

Another morning at the lavish beachside resort, Ginny Potter was straddling her husband's lap and trying hard not to pass out. Harry's big long cock continued pumping inside of her as her mind struggled to remain alert. Her husband's large cock was so large that she could swear if she had a mirror she might see the edge of his prick pushing up far higher than normal. Her amazingly muscular husband appeared to have released all moderation from their bedroom antics and preferred to fuck her at least twice in the morning, sometimes even before they had some breakfast to recover from the sex they had at night.

Ginny being the loving and horny redhead she was, didn't mind the change in the slightest. Since occasionally she was competing with Elsa and Anna to see who could last the longest with her husband's cock throttling deep inside of her Ginny figured she was well on her way to improving her stamina. It was this fact that was helping to keep her mind from sliding into unconsciousness as her husband's mammoth length continued driving up into her womb as she rode him cowgirl style in their hotel bedroom.

Harry's hands ran all over Ginny's amazing body. His green eyes were fixated on her form as her nice breasts bounced with the motion of his slow but forceful thrusts. Each time Harry's hips moved it sent Ginny's body reeling and her nipples traced random circular motions in the air while he drove his cock deeper and deeper inside of his wife's sweet wet pussy. Her warmth was always so inviting that when she truly started to cry out blissfully it really got Harry going. Since he had started fucking Ginny, Elsa and Anna sometimes all it once he had figured out new techniques to make the blast every nerve in their body when he was fucking them.

So while one hand squeezed on his wife's pink hard nipple his left hand rolled down her lean abdomen and down to the tiny nub of flesh partially hidden by Ginny's outer pussy lips. With his cock pounding deep into her womb the added sensation of his fingers stimulating so many of the young witch's erogenous zones at once was enough to send Ginny's body over the edge. Within moments of his fingers starting to stroke her twitching clitoris Ginny's entire body tightened as she was once more locked into an orgasmic release. The young witch with long red hair wobbled forward and back as she started to cum. Her body buckled forward and her fingers scratched and scraped across her husband's lean hard flesh. Shortly after she was rewarded with the feeling of Harry's own release being pumped deep inside of her hot pink cunny. As her hips continued to roll forward and back she could feel her husband's seed filling every bit of her sexual cavity as she rode triumphantly through her orgasm. Only when her strength left her for a moment did she finally collapse down onto Harry. Propped up slightly by her breasts Ginny's eyes managed to open up just as Harry let out a long strained groan as he finished sending out his last rocket of white hot cum inside of her womb.

Ginny loved to see the manly look in her husband's face as he finished his duty to her body, giving her hungry womb a great offering so that she could continue being the best wife she could be for Harry. She smiled and stroked her fingers lazily over Harry's lean hard chest muscles and neck while she enjoyed the sensation of his cum while Ginny's stamina in bed has improved a bit, she and the sisters were still hardly a match for her incredibly muscular and well-endowed husband and she enjoyed that a lot.

Later after the two had showered up and realized they had missed the breakfast hours of resort they went off in search of brunch to get something in their stomachs. They had nothing planned for their vacation until scuba diving tomorrow. Ginny would have preferred just to use Gillyweed but she knew that in a resort that was populated equally by muggles and wizards and witches they had to be careful. There was talk that the resort might open up an area just for magic people but that hadn't been accomplished yet. When they made it to the pool area the two were walking arm in arm wearing swimsuits and holding towels in their hands that weren't currently held by their significant other. As they made their way around the edge of the pool Ginny became aware that someone was calling out her husband's name.

"Harry... Harry is that you?" A female voice with an obnoxious French accent called out to the young couple. When Ginny felt her husband turning towards the source she had little choice but to follow his movement as he turned around towards the source of the voice.

Rising out of the pool was a lovely young girl with wet blonde hair. Water clung and dripped down all over her body from her angelic face to her large perfectly molded breasts and down along the sweet curve of her hips down to her cute toes. Ginny recognized her even though it had been some time since she saw the beautiful woman at her brother Bill's wedding. It was the sister of her sister in law Fleur Delacour, Gabrielle Delacour.

"Gabrielle it is so nice to see you." Ginny said with a smile as she kept her arm wrapped around her husband's with her fingers linked with his own. The lovely redhead noticed at the edge of the pool there were many men and a couple women looking longingly in the direction of Gabrielle. It appeared she had left quite a few interested parties behind when she had noticed Harry and Ginny walking at the pool.

"Ah Ginny it is so good to see Harry and yourself. It feels like a lifetime since my sister's wedding. It is funny, I guess since she is now your sister in law that it makes us sisters as well yes?" Gabrielle said with an innocent smile as she wiped off her face and her breasts with her towel.

"What are you doing here Gabrielle?" Ginny's strong handsome asked in a friendly fashion as the couple stood in front of Fleur in her skimpy lavender colored bathing suit. Ginny did notice that even though her top and bottoms were cut rather scandalously that the young French woman's swimsuit had an even more revealing cut to it. Maybe I should find out where she got it from. I'm sure Harry would enjoy seeing me in that.

"Oh I am on vacation actually. I just graduated from the Beauxbatons Academy. Many of the Academy's graduates spend a year or so traveling. This resort is one of the top rated vacation spots for young people. Has it been a fun stay for you two?" The young blonde French woman asked with a smile of her pretty lips. Ginny was almost a bit jealous at the effortless beauty and grace that Gabrielle had even with a simple expression. Just like her sister Fleur, Gabrielle was half veela that meant not only did she seem to have an ethereal beauty to her, it made her much more attractive than an already highly attractive woman would be. Ginny's arm grew a bit tighter around her husband's.

"We've been having a lot of fun. In fact, maybe you could join us for brunch. We both worked up quite an appetite this morning.” Ginny said with a delicious smile towards her muscular husband before she inched up so that she could kiss her husband’s lips. Harry’s eyes brightened towards Ginny before he looked back over to Gabrielle.

“Yes, we’d love to have you join us Gabrielle. If you’re not busy.” Harry said and Ginny believed his sudden nervousness had been the result of seeing the exotic French beauty.

“I would be delighted to join you two. It iz so nice having all these tables and food so close to the pool. I don’t even need to go change.” Gabrielle said before the three moved away from the pool and found a table nearby where they sat down and ordered up some orange juice and water before catching up on what they had all done since the last time they had been together at Ginny’s house for the wedding. During the time where Gabrielle told them all about her studies at the Academy Ginny spied Elsa and Anna arriving to the pool area and jumping into the warm water and it made Ginny consider giving Gabrielle a chance to please her husband. Plus, Ginny figured she wouldn’t mind seeing the beautiful blonde haired dark eyed French girl moan out weakly as Ginny’s husband filled up her pussy full of his seed.

So when Harry left to use the restroom Ginny leaned in and whispered out an invitation to Gabrielle. Ginny was actually surprised just how quickly Gabrielle accepted the offer to join the young Potter couple back at their room. “This is incredible Ginny. You are like a true sister helping me to get what I have wanted for years.”

“Years?” Ginny asked a bit sharply. That meant that Gabrielle had been pining for Harry for a while, including when Ginny had started up a relationship with her muscular Adonis. But Ginny knew her jealousy was unwarranted. Who wouldn’t want to spend time with such a gallant hero who also looked more incredible than just about every man in the resort or on those supermodel magazines that muggles seemed to enjoy reading.

“Yes... Even in France we had heard about the boy who lived. But then he went and rescued me during the Triwizard Tournament. I was a young girl being rescued by my personal hero. As I grew older I wished nothing more than to spend a evening with ze great Harry Potter.” Gabrielle said and Ginny smiled. She knew that Gabrielle wasn’t the only one who had started becoming attracted to Harry for his courageousness and his amazing muscle structure. She felt a bit of a kindred connection with Gabrielle.

“Well than you are lucky you were at this resort Gabrielle. We’re going to have an amazing evening.” Ginny said before Harry returned and she started to tell her husband how she had found a new girl interested in enjoying his strong affections.

-----XX-----XXX----XX----

“Ah Harry. I have kept such a large ... affection for you since you saved me all those years ago during the Tournament. When I was down there in ze water I thought that I would surely drown. And now here together I can truly thank you.” Gabrielle said as she stood naked in front of Harry’s own masculine body. Harry still had his red and gold trunks on but Ginny and Gabrielle were already completely naked. This didn’t last long of course once Gabrielle started rubbing the front of Ginny’s husband’s pants.

Gabrielle's body had immediately shivered when she started feeling just how large his cock could go. Meanwhile Ginny had moved around the French blonde veela mix and started strumming her fingers along the inside of Gabrielle's leg and reaching a hand around to squeeze Gabrielle's nice full breasts.

Before the main event Ginny pushed Gabrielle down onto her knees so that the lovely French graduate could prepare Harry's cock for its insertion into her pussy. "Ohhh..." Gabrielle let out a slightly startled gasp as Ginny applied pressure onto her body to keep her down on her knees. Gabrielle looked up at Ginny with slight confusion in her dark eyes as Harry inched closer with his thick pulsing cock.

Ginny simply smiled down and leaned in to stroke Gabrielle's cheek and then kiss her full perfectly sensuous lips. When her mouth pulled back she smiled at the young goddess of a woman. "Don't worry. You're going to need to get Harry good and wet or he'll never fit inside of you. I'm sure you want to enjoy his full length inside of your pretty pussy." Ginny said before she knelt down behind Gabrielle and then continued playing with the lovely girl's pussy and breasts. As wet as she was Ginny figured that Gabrielle wouldn't have any problem taking in Harry's cock but Ginny knew that her husband enjoyed blowjobs and she always wanted to give Harry everything he wanted.

"Okay Ginny. That makes sense. I... I have just never taken something so large in my mouth." Gabrielle said before turning towards Harry's waiting thickness. The tip of her husband's cock bobbed right in front of the French girl's lips and Ginny smiled as she rest a hand on the back of Gabrielle's neck and pushed her mouth closer. Almost instinctively Gabrielle's lips parted and she began kissing and sucking on the tip of Harry's cock. It took a bit of effort from both Gabrielle and Ginny but soon enough the young French slut was taking more than half of Harry's cock with each forward sucking motion. Gabrielle got into the lewd act so well that Ginny was a bit jealous since sometimes Harry's cock was so big that it took Ginny a bit of time to relax her mouth so much as to allow half of his cock to plunge down her wet throat.

After Ginny was satisfied that Harry's cock was suitably drenched with she decided to move Gabrielle into a position she knew that Harry liked. With Ginny's help Harry positioned Gabrielle's naked body right up against one of the walls to one of their rooms and then started pushing his cock against the pretty French girl's pink hungry pussy.

"Ohhh.... It iz so thick..." Gabrielle moaned out. It looked like her skin was glowing slightly pinkish as her sexual appetite started to drive her. The lovely redhead wife of Harry held close to her husband's right arm and enjoyed the sight of Harry's big cock pushing open Gabrielle's precious tight lips. The younger woman's mouth opened up suddenly as the first few inches of Ginny's husband pushed deep inside of her carnal orifice.

"Ginny Nrrnahhh..." I... oh... oui... oui... Oui Harry!... I am so grateful to you for letting me try out Harry's big cock. It iz like nothing I've felt before. Incroyable" Gabrielle cried out as her fingers scratched up against the wall she was being propped up against. The beautiful red haired wife of Harry Potter moved in and pulled down Ginny's left arm so that she could slide up in between Gabrielle and the wall. Eventually Harry decided he wanted to change it up. Grabbing onto Gabrielle's legs Harry lifted her up away from the wall and then turned towards the bed. Once he was there he eased Gabrielle's pussy off of his cock and then flipped her body so that her front was facing him once again. After that Ginny enjoyed the sight of his incredibly lean hard body moving onto the bed before he guided his cock right back inside of the French girl's fertile pussy.

Gabrielle's eyes swam in her head for a moment before she let out a soft pleasant as Harry thrust his big cock inside of her again. Harry's cock was like nothing she had ever felt for it. Even as his cock continued to thrust deeper and deeper inside of her pussy her mind craved more of his length and the pleasure it incited inside of her. When suddenly Ginny arrived on her side and then climbed up on top so that Ginny was now in the middle Gabrielle looked up longingly towards Ginny until the redhead offered her a kiss that she was desperate for.

Soon enough the two young women started rubbing their bodies against one another as Harry continued to pound Gabrielle's sweet innocent pussy. When Ginny and Gabrielle's lips parted the wife of Harry Potter listened to sweet cooing noises coming from the French girl being forcefully fucked

"Ooooh... zis is very nice... Nhaawhh.. I don't know how you get anything done Ginny. If I was married to Harry I vood never get out of my bed.. Gwaahmmm.." Gabrielle cried out as once more her sweet French pussy was jammed full of Harry's long thick hammer.

Ginny smiled and then leaned forward to kiss her lips against the French girl's own moaning mouth before she moved her hands to brush up her fingers against Gabrielle's plump full breasts. For a moment she didn't pull back her lips and instead enjoyed the residual taste of Harry's cock still inside of Gabrielle's mouth. Adding her tongue into the blonde girl's mouth only excited Ginny more and she could feel more of her sexual juices flowing out from her pussy as she squeezed and rubbed the young woman's breasts against her own tits while her husband continued to pound Gabrielle's sweet body against her own naked flesh. Ginny remained on top of Gabrielle's body and enjoyed the momentum caused by her husband's continuous thrusting inside of Gabrielle's pretty pink pussy.

Her own pleasure rose sharply when Harry added two fingers to Ginny's horny pussy. When she started feeling her husband pumping her pussy in the same manner as his cock was pumping Gabrielle's sex Ginny couldn't have wished to be anywhere else the world. Beneath her body Gabrielle screamed out and as the young French woman came all over Harry's cock Ginny enjoyed the sensation of the girl's breasts bouncing and rubbing against her own. Ginny leaned down and nibbled all over Gabrielle's bouncing breasts even as she moaned out around the girl's nipple. Harry had natural skill with his fingers that was close to his skill with his powerful cock. Ginny's breathing was becoming rampant before she heard her husband groaning out as he started to seed the part veela's pretty pink womb.

Gabrielle's body was so drenched in pleasure that her toes curled even more when she felt Harry's warm thick cum. The French girl had enjoyed creampie's before but her young body had yet to receive one as thick and warm as the sperm that Harry Potter was pumping away inside of her womb. She enjoyed every minute of the sensation that was highlighted by Harry's wife continued to suck and knead on her breasts. "Incroyable..." Gabrielle moaned out before she let her head lay back down onto the bed so that she could catch her breath.

The door into the room opened up. Ginny didn't care who came in but was glad to see Elsa and Anna stepping in. Both the girls only had on their swimsuits, sunglasses and towels as they came into the bedroom and saw Gabrielle gasping for air as her completely reddened pussy shifted with her labored breathing. Anna put her hand to her mouth but Elsa simply smiled and decided that it had been too long since her pussy had been wrecked by Harry's amazing cock. So after coming in and giving Ginny a playful peck the ice queen got onto the bed and crawled over to Harry's cock which had only dulled in the slightest after his last explosive release inside of Gabrielle. Soon enough Harry's cock was returning to its full strength inside of Elsa's mouth even as Gabrielle just began to start breathing at a normal rate.
