

CRYSTAL SHADOW

STORY AND ILLUSTRATOR BY LOVELESS NOVA

[Crystal Empire - 1000+ years before the show]

Once upon a time in the lands of tundra, where everything was covered with snow, there was a single empire that was located in the middle of the land. They called the city in the middle of these lands, the city of the Crystal Ponies. The snow was all they knew, for it would always fall for nearly all the whole year. But they never suffered from the snow, for they have a magic shield that protected them from the cold, snow and any monsters that tried to invade their wonderful city.

And this kingdom was ruled by only a single king, for he had no queen to rule alongside him. But he did have one daughter, a filly that he truly cared for and thus, always kept her safe in the crystal castle. Since he cared for his daughter so much, never did he let her go outside. But this didn't stop the ever curious filly, who always found a way to escape from her room and her personal guard many times. And one day, the ever daring filly escaped from her room and continued well beyond where she dared go before, in order to wander around the edge of the barrier to her father's city.

It was here that she noticed something outside the barrier. She walked across the barrier to investigate it and surprisingly found that it was a young colt. But he wasn't like any colt she knew. His skin didn't sparkle like crystal and he had a pointy horn on his head. However, the filly did notice that the colt seemed to still be awake, so she asked him a question.

Filly : Hello, stranger.

Colt : ".....Hello?...." The colt answered back with a monotone voice. The voice that sounded tired and hopeless

Filly : What kind of pony are you? I've never seen anypony like you before. Filly look at down at young colt curiously

Colt : I am a Unicorn. Are you an Earth Pony?

Filly : What is an Earth Pony? I am a Crystal Pony.

Colt : Crystal Pony?.....Never heard of it before... The colt closed his eyes. The cold was making him so tired that he couldn't even open his eyes anymore.

Filly : Why are you alone in the snow like this? Is it comfortable for you to sleep on the snow like this? Filly said with a bright and innocent voice

Colt : I'm lost...Snow fell everywhere and the Windigos attacked my village. I ran away from them. I ran and ran until I ended up here. I'm a colt...I'm tired...I think I will freeze to death here... His mind was a blur to him. It seems like the filly's voice was the only thing that was keeping him from losing consciousness

Filly : Mmmmm...Do you want to stay at my house for a while? It isn't far from here and we also have a fireplace.

Colt : I have no strength left to walk... True to his words. He tried to get up but he couldn't even feel his legs. Let alone try to move it

Filly : That's alright! Let me carry you!!

The filly walked close to the colt and pulled him over her back before slowly walking back to the city.

Filly : What is your name? Filly asks him when they walk pass the barrier

Sombra : I'm Sombra...Just Sombra...

Crystal Heart : Nice to meet you, Sombra! I'm Crystal Heart!! ^-^

[10 Years later : Crystal Empire's Garrison]

General Sombra : Dismissed!! He orders all of the Crystal Guards to leave the training ground since all of today's training was done. But just when he was about to leave, the voice of a familiar somepony called him from behind.

Crystal Heart : How was your new recruits training today, Sombra? She said with her sweet and crystal clear voice

General Sombra : Everything is fine, milady. How did you manage to leave your tower again this time? *He said with his monotone voice, which signaled that he wasn't pleased with the princess leaving the safety of her tower. But his smile betrayed his words, showing that he was actually pleased to see her regardless"

Crystal Heart : I just sneak out while the guard wasn't watching the door. She smiled at him as she said that and proceeded to walk closer

General Sombra : Your father would be angry if he knew, and you will cause me and my guard in be trouble once again...You do know it is my duty to bring you back to the king right?

Crystal Heart : What about your lover's duty? Are you not obligated to allow your marefriend to have some freedom outside the tower? She look at him with her adorably big eyes that can melt everypony's heart if they look at it.

General Sombra : True...So where do you want to go this time, Crystal? He said it like her eyes didn't affect him. But his smile told her the truth that he couldn't resist. He could never say no to that face. The eyes of the mare who saved him ten years ago

Crystal Heart : Somewhere that we can be alone for a while with my secret colt friend. Let's head to our secret place!

[Crystal Empire : Top of the Crystal Castle]

Crystal Heart began walking to the top of the Crystal castle with Sombra tagging along after her. She walked close to the edge and took in the view of her empire

Crystal Heart : I still wonder why nopony ever knew that we have a secret base located just above the Crystal Castle!

Sombra : Because nopony is able to use the art of dark magic like me, and even if they found the stairs in the shadows of the throne. They still have to walk down the longest staircase and then pass the door of their deepest and darkest fears and have to walk up the longest staircase again. He said with a monotone voice but also with a proud face

Crystal Heart : You are so thoughtful Sombra, definitely a genius!

Sombra : I only wanted to create a place that you can hide from all your duties and have some freedom; a place where you can see the view of your beloved empire with complete independence.

Crystal Heart : You have done so much for me... Smile and blush

Sombra : Everything for you, my Crystal.

Crystal Heart : You said you will do anything for me?

Crystal heart said while she slowly took off her cape.

Sombra : Yes. You mean everything to me. You saved my life afterall, my life has always been yours. *He explained in his monotone voice, while looking with curiosity at what his princess was doing. Maybe wearing such thick clothing caused her to become hot, despite the cool weather, he thought. *

Crystal Heart : Well... She said as she places her cape on the floor and slowly takes off another garment

Sombra : P...Princess!?! W..What are you doing!?! The verbal ice was shattered as Sombra yelled in shock, forgetting to use his monotone voice at that moment

Crystal Heart : We have loved each other for so long, Sombra. I think this is the right time to do this... She drops her last garment and became completely nude, she proceeded to slowly sit down on the cape...and laid on her back; Spreading her legs and showing everything to her general.

Sombra : T-Time for what!?! He looked at her in disbelief. He knew he shouldn't look at her like this, especially her pure pink virgin pussy. But he couldn't tear his eyes away from it.

Crystal Heart : Time for you to take me Sombra. She said with confidence and gazed upon Sombra with a blush. It embarrassed her to lay in a lewd pose like this in front of a stallion, but she would do it for Sombra

Sombra : But princess! You simply can't! Please save your virginity! Please keep yourself pure...Y...You shouldn't do something like this. This wasn't the first time Sombra saw a pussy. He wasn't new to sex, as being a general and the only unicorn in the crystal empire made him popular amongst all the Crystal pony mares. He used to have sex with some of them before, but since he became the princess' secret lover, he stopped doing it. But to see his princess like this...was like experiencing it for the first time

Crystal Heart : You said that for you, I'm just a normal pony...In this place I'm not a princess but just one ordinary mare...Is this not something that a normal pony would do? Please...I want it. I want to feel it...I Want to do it with you Sombra...
She looks at Sombra with hopeful eyes.

Sombra : *He isn't sure what he should do. The general within tells him that it is wrong for him to have sex with a princess. But the lover within him knows that this is something he should do with the mare he loves. After all, it's not like he never wished to do something like this with her before.

Sombra : I will do as you please then, my sweet crystal. Sombra slowly lies down upon Crystal Heart's body and crawls up until his eyes are looking deep into her own. Then he starts their little game by gently kissing her

Crystal Heart : Mmmmm As she receives the kiss from her lover. At first, they are only just lip kissing for a while, until Sombra began to slowly insert his tongue into her mouth and let it dance with her own tongue. The contact revealed a strange new pleasure to her and entices Crystal Heart to moan throughout her throat until Sombra let their lips part

Sombra : How was it?

Crystal Heart : It...felt nice...what did you just do? *She asked with curiosity. She really didn't know what they had performed since they had never kissed each other before, nevertheless, she enjoyed it very much * Sombra : It was a kiss. One simple act that is shared between pony couples. You didn't know about it?

Crystal Heart : I...I never knew...My father always made sure that I knew nothing about intimate relations... She didn't come to school like ordinary ponies because her father had set up a personal teacher for her, and he had made sure that the teacher only taught anything that only the king himself approved of. Even the books in her tower were also edited to contain limited information

Sombra : So how did you know about sex then? How much you know exactly?

Crystal Heart : I found a biology book one time when I escaped from my tower to go to the royal library...it was about...animal mating...about male animals inserting something call a penis into female vaginas to make a new life...And since I have a vagina...So I thought...Maybe I can do something like that with you... She looked down embarrassed and blushing.

Sombra : That means you know nothing about foreplay I assume? He couldn't help but smile. To see just how innocent his princess was and how hard she tried to hide it

Crystal Heart : What is it then? She was curious with this unfamiliar word.

Sombra : It's how a stallion prepares his mare to have sex. It also makes the mare feel nice too. Here, let me show you. He licked his right hoof until it was soaked with his saliva and slowly moved it to touch her vagina. He slowly rubbed her outside pink lips gently until his lover started to lustfully moan.

Crystal Heart : A...Ahh...Y...You rubbed my vagina... *She moaned to this new strange pleasure. She never knew that touching the vagina like this could make her feel so good. Her maid always told her to never touch it all the time. And they always make sure that she was assisted in the bath, as well as cleaned her after she was done with her personal business in the toilet.

Sombra : Does it feel good for you? Sombra asked while looking at her satisfied face. The pleasure just made it very hard for her to said anything coherent, so she simply answered with a small nod. Sombra smiled and assaulted her senses with more pleasure by kissing her lips one more time while his hoof slowly continued to pleasure her lower lips

Sombra : Do you know I can make you feel even stronger pleasurable sensations? Even better than hoof. Do you want to experience that pleasure my sweet Crystal? Sombra says this as his kiss leaves her lips once more while his hoof stops moving, holding its gentle touch on his lover's pussy. The small break in the constant pleasure allowed her to whisper back her answer.

Crystal Heart : Please...Don't stop...I want more... She didn't need this break, all she wanted was for him to touch her again.

Sombra : He smiles at her response and kissed her lips again, before slowly moving his head down towards her lower lips. As he did this, Crystal Heart opened her eyes and also gazed down, curious to what Sombra was doing. She gave a pleased squeal when she suddenly felt him lick her soaking pussy.

Crystal Heart : Ah!! S...Sombra...Why did you...Mmmmm..L...Lick me there...Ahhh... Her voice shakes with passionate lust, born from the assault of her lover's tongue

Sombra : This act is called oral sex, my sweet Crystal. Or as ponies bluntly call it, "Eating out". It's only one of many acts of sexual foreplay. Sombra explains, as he gently licks her labia and savours the sweet taste of his lover's nectar

Crystal Heart : B..But my vagina...It's dirty...Mmm...I pee from here...Ahhh...Y...you shouldn't lick it... Even if she asked him to stop, her mind and body said the opposite. She admitted to herself that she wished he would continue this forever, because it felt so much better than his hoof.

Sombra : Do not worry, Crystal, it's ok. Everypony who has had a lover has done this. We only do it for the pony we love. We are willing to get dirty if it means that the pony we truly love will feel happy and fulfilled. He licks upward until he sees her clit winking and hiding beneath her folds. Softly, he captures it with his lips and gently sucks on it, receiving a very much desired reaction from his lover.

Crystal Heart : AHHHhhh!!! Mmmmm W...What did you just...!?! The sudden spike of extreme pleasure caused her to scream. She loses control on her vocal cords for a brief moment, which caused Sombra to release that part of her body, ending the sudden pleasure. He hoped he hadn't gone too far...thankfully Crystal Heart recovers from her blissful high, she then asks what did he just do to her Sombra : That was your clitoris, my love. It's the most sensitive and pleasurable part of your body. Do you want me to touch it more? He said this without looking up, for his eyes were still locked onto her winking clitoris. He desired to suck on it once more, but he feared that the pleasure might be too much for his lover's first time, as evident from before.

Crystal Heart : Y...Yes...Please...I want more...Ahhh...Sombra....Mmmm... Despite Sombra's fears, she actually wanted him to continue. So she closed her eyes once more and once the very intense pleasure hit, she screamed throughout its entirety as Sombra began licking her sensitive nub again and again...

Crystal Heart : Oh...Sombra...Please lick me faster... She knew that Sombra was always gentle and careful towards her. He knew that like a glass crystal, she was easy to break. But this time she wanted him to be rougher on her. She wanted to experience stronger and better sensations than what she was feeling right now and she believed that it will happen if her lover's tongue moved faster

Sombra : As your wish, my princess. Accepting his Princess' order, he proceeded to lick her pussy and clitoris at a faster pace. It seemed as his lover had already adapted with the continuous touch on her most sensitive part now. Knowing this, he finally put more force and speed in his actions

Crystal Heart : Ah...Ah...I can feel something...something strange...something's going to happen within me... The pleasure she was receiving was eventually becoming stronger and stronger, she knew that it was going to reach its own limit soon. She felt like something was going to explode in her, but she wanted it to happen so desperately, that she just wanted to scream. She wanted to say something, something to call it, to tell it to her lover and let him know just how desperately close she was. But she didn't know what to call it...

Sombra : It's called an orgasm, Crystal. He responded like he could have read her mind at that moment, for he had just pointed out the word for her.

Crystal Heart : Ah...Orgasm...Then I will orgasm...I'm gonna.... She repeated the word that was given from her love to signal her high peaking pleasure

Sombra : No...No... Crystal. Orgasm is too formal. Instead, say "I'm gonna cum" He smiles while lapping her sex. Somehow, he knew that hearing his pure lover said something dirty and unladylike would somewhat turn him on.

Crystal Heart : I'm gonna cum!! As the pleasure apexes, her voice rises in volume until she was constantly screaming in bliss. The feeling she was experiencing was becoming agonizingly strong and grew until she it was absolutely unbearable. So badly she wanted it to end, to reach the end of this pleasure road. Never in her life had she wanted something so desperately...she hopes that her lover will bring her to the end

Sombra : Then...Cum... As that last word left his lips, he sucked her clit hard and licked all over it from inside his mouth

Crystal Heart : Oh!!! Ahhh!! SOMBraaaaaa...!!! *She screamed her lover's name when the pressure of her pleasure gauge caused her to finally explode from his final strike. Her body shakes as all of that pleasure rapidly spreads to her whole body. Her natural lubricant, her nectar, all came rushing out in a single uncontrollable spasm and she had no control over herself for the entire time she was shaking. *

Sombra : Gently licks her pussy and continues drinking her sweet nectar from her direct source. He keeps her in this blissful, heavenly state for as long as he can, until she finally comes back down to him from her own personal heaven, courtesy of her one true lover.

Crystal Heart : So...What we should do next? After she had come down from her heavenly pleasure. She had sat up on her haunch and asked Sombra that question with excitement

Sombra : ...Maybe...I think you would want to see a stallion's tool first. Sombra replied and slowly spread his hind-legs apart, revealing his half-erected cock along with his apple-sized balls to his lover. Crystal Heart reacted to it with shock, before her thoughts turned into doubts

Crystal Heart : Oh my...It's so big...and really thick...Why it's so different from what I had seen in the biology book? The ones in there look slimmer and have something call a 'knot' at the base She recalled, and thought back to the old biology book she had read before. She remembers that it contained the mating habits and aspects of an animal called a dog, but assumed it was the same for all males

Sombra : Well my sweet. The shaft of the male penis varies greatly from race to race. Some are thin, while some are thick. Likewise, other races have extra features, like some who have a knot, while another has barbs. But this one here, is what a pony's penis looks like. We all have a thick cock with a ring in the middle.

Crystal Heart : But how I'd never seen one of this thing before, since it be between you and all the other stallions hind-legs all the time? Her eyes remained fixated on her lover's tool, like a child who just received a new toy

Sombra : That's because it's always hiding and being kept safe in the sheath of a stallion when he doesn't need to use it. It will only grow and come out when a stallion aroused and ready to have sex, like myself.

Crystal Heart : The detail of it, is so complex...Can my small vagina really take something this big and thick inside it? She asked this mostly with curiosity, but she would be lying if she didn't admit that she had some fear, quiver in her voice when she asked

Sombra : A mare's vagina can stretch, my crystal. A Foal is born through that part, and is bigger than my cock. Since one can safely pass through the mare's vagina pretty well, I believe my cock will do just fine. He said this with a calm voice, but his face betrayed him, showing fear. He feared that she may black out from pain during sex and would want to stop doing this with him. But he was finding it hard to resist and stop at this point, he wanted her so badly

Crystal Heart : Cock...like a male chicken? She was confused with her lover's use of this new word. She wondered why he just called his penis a male rooster. Somehow this funny usage of the word caused her to forget her fear

Sombra : It's another name for my penis...just as pussy is another name for your vagina. He explained the meaning of the new word to her, and wondered why she was trying to hold her laughing after hearing it

Crystal Heart : Cat? Cat and chicken...Giggle Common ponies seem to have interesting and weird ways to make new meanings for word. She laughed when she imagined that a cat was having an intimate moment with chicken. Such a strange image to imagine, she thought

Sombra : Yeah...That's really funny, hmm, I'm not sure why they call it by that name...anyway...Do you..mmm...want to touch it? Sombra asked with uncertainty, but secretly wished she said yes.

Crystal Heart : Can I? She moves one of her hoof close to Sombra's large black rod, but she stopped, as she was still not sure if she should or was allowed to touch it. She didn't know just how highly sensitive it was Sombra : You may go on, my princess. He wished his lover would stop teasing him...

Sombra : Mmmm...Crystal.... *He muttered his lover's name when she finally started to rub his sensitive organ with her soft hoof. A hoof that was always protected by her royal shoes, a hoof that has never directly made contact with the rough ground in her life and therefore, made it softer than any hooves of all the mares he has ever been intimate with. But even when her hoof was soft and rubbed his cock ever so gently, he felt that something was still missing. *

Crystal Heart : D...Does it feel good? She looked up at Sombra, unsure if she was doing it right, because it seemed that he wasn't moaning with pleasure like she was before during her turn.

Sombra : No... He wanted her to think she was doing a good job, but he knew that being honest was the only way she would learn.

Crystal Heart : I'm S..Sorry Sombra...I just don't know how to do it. She ceased rubbing his cock and let her head fall down with sadness. She was dejected that she couldn't make her lover feel as nice as like he had done to her.

Sombra : Don't feel sad, my love. Your gentle touch is pleasing right now, but your hoof is just too dry. The texture of your hooves is simply too rough for my sensitive flesh, you will need to lube it up first. He knew he had made her sad, but he had to. Being honest with his lover was the only way to help teach his lover to do it right.

Crystal Heart : But how? We didn't bring any water with us up here. She said, cocking her head in confusion

Sombra : Gather some fluid from your pussy, please Crystal. Use your mare cum, this is what we will use as this is the purpose for it. Usually, it enables a male's penis to slide more easily into your vagina, but it can also be used for this purpose. He points down towards his lover's sex, which is still soaking with her sweet nectar since she had just cummed, not long ago

Crystal Heart : Y...Yes...my love She moves her soft hoof to rub her soaking pussy lips and shuddered from the pleasure, it felt just like when Sombra touched her there. She keep rubbing it and moaned in pleasure, nearly forgetting why she was doing this in the first place.

Sombra : I see you now know how to masturbate. He chuckles from seeing his lover masturbate for the first time. She blushed and moved her soaking hooves away from her pussy, remembering why she was doing it, to pleasure her lover's rod properly

Crystal Heart : What is Masturbate? * She asked with curiosity. Once again, Sombra had confused his lover with a new word*

Sombra : Masturbate means to pleasure yourself without having assistance from another, dear. And oh...Sombra pauses as Crystal's soft hoof make contact again with his rod

Crystal Heart : She smile when her lover finally react to her touch. Because it mean she did something right

Sombra : Now, you are doing very well now, but how about you try to use both of your hooves, Crystal? Just place one on the left and the other on the right side of my cock and try stroking them up and down. He advising her to use both of her hooves on his cock instead just one. The pleasure that started to take form in his rod made his body lust to feel more of her soft touch

Crystal Heart : O...Ok...What is this called Sombra? She did as her lover wished and was curious if he knew a word for it or not. She was just so eager to learn everything about this new experience

Sombra : If I do it with my own hooves, It'll be called masturbation just like what you just did with your own hoof, but if somepony does it for you, It called a hoofjob. Ahhh...He Starts to moan as the pleasure from his rod rose to higher and higher amounts of pleasure from his lover's superb hoofjob

Crystal Heart : Hoofjob? Sounds about right to me. She smiles upon hearing the answer, happy that she was finally helping her lover to experience sweet ecstasy.

Sombra : Ah!!! Crystal...What are you doing? He quickly averted his gaze downwards when he felt a third sensation of touch from his lover. When he had taken in the view, he found that she had just kissed the head of his cock with her lips...while both of her hooves were still servicing him

Crystal Heart : I'm sorry Sombra, I only wanted to give you the same amazing treatment you did to me. I want to do what you call "Oral Sex" for you...I want to show you that I really do love you!! She looks up and declares this with confidence. Her eyes sparkling with the determination and resolve to please her lover as well as he did to her

Sombra : I...If...If that is what you want... *Sombra gave a nod of confirmation for her actions, before he blushes and tries to look away upwards to hide it. Just seeing her making that adorable face while rubbing his pleasure rod with both soft hooves was almost too much, his heart, hammering away in his chest so fast, he truly believed he would experience a heart attacking from its rapid beating, his love for Crystal was simply that strong.

Crystal Heart : W...Where do you want me to lick? She said with uncertainty. Unlike her slit, she thought a Male's penis had so much space to lick and couldn't decide upon a place, since she didn't know where a stallion wished for a mare to lick the most. It must have a comparably highly sensitive place like her clitoris somewhere on it...

Sombra : A...Around the head and the middle ring, those areas are really sensitive for stallions...He shudders when she moves her position to begin licking his cock's head while her hooves gently rubbed the fleshy ring around the middle Ahh....Your doing so well...

Crystal Heart : Did you cum? She asks once she had felt him shudder in her mouth. She thought he was cumming there and then, as he started to release some clear fluid from the hole on the head of his cock

Sombra : N...No...Princess, that's just what is commonly known as 'pre-cum'. Simply put, it's like a lubrication fluid, just like what you produce from your pussy. It helps make sex between a male and female pony easier and more enjoyable, but it also clears the tube in my penis of any urine and prepares the perfect conditions for my actual cum to move along through it unharmed. He wonders why she asked him that and why she thought he had just cummed. But once he saw just how much, he realised he had never produced so much precum before and it was all for his lover to lick and taste, all for herself. He now understood why she had mistaken it as his cum, probably since she had never experienced it before.

Crystal Heart : Are are you going to cum soon Sombra? She was still so eager to please him, keeping her lover's rod free of precum by cleaning his rod with her tongue

Sombra : It will come slower that you think, I'm sorry to say, It's simply not enough, Crystal. This stallion might need more than licking to reach his orgasm. He answered her question with honesty. It was simply a fact that he knew he would last much longer, because he has so much experience doing this kind of thing. He had far too much endurance to only cum from just the simple touches he had experienced so far

Crystal Heart : Well...W...What should I do? She asked with enthusiasm. She believed her lover had said that like he knew there was something more she could do her in order to please him better

Sombra : You can suck it, my love. Gently put my cock into your mouth, lick the head with your tongue while it is inside your mouth and then move it in and out of your mouth until you are just rubbing your lips on its surface.

Crystal Heart :Ah!!...This is so hard...Your c-cock is just really big...a...and long. She exclaims, as she attempts to get the cockhead into her mouth, but fails on her first try. Her mouth just wasn't used to inserting something bigger than her morning bread into it

Sombra : Well...It might be hard for a mare for the first time, but if they get enough practice, they can even eventually get a stallion's cock into her mouth from head to the base. If a mare can get it all the way through her throat, they call that act "Deep-throat". And stallions love it a lot. He begins daydream about it himself while he told his love about it. It had been so long since his rod received the deep-throat treatment from a Crystal mare, as since he started to date the princess, he honorably controlled himself and didn't let himself give in to receiving pleasure from other mares anymore.

Sombra : But I think it may be too much for you my sweet, since it is your first time afterall...So maybe you shouldn't- Ahh!! He snaps out of his daydream as he feels a ring of flesh wrap around his sensitive rod, trying to move it deeper inside until the cockhead made contact with something moist and warm. He look downs and is shocked to see that his lover had just tried to do what he said

Crystal Heart : Guhhh...Gahh,,Ughh...Cough! Cough!! She was trying so hard to take his big cock into her small mouth, but just like Sombra said, It was her first time and she knew nothing about the techniques required. She doesn't know any tricks that other mares would know, so she ends up having a gag reflex and then also running out of breath since his cock was blocking her breathing. At last, she had no choice but to let it slide out, as she started coughing to get her breath back

Sombra : C...Crystal....You shouldn't do it...You're not ready for that yet. He knows she was eager to know new ways to please him and would do anything new to do so, he also knew himself that he really wanted this. He admired her willingness and It felt really nice when she sucked on his rod like that like that, but he just couldn't bear to see her hurting like that

Crystal Heart : No, Sombra. I want to do it...Please...Please tell me how to do it...Teach me to understand how to do it right...just for you. She looked up at him, a small tear sat beside her eye, yet her beautiful eyes still burned with her boundless determination, not a single shred of confidence was lost as she made it her unyielding goal, to please her lover as much as she could

Sombra : But- Still, he hesitated

Crystal Heart : Please!! I know you want it too!! She makes adorable puppy eyes at him, adding the effect of her eyes glittering with tears, It was impossible for Sombra to resist

Sombra : O...Ok...But don't force yourself on it too much, alright? He waited until his lover acknowledged him before continuing ...So now, please lay on your belly and ensure your throat is parallel to the floor. Crystal repositioned as he instructed, she laid down until her chest touched the floor and so that her head was now in front of his throbbing cock. Then she moved her head forward, taking his cock into her mouth one more. Yesss...Crystal...You have done it well, don't forget to breathe through your nose now. Sombra commended her with a shaky voice through the heavenly bliss surrounding his pleasure rod.

Crystal Heart : Since she was a fast learner, she used everything he taught and eventually, it almost seemed she was an expert, no longer did she experience any gag reflex and no longer did she have trouble with breathing anymore. She then let her instincts guide her and take control, moving herself on her lovers cock as her instincts told her. As she continued to slowly suck and deep-throat Sombra, she heard him lustfully moan from her actions. She was so pleased to hear her lover reacted so well from her movements, she finally knew that she was doing everything right

Sombra : Oh...Crystal...I...I'm gonna cum soon!...M...Maybe you should push it out... As he realised the feeling of his impending orgasm was quickly descending upon him, he was very surprised that he reached this point so much faster than he expected. Then again, he never imagined that her mouth and throat would ever feel this nice. He mentally attempted to build a dam within his cock, as large volumes of cum began to pool around the base, holding it in for as long as he can

Crystal Heart : She could hear him but didn't let up on her actions. Some unknown instinct was coaxing her not to let up and to continue until he came. Somewhere in the back of her mind, she wanted so desperately to taste his cum, to let it flood down her throat and to let him fill her stomach with everything he could give

Sombra : I...I can't hold it back anymore!...I'm gonna cum inside your throat!! Crystal!!! Gahhh!!!! *The overwhelming pleasure was too strong to resist, he couldn't hold it anymore. At that moment, he let his mind and the muscles in his groin relax, and the dam burst forth into his lover. Rope after rope of his thick seed blasted out from his cock and painted the insides of her throat white, travelling down into and filling up her stomach *

Crystal Heart : Crystal Heart's tightly shut her eyes once she began feeling her lover's cum flow down her throat, she felt how thick and warm it was and just how much her lover was cumming for her, filling her completely with his own sweet nectar. She closed her eyes and let him convulse in divine pleasure for a while. She didn't let up pleasuring the throbbing cock all throughout his orgasm, so that she could milk every last drop of cum from him. And in that moment, neither of them noticed her crystal body glowing a bit, becoming more transparent until it was possible for any potential bystanders to see an endowed black cock lodged deep inside her maw, throbbing in absolute ecstasy, uncontrollably gushing vast amounts of virile white seed inside of his one true lover

Crystal Heart : Ah...My tummy...It feels so full... *She groans as she lays on her side, nuzzling her head against Sombra's soft chest who lays beside her, hugging her close. He lets her rest, since she had just performed deepthroat on the entirety of his large cock and then swallowed all of his vast volumes of semen *

Sombra : I'm sorry my dear Crystal...I forgot to mention that stallions cum differently from mares. And It seems...that I have a lot of it in myself to give from not having a release for a long time... He explained in a worried tone as he looked upon his lover who still had her eyes closed, seemingly aching from drinking a lot of his thick essence in such a short amount of time

Crystals Heart : D...Don't be sorry Sombra. If it makes you feel nice, I'm happy to have done it for you. She says as she finally opens her eyes to look up at him. She knew that her lover enjoyed it immensely as he was intensely cumming while his cock was deep in her throat. His moans of pleasure as he came, still echoed throughout her mind

Sombra : Thank you, my sweet Crystal. He caresses her mane with tender care.

Crystal Heart : So...Can we begin mating now? She smiles at him, as she asks for the definitive event of affectionate intimacy. It seems that she had finally recovered and was ready for the next step

Sombra : Well...Stallions need time to recharge after orgasm, especially after as hard as you made me burst, so please be patient my sweet. He explains another fact of stallion reproduction to her and Crystal Heart nods with understanding at his statement.

Crystal Heart : Sombra, why do you seem to have a lot of experience at this kind of thing? She inquired him for more information while she let her lover recharge

Sombra : Because this isn't the first time I have had sex. You see, I used to have sex with other Crystal mares before, some were in the bar or either some of the maids in our castle. He said with complete honesty. He was always honest with his princess and he would never lie to her. But his face visibly expressed concern over what his lover would think after hearing it

Crystal Heart : She was silent for a while...she felt something wrong inside her heart upon hearing it, but she didn't understand what it was or why

Sombra : After a while, Sombra broke the silence Does it bother you? *He said with both fear and apprehension, as it appeared that his lover no longer responded to, or believed in his trust *

Crystal Heart : I don't know...I just feel sad knowing that I'm not your first...But I guess...I don't mind it. If sex does make a pony feel this good, then I understand why you and those other mares engaged in it from time to time...At least, it gave you a lot of experience as you had a lot to teach me. She giggles a bit once she saw her lover's expression change from worry into relief, even if she didn't know what he was worrying about, did he expect her to be angry with him for having sex with other mares?

Sombra : But make no mistake my Crystal, I'm glad to be your first. He smiles once again and hugged her even closer in happiness. His innocent princess appeared to still be unable to feel jealousy in her heart after all, the inside of her crystal heart must be completely filled with pure love he believes.

Crystal Heart : Only for you, Sombra. She closed her eyes and relaxed on his chest once again, all the while she gently rubbed her lover's soft cock. The feeling in her loins waiting in burning anticipation, just for it to become hard once again so she could finally play with it once more...

Those moments spent embracing each other would be treasured by both lovers forevermore, but for Crystal, the seemingly insatiable burning between her hind legs reminded her of what she wanted most. Finally, after what seemed like an eternity of waiting, the love muscle she was stroking softly with her hoof twitched...once again hardening to the absolute joy of his lover's squeals of excitement.

Crystal Heart : Can we begin mating now Sombra? She innocently asks eagerly, once she had felt that her lover's rod was almost completely rigid once again in her soft hooves. But her lover just chuckled when he heard her say it like that, instead, he then asked her to said something else, something new, something more...erotic

Sombra : No my sweet...I believe it would be better if you said, "Can we fuck now?" He barely managed to say, trying very hard now to hold his laugh, if only his princess knew about the kinky nature of that word and how naughty it sounded. Now he wonders how much he has corrupted this pure princess by teaching her all of those dirty words

Crystal Heart : Ok then. Sombra...Can we fuck now? She looks up as she says the new word her lover told her to use, maintaining her pure, adorable and innocent face. Sombra burst out laughing because those words and her face just didn't usually mix. Regardless, her combination of saying that word with her innocent face caused the desired effect, as his cock painfully throbbed to full hardness, visibly pulsating veins and all

Sombra : Relaxing from his laughing fit, Sombra takes a breath and accepts his lover's request Alright my sweet, alright...Come here and sit on my lap if you will He repositions himself to sit on his haunch, his cock pointing straight up towards sky proudly erect, completely hard and definitely ready for the main event

Crystal Heart : Huh?...W-Wait Sombra! Doesn't the female have to stand on all four legs first? So that male can mount her back and then put his penis into her vagina? She was already waiting in that exact position when her lover had said "Alright". This caused her to become really confused since Sombra didn't stand as well to go after her, instead he had just sat on his flank

Sombra : Well, yeah...that is actually also correct my sweet, but intelligent, sapient creatures such as us ponies are capable of having sex in lots of different positions than just the one our instinct tells us to use you know? As he answered her question, he ensures his cock is once again lubed up with his saliva, since his lover's own sweet nectar had started to run dry from waiting for a while

Crystal Heart : W-Wow, really?...I still have so much to learn...But...But at least...I know I can trust in you for now... She followed Sombra's lead and also sat down, moving her flank towards her love's lap. She then tried to sit down on his lap as Sombra instructed, but it was impossible, she couldn't get past his huge rod, she visibly expressed her disappointment which Sombra took notice of

Sombra : Ah, sorry about that dear, here...Just aim your pussy to target the tip of my cock. Using both of his forelegs to hug his lover from behind, he steered her body in the right direction. At the same time with help from his magic, he guided his own cock towards her pussy until they perfectly lined up

Crystal Heart : S...Sombra...I'm scared...Is this going to hurt much? Only now did she look upon his giant cock and realise what she wanted all along might actually hurt a lot, worry and fear being featured all over her face. Now that she could measure and understand just how huge his cock was compared next to her pussy like this, It revealed to her just how small her pussy truly was

Sombra : I will be honest, my princess, but the first time for a mare always hurts. But fear not, you must withstand the pain in order to feel the heavenly pleasure afterwards, it will not last long I promise and once the pain goes away, you will start to feel very, very good...Do you think you can tolerate it? Can you endure it for me Crystal? He ensured her in his calmest voice, trying to give her the trust and confidence she needed, in order to withstand the ordeal

Crystal Heart : I...I...Crystal hesitates and almost calls for Sombra to stop, but then she remembers her lover's kind and empowering words of encouragement, giving her the strength to continue Y...Yes...I will Sombra, Ahhh... She moans as she slowly lowers herself until his tip is touching her sensitive slit, giving her a small rush of pleasure

Sombra : Now...Don't hurry this...Just relax, and let it slide into you slowly... He supports her movement with his hooves, using his magic to spread her sensitive pink lips a little bit until his thick cock head could finally slip into her tight slit...Very slowly he moves her down, extremely careful to not cause large amounts of pain to his lover because he went too fast...And then...He felt a soft barrier and knew that this is when the pain would begin...Now going exceedingly slow, he slowly pushed against this barrier, slowly tearing it from its weakest points...And causing it to bleed from his progress

Crystal Heart : A...Ah...Sombra... a sudden sharp, internal pain
Owww!!!...T...That hurt...whimpers...W...What just happened... The pain was persistent and excruciating, causing her to cry tears in her suffering.

Sombra : I'm so sorry Crystal...Sombra softly apologizes in her ear But that was your hymen dear...It will be all ok very soon...the pain will dull soon, I promise.
As he comforts her, streaks of red blood leaks from her slit, but he knows he must continue to guarantee the pain is removed as fast as possible. Still slowly and gently sliding the rest of his cock into her, he lets her finally rest and allows her to adjust to his protruding rod. But his mind swims in doubt, even if he ensured her as he took her virginity, he still wasn't sure if his encouraging words and slow actions were enough...Afterall, this was also a first for him as well, his first time having sex with a pure virgin mare...

Sombra : Ah...My cock is completely inside you now, my sweet Crystal. Now, simply just move your hips up and down once you're ready. He said this because he had just felt the tip of his cock kiss the second barrier inside Crystal Heart, her cervix. He held her from behind, his hooves holding her from her belly using both of his forelegs, so that she may remain steady on his lap as he let her body slowly adjust to his huge rod, now resting entirely inside her

Crystals Heart : D...Does it feel good for you Sombra? She asks, as she moves her left front hoof behind her lover's neck in a hug. The pain still throbs from her broken virginity, but she endures the pain for Sombra, especially since that was the first time her lower entrance stretched far enough to let a cock slide in

Sombra : Yes...It feels really good for me, my sweet...Your insides are so tight and warm. Much better than anypony I have ever done this with...I wish I could stay like this within you forever... He snuggles her crystal mane upon her head in happiness, as he licks her cheek, hoping that his lover's pain will disappear soon, so that she could also experience the same wonderful pleasure. Even if Sombra wished to stay like this with his lover, he still desired to move on to the next stage and rub his rod against her insides...He wanted to have passionate and loving sex with her

Crystal Heart : I...I think...I'm ready now...B...But my hips are still numb from the pain...Could you please move my hips for me Sombra? She was honest when she said this, as the pain may have appeared to have disappeared from her system now, but her hips were still feeling numb from the pain and thus, they didn't respond to her will. Since her body had never felt such great pain like that before in her entire life, it would appear that the part of the body most affected by the pain would still be in shock because of it.

Sombra : As you command, my princess. Kissing her cheek one more time, he uses both of his strong forelegs to move his lover's hips, gently pulling and pushing his cock in and out of her pleasure-inducing slit

Crystal Heart : Ah....Oh....Sombra....I...It's starting to feel good now....It feels much better than your licking.... She starts to moan from the gentle touches she was receiving from the warm texture of her lover's cock, as it continuously rubbed against her sensitive internal vaginal walls, along with extra spikes of pleasure every time his median ring rubbed by her clitoris outside of her body.

Sombra : I'm glad that you are now liking it, Crystal. At this point, he starts to increase his speed a bit, once he saw that his lover's pussy was beginning to adapt with the constant penetration now. Suddenly, Crystal Heart screamed in pleasure, desperately asking for more

Crystal Heart : No!! Now I love it!! She squealed suddenly with a high-pitched voice, as the numbness dissipated completely, sending immense quantities of pleasure shooting through Crystal Heart's body

Sombra : O....Oh?...What is this?...Wow.... This has never happened before when I'd have sex with other Crystal Mares? He said in surprise, looking down to a place where both lovers' bodies were connected Crystal Heart : W...What? She opens her eyes and look at her lover with confusion. She just didn't know what he was talking about.

Sombra : Your body, Princess....Your crystal-like body is now so transparent that I can now see my cock inside you... Once he had completed his explanation, his lover's eyesight followed to where his eyes were looking and what Crystal saw shocked her. True to his word, her body around her belly looked transparent, even if it wasn't that much. But she could clearly see her lovers' large black cock deep inside her

Crystal Heart : Oh...Wow....That looks so beautiful....Ah....Sombra....Do you see it?...You are inside of me...We have become one... She smiled and hugged her lovers' head, moaning in happiness and joy

Crystal Heart : S...Sombra..Ah... She tried to ask a question while Sombra was still pleasuring her with his rod

Sombra : Do you need anything, my crystal? He ceased moving Crystal's hips, so that she could catch her breath and finally focus on talking with him clearly

Crystal Heart : Y...You said that us ponies have a lot of positions for sex, right? She turned her head to the side to have eye contact with Sombra, as he remained hugging her from behind

Sombra : Yes. Why do you ask my dear? He questioned with curiosity. What was his lover up to this time he wondered?

Crystal Heart : Show me them...I want to know more...I want to mat- I mean, f...fuck you in many...many...many different ways...Ahh... She grinded her hips left and right on his cock as she said that, for her body was missing her lovers' tender movements and affectionate touches and she didn't want a break right now, she actually craved for more

Sombra : Well...Alright then...Now, I'm just going to shuffle a bit so that lets me lie down on my back. As he finished explaining what he wanted to do with Crystal Heart, he removed his forelegs from around her barrel and proceeded to lie on his back. He moans with relief since sitting on his flank with his lover on his lap was starting to give him a backache

Crystal Heart : Do I have to get off your cock first? She asked, her head still turned towards her lover. Her body currently facing away from her lying down lover as she sat impaled on his cock

Sombra : No, you won't have to my sweet...Now that I'm done with repositioning myself, it's your turn now to do the same. Firstly, please turn yourself to face me and no...You won't have to pull my cock out of your pussy for this my dear; I simply ask that you use it as your support when you move yourself. He smiled as he suggested what action Crystal Heart should take as he knew it pleased her greatly and to be honest with himself, he didn't want his tender cock to cease being embraced by her warm vagina. Indeed, he would have protested if she tried to remove herself from his stiff cock

Crystal Heart : T...Thank you my love...Y...yes...Oh...Mmmm..Sombra...It feels so good... With her lover's cock still wedged deep inside her sensitive genital, she moaned in pleasure as she slowly turned herself around. As she rotated, she shivered from the sparks of pleasure and after this satisfying and slow act, she lusted for Sombra more than ever. Finally, in deep satisfaction, she sat on her lovers' thigh, her final position had her body facing towards Sombra's own body

Sombra : Ok...now...ride me Crystal, use your hips to slide up and down my cock, exactly like I did when I moved them for you. *He told her this as she was now in the correct position, and because she had already proven that she was ready to move her body for herself *

Crystal Heart : Oh...Sombra....It feels really nice...But a difference sort of nice...I never knew that just changing the angle could cause a difference in pleasure like this..Ahh...What do my ponies call this position...Mmmm... *She lost track of her question once she started to move herself against Sombra's rod. She lost track of her question completely once she started to vigorously plunge her lover's cock back inside her marehood again and again, repeating what her lover had been doing to her earlier as best she could.

Sombra : It's call Reverse Cowgirl, my Princess and no...Please don't ask...I don't know either why they call it that, they just do... He shakes his head in uncertainty as he cannot provide a complete answer for his love.

Crystal Heart : That's strange...really strange name...Oh...Sombra...Sombra...I think I'm going to cum again! Her mind began to fog as she relied less on her thoughts and more on her instincts, her hips started to move faster and faster, plunging onto Sombra's cock at a rapid pace and rising just as quickly, her legs beginning to quiver in anticipation of the extreme bliss she knew was coming. Now, Crystal Heart had completely submitted to her body, letting it move on its own, while all she could do herself was moan loudly from the rising pleasure that threatened to blow her mind once she reached her peak again

Sombra : Y...Your so close Crystal...Please let yourself cum and surrender to true heavenly bliss, my Princess. He smiled...a simple yet loving smile...But he was sure his lover wouldn't see it...She had closed her eyes again, preparing for the intense pleasure she knew was coming. Just once, he wished that he could look into her beautiful open eyes when cumming

Crystal Heart : Yes! Yes!! I'm about to cum Sombra! I'm cumming just for you!!! AHHH!!!! She lifted her hips one final time, sliding the entire length of Sombra's cock and nearly leaving her pussy, then she let go of all restraint and slammed her body down at full force, plunging her marehood completely onto the entirety of Sombra's large cock, gripping it tightly, his tip kissing her cervix and then...her world turned white. All of her senses were overwhelmed with pure euphoria, her own juices uncontrollably leaking out around her marehood as her love tunnel squeezed and contracted frantically around her lover's cock, trying so desperately to milk Sombra for all he was worth, but he never came...no white liquids emitted out of his cock for her, not even a single drop...

Crystal Heart : Sombra...You didn't cum yet? She asked with confusion, because she expected to feel her vagina spread by the flare of her lover's rod and her insides being completely filled by her lover's warm seed...But she feel none of it, causing her initial confusion

Sombra : No...I haven't, my Princess... He said, as he looked upon his lover, who removed herself from his cock and sat alongside him

Crystal Heart : Why didn't you orgasm? I...Is my pussy not g...g...good enough for you? She said with a shivering voice as she whimpered and expressed a saddened, disappointed face. She almost began to cry tears, because she thought she wasn't good enough to make her lover cum along with her

Sombra : No, my princess, your pussy feels really good, its simply because I already had a first orgasm recently, this means Stallions will have more endurance the second time, and therefore a second orgasm takes longer to achieve for me. He moves his hoof to wipe the tears away from his lover's cheek, giving her a reassuring smile let her know that he was speaking the truth and wasn't disappointed at all with her

Crystal Heart : B...But I really wanted to feel your warm cum inside me!! She shouted her true desire, what she wanted most from her lover at that moment, as she symbolically touched her heart by resting her hoof above it

Sombra : Well...I can still do that...just for you, my sweet Crystal. Are you ready for more?

Crystal Heart : Yes!...Mmmm...wow...It seems like I don't need a long time to recharge after an orgasm like you, I can go for a third time right now! She looked at her own body in wonder, specially focusing on her clit, as it kept winking like it still wanted to play some more and didn't need any rest just yet

Sombra : That's normal for mares my sweet, for mares can have multiple orgasms in a short amount of time without resting, since their orgasms and cum are different from stallions. Understand that stallions like me need time to recharge and prepare more of their thick semen for ejaculation; therefore it will take longer than it does for a mare. As he explained this to his lover, he realised that in some way, he felt just like a teacher in a sex-ed class. Teaching one of his innocent and beloved students everything about sex they needed to know

Crystal Heart : Oh...looks like mares kind of cheat in that aspect...Orgasms feel really good, it doesn't seem fair that a stallion like you can't experience as many as I can... She laughed a bit before making a sad face, but that just made her lover laugh as well. Sombra simply couldn't hold his laugh from seeing her sad from something like that Sombra : Hahaha...ah...So, how shall we do it this time my sweet? Once he had finally finished laughing, he asked her what kind of sex position that Crystal Heart wanted to practice this time...He asked it while assuming that his lover didn't know much about such positions. But to his great surprise, before he could give her a suggestion, Crystal Heart actually beat him to the punch with her own answer!

Crystal Heart : Can we do it while I stand on four legs?! Just like in the book I have?! Please...Can you mount me Sombra!?! She said with an excited and definitely impatient voice. She didn't even let Sombra respond before she already stood up on all fours and turned herself away to present her soaking pussy towards her lover, her clit winking fervently, trying very hard to invite her lover to throw all caution to the wind and push his firm rod into her once again

Sombra : He look at her pussy, speechless for a moment before saying A...Are you sure you can take my weight Crystal? He said with worry in his voice, since afterall, his lover was smaller than him. But despite making up excuses not to, his mind secretly wished so hard for her to say yes and let him pound her frantically. He drooled from the scene in front of him, his cock spasms and leaked lots of precum. The position of his lover right in front of him had awakened a hidden instinct and a deep desire within him, an almost unbearable urge to mate with her.

Crystal Heart : Of course!! I can take you! Remember that I was the one who carried you from outside our kingdom to my room 10 years ago!! So come and get me Sombra! She shouts with confidence, her coltfriend now had nothing stopping him from jumping up to mount her, her confidence, gave him confidence...And mount her, he did...

Crystal Heart : Come on Sombra!...Don't tease me, please put it inside me already! *She complained to Sombra, he was already on her back, mounted on her, but he was taking his sweet time checking and testing for the right balance on his lover, so that she wouldn't be taking too much pressure from carrying his weight. So, he was yet to push his rod into her, right now, he was just rubbing against her entrance with his rod, unintentionally teasing her *

Sombra : Sorry my love, I just want to make sure that I'm being gentle on you. He explained to Crystal, fortunately, it wasn't long before he was sure that his lover could take his weight, so he slowly plunged his cock back into his lover's tight vagina once again

Crystal Heart : Oh...Yes...Sombra...Push it deep inside me....AH!...That feels so good... She gasped as her lover finally penetrated her, his tip sliding in suddenly and then slowly once the tightness of her vagina closed around his cock. Once his head was in, she felt her insides stretching even further as he slowly pushed the rest of his large member inside.... Oup!! W-what was that!?! She said in shock, as she felt his cock's tip bump into something inside her, halting her lover's progress

Sombra : It seems like I just hit your cervix, dear. That's as deep as I'm ever going to get. He halts attempting to push himself any further inside, resting the majority of his cock inside her as he waited for permission to continue

Crystal Heart : I...It's okay! Just please keep moving! That barrier might have been unexpected, but at least it wasn't really painful, It was just a strange feeling to her since it was the first time the entrance of her womb was touched like that.

Sombra : As you wish, my Crystal. Slowly at first, he started to move his hips, ensuring that Crystal could take the force that he was about to give her, so that she wouldn't fall down completely on her belly. Eventually, he slowly increased the speed and strength of his thrusts until they reached a substantial point for both him and her. A point where they could both experience sweet pleasure but not have too much of a burden being put onto his lover's legs

Crystal Heart : Mmmm...This is so much better than I have ever dreamed of. She cries, as she moans towards the ground. Shortly after Sombra had started to increase the force of his thrusts, her front legs gave way and the front of her body was now lying down on the ground, only her rear legs remained standing, as it supported her hips while she continued to take his cock. This position was more stable for her, as this way, her entire body wouldn't fall forward from her stallion's hard thrusts, potentially causing his wonderful cock to slide out, ending the constant barrage of pleasure for both.

Sombra : You've really dreamed about me fucking you in the past? Sombra asked with curiosity, but that didn't stop him from hammering away at her tight pussy.

Crystal Heart : Yes...YES!! Since I've learned about mating...Ah!!...From that book, I've always dreamed about it!! Mmm....About you mating with me in this position..Grrrr...THIS is A d-REAM come t-TRUE!!! She found it hard to communicate coherently with her lover, since she was talking through her moans just to answer his question, but of course It was hard to focus on speaking when she was receiving wave after wave of pleasure from his relentless pounding, her body shivering from continuously taking her lover's forceful thrusts

Sombra : You've always dreamt about me?...Only me? Was there really no other stallion that ever came into your mind? Like your own guards or even your teacher? Unlike Crystal Heart, Sombra had more experience with this, so he could communicate with a clear voice with a little effort. He could at least focus enough to talk properly with the mare he was fucking

Crystal Heart : Why?...Don't ponies only mate with the pony they-
LOVE!!!!!!...She managed to ask her question in the time when Sombra pulled his cock out, but barely managed to finish it before he shoved it back in, a bolt of sudden pleasure coursing through her, thus causing her sudden increase in vocals

Sombra : Yes....And no....Sometimes ponies mate with friends too...Mainly for the pleasure of both sides. You can feel this now, right? How does this feel so good? This was his honest answer, for in the past he used to have friends with benefits and had sex with maids or some mare friends just for the pleasurable experience...But once he finally knew that Crystal Heart would be his lifetime lover, he ceased all contact from such mares and vowed to himself that he would never return to that lifestyle ever again.

Crystal Heart : Oh...mating is complex than I thought. Ahhh....If sex is something we can do with friends, then...Ohhhh...M...Maybe I can play it with Citrine*She said while moaning, She thought of this because Sombra made it sound like sex was something anypony can do with another, apart from their lovers, but only if it was appropriate to do so. Maybe she might ask her close friend (who also happened to be her maid) to have sex with her. She thought this was plausible, since sometimes she would help her sneak out of her room and was the only female friend she had that was courageous enough to talk and play with a princess like her as if she was just another Crystal Mare*

Sombra : Blushing I...I don't mind if you do that with her...I don't know if she will accept initially out of respect for you...But at least you won't have to worry if she swings that way. He explained, while thinking about the maid his lover was talking about because he knew which maid Crystal was talking about, since she was also his friend as well

Crystal Heart : Swing that way? What does it mean Sombra?

Sombra : It's a saying that ponies use to represent what gender preference they like better for sex, my Crystal. So when I said she 'swings that way', it means that she is only interested in having sex with mares like you, but that she is not interested in having sex with any stallions, just like myself. *He spoke the truth from his previous experiences with Citrine, that maid was his friend and yet, coincidentally, the only female friend that he had never had sex with, since she was a Fillyfooler though and though. It was quite an amazing coincidence that both Sombra and Citrine happened to have eyes on the very same pony...The beautiful princess

Crystal Heart, his one true love and the sexy mare that he was having heavenly sex with right now.*

Crystal Heart : Aww...That's too bad...I just thought that sometime soon, the three of us could get together to have sex together!! She muttered with disappointment

Sombra : (Wow...And now my lover just said she was planning to create a threesome...Heh, you learn so fast when you lust for love, my dearest Crystal)He thought in his head Mmmm...Oh...Hey...Crystal...I think I'm going to cum soon...what about you? He said, as he was still thrusting intensely within her. Truth be told, He had reached his second orgasm faster than any other time that he have sex with every other crystal mare and he wasn't sure if it was because he was highly aroused from finally having sex with the mare he truly loved or if it was because of the exceedingly tight and wonderful folds of Crystal's virgin pussy squeezing closely around a Stallion's cock for the first time...Maybe it was both.

Crystal Heart : Yesss!!! Please cum inside me Sombra!! Just hearing Sombra declare that he was close, had triggered her vagina to muscularly crush Sombra rod's from all directions, trying so desperately to intensify the pleasure to extraordinary levels in order to coax it to explode, and let loose torrents of cum inside her

Sombra : But what about your orgasm? I can hold back my own a bit and wait for you to cum at the same time with me? He slowed down his thrusting speed, delaying the orgasm that was so close to passing the point of no return

Crystal Heart : No need for that Sombra!! I'm going to cum soon too!! She looked back and yelled at him to stop delaying, shaking her hip while his rod was inside her, a sign that she was just begging him to fuck her at full speed again

Sombra : Very well then my love, prepare yourself, I am about to fuck you harder and faster than we have achieved so far now, will you be ok with it? He asks Crystal Heart for permission and once he saw her excited nods. He plunged his entire cock back into her pussy, before quickly building up the speeds of his thrusting to the maximum force and speed that he could attain. Crystal heart moaned loudly in pure bliss, she was holding her ground with dear life, there was no way that she was going to let this incredible pleasure suddenly end, just because she lost her footing and fell forward

Crystal Heart : Oh....Yes!! Sombraaaa!! Please!!! You're so good!! Sombra...Please cum...Cum with ME!!! I'm...C..c.c.Cumming!!! Ahhh!!! She screamed once the wall of extreme pleasure racked through her entire form with the force of a typhoon. Her vagina discharging a large amount of her own mare cum and then seized Sombra's cock in a grip so hard, that Sombra swore she was going to milk him for every last drop of virile stallion cum that he had

Sombra : !!!! *Even though the extreme hold of his lover's vagina, Sombra managed to yank most of his cock free from the heavenly folds until only the tip remained within his lover's tight pussy lips...Before he slammed back in at full force, not stopping until his flared cock head collided against her womb's entrance, where he finally let loose, his cock erupting huge volumes of his warm and thick white seed inside of his one true lover, the mind of Sombra completely blanked out from the pure ecstasy coursing through his powerful rod. It was at this point, that Crystal Heart's body became crystal clear again, enabling him to see his cock in action as virile white seed spilled forth from his cock as it filled her entire womb, before it had no choice but to rush back outwards, leaking out of her and pooling down towards the floor.

Crystal Heart : Oh....Sombra...that felt good...you being inside of me, is so full and warm...it was really worth my time to wait for my first estrus to arrive, so that I could finally have sex with you. She cried with a sweet and happy voice before her hind legs finally gave out in complete exhaustion and she collapsed on the floor with Sombra gently laying down with her while he still had his 'starting to soften' rod lodged deep inside of her

Sombra : Yeah...It felt really good to be in you too.....Wait! YOU WHAT!?! He yelled in shock, once his brain that was completely drunk with pleasure finally had time to calculate what she had just said.

Sombra : Princess...Did you just say that you are in heat. He said while pulling his soft cock out from his princess as loads of cum trickled out of her pussy, causing him to worry. On any other day it would have been hot to see, but not this time...and with the amount of cum he pumped into her, there was no doubt that she was now pregnant for sure.

Crystal Heart : Yes! I am in heat Sombra!! She said with a carefree and happy voice. She answered like this because she thought Sombra would be happy to know that she was pregnant

Sombra : Why didn't you tell me? *his voice was cold and his face serious, despite this, his face was still laced with worry. He moves to sit himself in front of Crystal Heart, letting his cock rest on his thigh, waiting for it to be ready on its own, where it will retreat back into his sheath.

Crystal Heart : B...But I thought you already knew about it...I thought ponies only have sex when they are in heat? After Sombra's question, she began to realise that she must of misunderstood something again, but she still wasn't entirely sure, since the animal biology book she read told her that animal will only have sex when they in season, especially when they are in estrus...So what was wrong with that she thought?

Sombra : No...Look Crystal...Unlike animals that only have sex when they are in heat, us ponies can have sex anytime we want, for there is no need to wait for the mares to be in heat. *He explained while worryingly looking at his princess. He noticed that she was not showing any signs of being in heat. He concluded that the reason why he don't notice her heat before was because she happened to have a "silent heat" and why she exhibited such a rare occurrence must be because of her upbringing, her father the king raised her to be completely free from any sexual education. So even her body didn't know how to react once her first heat made itself known

Silent Heat Definition: Mares that exhibit no behavioral signs of estrus. Usually, these mares have normal ovarian cyclic activity, but they lack the behavioral signs of being in estrus.

Crystal Heart : But how do ponies have offspring if they want to mate outside of mating season!? Asked in confusion but also with curiosity. She always thought that conceiving a foal was the most important part of sex

Sombra : Well....We ponies enjoy having sex outside of mating season because we just want to do it for passion and pleasure. You know what I mean my Crystal, after all; didn't you feel really good when we had sex? He expressed to his princess while blushing from her innocent question.

Crystal Heart : Yes...Very much so...Can we really have sex just for the passion and pleasure too Sombra? Is there really no need to have any other reason for it, even to have a foal? Her understanding of sex began to broaden now and after thinking about what Sombra had said before, that he used to have sex with his female friends, she realized that no foals had come from those encounters. She began to understand that just maybe, sex can be used just for fun like Sombra had said

Sombra : Yes...Many ponies just want to have sex because it makes them feel really good. They may want to indulge in this fun with their lover or a close friend, but they don't want to have a foal at that moment just yet. So many stallions always avoid trying to have sex while a mare is in heat. As he explained this to Crystal Heart, she nodded with understanding

Crystal Heart : So...I have a foal inside me now...Did I do something wrong Sombra? She starts to worry, while she rubbed her belly with her soft hoof

Sombra : Yes...And no...Normally, ponies only have foals when they think they are ready to take care of them. We normally don't have foals until after marriage and please understand Crystal, we are not ready for it right now...Since our love exists in secret and your father doesn't even know about it... He explains the sad facts to her, feeling sad that his words were bringing great sadness to his lover, as she started to look down towards the ground with a guilty and sad face.

Crystal Heart : I'm sorry....I just....I didn't know.... She squeaked out, almost about to burst into tears.

Sombra : Marriage between us is almost impossible...And the king is gonna kill me once he knows about this. Sombra wanted to cry as well, but he had to be strong in front of his princess, his strength will give her strength. Even as he didn't know what the king was going to do with him and his foal. What would the king do? Will he execute him and make his daughter raise their child alone? Or will he try to prevent the princess from giving birth by killing the foal while still inside Crystal Heart?

Crystal Heart : C...Can't we keep it in secret? She asked with a hopeful but trembling voice. Maybe she can keep her pregnancy secret too. Just like she kept the love between her and Sombra as a secret as well

Sombra : No....I'm sorry Crystal...It is impossible to keep this a secret...Sooner or later. The signs of pregnancy will show on you and even if you can get through that stage, eventually you will give birth to our child and someone will have to know about it. But that doesn't matter, since the king will know about it well before that anyway...We must tell him...right now... Never in his life has Sombra ever feared something as badly like this before. He never thought that he would have to tell the king that he loved his daughter, especially just after took her innocence and virginity just moments before and just to top it all off that he had impregnated her... There could never be a poorer time and with even worse conditions to reveal this secret to her father...

Crystal Heart : Sombra....I'm so afraid....Will my father take you away from me?
She looked at her lover with watery eyes

Sombra : It's okay my sweet....Everything will be fine...He brought his forelegs around Crystal and hugged his lover. They embraced with each other until they finally steeled themselves enough to face the consequences...ready to face the king...Crystal Heart's father. So they left their secret base and walked down the 'longest staircase', down to the throne room, where the judgment of the king was waiting them, for better or worse, at least they both would face this trial together...

[Crystal Empire – Throne Room]

Sound of a Hoof Punching Sombra's Cheek

The King : How dare you commit such a treasonous act!! Why have you impregnated my pure-hearted daughter!! I entrusted you to protect my child! But you...You have corrupted her with your sickening sexual desires!! * After he had listened to the entirety of Sombra's honest story, the king was extremely angry as he roared at Sombra after he had punched his hoof so hard on his cheek, that it left a sustainable mark, it had also caused Sombra to fall away from him onto the floor.*

Crystal Heart : Father! Please don't hurt him!! It's not his fault!! It was my fault! I was the one who asked him to have sex with me! It was me who didn't tell him that I was in heat! Crystal Heart hurried to Sombra, helping him up from the floor as she looked at her father with tears in her eyes. She was scared of her furious father

The King : You don't need to pretend it was your doing just to protect him Crystal!! He must of made you do it! Did he force you to have sex with him!? You shouldn't even know anything about sex! You can't ask somepony to do something you don't know!! The king was beginning to become confused, he wanted to understand why his daughter was so adamant in protecting him?

Crystal Heart : But I did know father! At first...I didn't know anything about sex, but one day in biology class, I discovered that animals have something call mating and mating season, which involved an action between male and female animals. So I thought...That maybe...Ponies might experience the same thing...So I asked him to do it for me...with me...

The King : Grinds teeth(That teacher! I told him not to teach anything about sex-education to my daughter! But he had no problem teaching her something about animals mating!?!)*He thought to himself in his mind. He thought that it must have been the personal teacher who he had assigned to teach his daughter only subjects that received his permission. He didn't know that Crystal Heart had actually meant that the biology class from actually just a period of reading a biology book that she had collected from outside her tower one time when she had snuck away.

Crystal Heart : Father...Please...May I marry him? We have actually been secret lovers for a while now...Even going on secret dates together... She looks at her father with a pleading face, with big adorable eyes that had won Sombra's heart long ago. Now she was using it on her father.

The King : You want to WHAT!?! Unfortunately, the King appeared to be unaffected by her eyes. He averts his gaze towards Crystal Heart...It was not the caring look a father would normally use for his own child... You can't marry this lowly unicorn!! Your pure heart will become corrupted by him! You are forb- At this moment, the king was interrupted by his priest, who was standing beside him the whole time. He whispers something important to the King, pointing his hoof at Crystal Heart's flank, once the king realized what was there, he inquired about it Hmmm...Crystal my Daughter....Is that...your cutie mark?

Crystal Heart : My Cutie Mark? She quickly turns her head to look at her flank that was blank only this morning beforehand. But now, it had the imprint of a heart, made of pure crystal embedded onto it Ah!! Father!!! Look!! My Cutie Mark!! I have a Cutie Mark now!! Yeah!! She jumped around the throne room in joy as she cried her happiness for everyone to hear.

The King : Hmm...It seems that we have no choice now...Daughter...This must be destiny....I approval your union together Crystal and you shall have my blessing to marry my daughter Sombra. The wedding between the both of you will be happen soon and it will be a most joyous event. The King sighs in relief. He feared something wasn't right in the world the moment he knew that Crystal Heart was pregnant. But he became reassured, once he had seen her cutie mark. One question my daughter, can you tell me when you got that cutie mark? Was it when he confessed his love? When he kissed you, or was it when...

Crystal Heart : It must have been when he FUCKED me!! ^-^ She smiled brightly as she said that loudly in her innocent voice. Everyone in the room looked at Crystal Heart in shock. Before the king and priest turned towards Sombra who have a goofy grin on his face as he sweated profusely, all the while also slowly backing out of the throne room. Crystal Heart had noticed that everyone was silent after she talked, so she asked Did I say something wrong? Tilting her head in confusion

The King : ...SSSSSSSSSOMMMMMMBRAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!

And so it was proclaimed, that the marriage between the only unicorn in Crystal Empire and the king's own daughter was to take place a week from that moment, as first came the Royal Cute-Mark Ceremony (A ceremony that happens when one of royal family gains their cutie mark, realizing their talent), to celebrate Crystal Heart's cutie mark finally appearing. But after 1 week, the Captain of the Crystal Guard and Princess Crystal Heart were happily married in one of the biggest and most celebrated empire-wide events that the Crystal Empire was unlikely to surpass in magnitude for a very long time.

With the king still residing over the empire, the young prince and princess lived together in Crystal Castle, and after 11 months, Prince Sombra witnessed his love, Princess Crystal Heart, give birth to the future heir of the Crystal Empire. She was a beautiful pink-coated Pegasus filly with a lovey tri-coloured mane consisting of the colours: vanilla, magenta and violet.

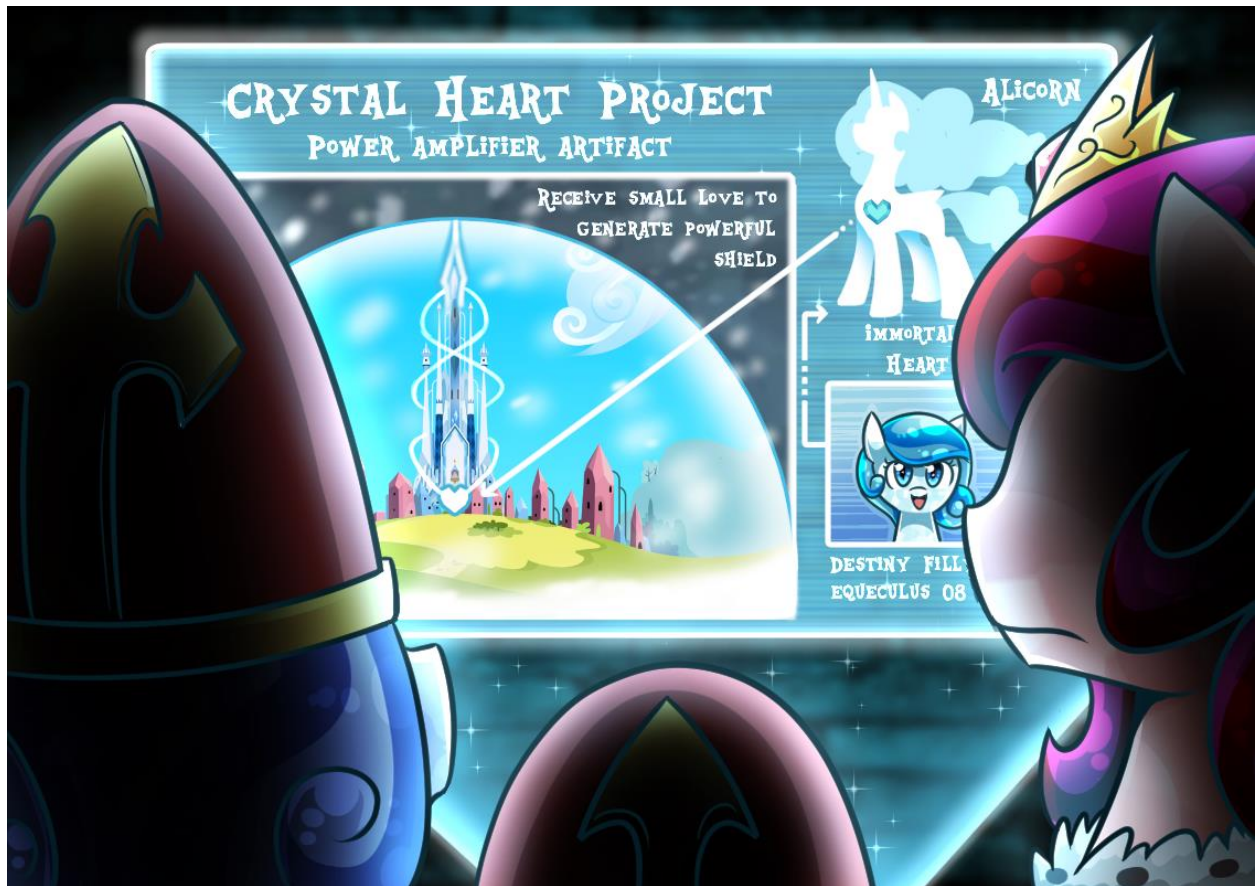

To calm the citizens of the empire from any rumours, Prince Sombra gave reasoning why their heir was born as Pegasus, despite none of her parents being one. He assured the citizens that the reason for their daughter being a Pegasus was because his own father was Pegasus, while his mother is Unicorn, thus giving the genes necessary for her Pegasus birth...But he didn't answer why her coat and mane were such unique colours and to this day, it is a mystery that nopony knows.

Both the Prince and Princess lived on normally, taking good care of their child together with the help of their maid friend "Citrine" as they waited for the time to come...The time when Crystal's father would retire as king of the Crystal Empire and would crown Prince Sombra and Princess Crystal Heart as the new King and Queen of Crystal Empire, where they would bring the Empire to a new golden age, by ruling together with love...

[A dark, hidden place, somewhere deep within the castle...]

The king and two of his priests were standing in front of a magic monitor, and on this monitor showed a picture of the Crystal Empire with its barrier deployed, the very same barrier that protects the city from the freezing temperatures of the tundra and all the many demons around the empire. This monitor also displayed the picture of a white unicorn with wings and finally, the last image was of a young Crystal Heart herself. The entire display was in fact, a diagram of a plan that was a long time in the making...It appeared that the king and his priests had a secret plan for something...to make something....and that something was a powerful magical artifact, involving the pure white princess...

Priest 1 : I never would have guessed that the black unicorn was a required simulant for the princess to grown up as we had planned, my king. She has followed our entire defined destiny routes until now...And that cutie mark is the final piece of proof that we are almost there. He turns his head to tell the king, who was looking at the monitor in deep thought

The King : So keeping her pure and innocent wasn't enough it seems. In the end, in order for her to become the heart, she must have had to know what true love was after all...This was really unexpected...But at least everything is still going as planned...Soon, all Crystal Ponies of the empire will no longer have to suffer any more if this project is successful...He said with a tired voice. He really did almost have a heart attack once he knew that Crystal Heart had gotten pregnant. Because after 12 years of keeping this project a secret, he thought that everything he had worked hard for all those years was wasted, but fortunately, all was still fine in the end.

Priest 2 : Yes, my lord. The time will come...When she reaches the age of 20, her magically modified body will change into something else, we know that it will be something powerful and immortal...It will be her heart, that will save us all...So until then...We suggest that you let the princess do anything she desires until that time...

The King : Why? He questions his priest as he was confused, for this was the same priest who told him to keep Crystal Heart's heart pure and innocent. Now the priest suggests doing the opposite of what they've been doing for 12 years, instead of keeping her like a fairy tale princess in the tower, ensuring she was shielded away from the outside world, filled with many painful and horrible things.

Priest 2 : Simple my King, because the more she loves, the more powerful her heart will be when she finally becomes the heart of the empire...He says in a worried voice, He realised that his past self-had failed to properly calculate all possible factors. Only now did he realize, that keeping the princess locked away with a pure heart wasn't the key for this project to work...Because nopony will ever find their cutie mark if they cannot be free to discover it

The King : Then I shall do as you suggest, Priest. Crystal Heart shall have true freedom within the empire, now leave me.

Priest 1 & 2 : For the future of the Crystal Empire! Both priests exclaim in unison, before they salute the king and leave him behind in the hidden room

The King : For the future of the Crystal Empire...He responds back to his priests, and once he was alone, he let his hoof touch Crystal Heart's picture on the monitor and with a cold voice he whispers to himself You will protect our empire forever, my little orphan...The empire will be safe forever and its golden age will never end...With your immortal heart...You shall protect us all...

Crystal Heart....

----- THE END -----
