

*When I first saw you, I saw a robot built to kill. I'd done it.
I would finally have my satisfaction and exact my gruesome revenge on my little Mutty-poo.*

Now that I've made you
Army of robot drones, my babies
Titanium alloy
Spent a hundred mil do it my way
They said, "I bet, she just can't make 'em"
But my money proved 'em wrong
Assassin robots 500 strong

(Kill the one)
You'll kill the one named Mutt you'll Use the taser prongs to Bring the one named Mutt to my (Bring the Mutt)
Chalet where Mutt goes in a pile
Of twenty-foot-long crocodiles
A final deadly kiss Goodnight

Ain't nothin' better
Than killing your deepest betrayer
I'm glad that I'm Swiss it
Makes it harder to do an extradition
They said, "I bet she'll never kill him"
They forgot I'm a country singer from Canada
There is nothing I'm not capable of

(Kill the one)
You'll kill the one named Mutt you'll
Take his tongue and draw it through
A deli slicer nice and fine
(Kill the one)
The thrill of seeing Mutt shoved
Into a dungeon furnace
Reflecting in my glass of wine

*You're more than just a glorified death Roomba.
I know you're capable of complex executive function,
and, sure, vacuuming too.*

(Kill the one)
You'll kill the one named Mutt and Defend me when I take the stand
The best lawyers are all robots
(Kill the one)
You'll kill the one named Mutt then
Become my trusty best friend
Who never ever cheats with Mutt

So glad I designed ya
Now the world will fear Shania
