TYPE: BREASTPLATE
RARIETY: VERY RARE

The natural world offers many wonders and one such creation is living armor. Grown by particularly adept botanists that use magic as part of their process, this breastplate is composed of living bark and plant matter. Vines wind around its extremities and constantly move, seemingly aware of its surroundings and ready to take action should the moment arise. This armor has two states listed below. During your turn, you can use a bonus action to switch between the active state. Only one state can be active at any time.

Swifthusk. The vines retract leaving the inner bark as your only layer of protection. You have a +1 bonus to AC while wearing this armor. Additionally, you gain a +5 foot bonus to your standard land speed and you gain a climb speed equal to your land speed as the vines reach out to grip onto surfaces around you.

Vineguard. The vines wrap tightly around your body offering a thick layer of protection. You have a +3 bonus to AC while wearing this armor. Additionally, you gain resistance to poison damage. While in this state, you have a -10 foot penalty to your standard land speed as the vines make it difficult to move smoothly.
