Still stunned but not sorry for what had happened

They go home.

Confused and with some sense of guilt. Think back what ever has allowed her husband to cum in his mouth while with the others she liked, thinks that she never let her ass touch or penetrate for a form of modesty but then with the others she likes from go crazy.

And so he comes home with a great desire to shower, to clean up his moods, the smell and taste of that unknown and perhaps also to clear one's conscience a little.

She undresses and leaves all her clothes in the laundry and runs around naked around the house, the children are not there, only her husband also returned from little.

Eat a rusk with jam and then under the shower.

After a while in the shower her memories come back and her grows desire so takes the bottle of shampoo that has just the forms of a member, of a great beautiful member and begins to using it to tease, she puts it in her mouth, strips it on her legs and then already wet she begins to insert it in her pussy.

Suddenly her husband comes and gets into the shower, her hides what he was doing and tries to talk more e at least but her husband very excited puts his in her mouth penis already very hard, perhaps unwittingly knows everything and wants it to punish.

Sure they can't be stolen and starts sucking it though discordant sensations alternate.

He is ready to come but suddenly changes his mind there he takes it, turns it, bends it and begins to lick the second little hole that has always wanted to profane; now they do not can escape just half an hour ago remembered having given it to others and so he lets it. He still incredulous of this concession comes alive and eagerly licks and then tucks in with force his cock; They feel a little pain but then slowly slowly begins to enjoy. Maybe he solved an injustice and it let it be; her husband pushes for a long time and eventually empties them inside the desire for so many days of waiting.

While the water from the shower continues to flow, they look at each other without speaking; he knows and she knows, or maybe not, but that doesn't matter

they had not yet experienced it.

They wash him carefully, shoulders, arms, legs and then obviously, could not miss, he wants to wash his dick, he does it with the hands the soap but also with the tongue and nibbles and licks even his testicles because he knows he likes it. Now her man no longer reacts, the internet technician might have had yet want? but no we don't think about it anymore for charity.

Then a quick bite to dinner and work tomorrow in bed.

In bed they invent an excuse and slips naked, does not put the pajamas he always wears.

Think, think, think, dream, and again the desire grows, what's happening ???

She drops her hand and touches her nipples, but the urge is not strong, goes down more and touches her pussy which is now obscenely wet and wanting, she touches herself, rubs herself, caresses herself, slips on one finger, but not two three, wants to enjoy, the husband seems to be sleeping and reaches out to touch him, massages the belly the thigh and then for a long time his dick and the soft balls, but you know the husband does not immediately turn on the desire with his wife and seems not to play.

They insist, want him, touch him, have succeeded in provoking him one erection, touches him kisses him and while she is about to cum he stay with thoughts elsewhere.

He still touches it and she wants to scream but controls herself; fingers now they are destroying her hungry pussy pleasure.

But how is it possible I wet everything, she thinks, her husband he would like but his mind has the same thoughts as ever.
