube has become vulgar" It gets vulgar when you declare you have no remorse for suing and destroying a mans family because you needed cash for a dying channel. I don't agree with brutal harassment but your doing nothing to improve this situation.
