To be continued :0...

So I keep having ideas that take too long to finish for the monthly sketchbook >-<! SO I'm going to be releasing any loose nsfw content I have, requests or odd sketches, every month like usual- but instead of rushing proper ideas like this one, I'll be releasing them when they're finished.

Which means hopefully I can spend longer making things of higher quality!

I have like 3/?? pages of this done- but I figure it's better to release it all at once instead of leaving you hanging each page!

Thanks for reading <3
