The company says that idols shouldn't engage in romantic relationships with the opposite sex, but if we don't maintain regular sexual activity, it will affect our popularity... ♥♥♥ Well... Although I don't really dislike it... But every time the company sends a specialist, they have sex for way too long... I always end up exhausted after each climax.

Huh? Taking photos again? Do we have to take them every time?

Oh, sorry, sorry, Miss Kronii. The company requires us to document the appearance of your genitals. It's part of idol management, please understand.

Don't worry, of course not. Let us start then!

WaterRing's Free Talk

Hololive EN's second generation!! It's been over a year, but it feels great to return and draw Holo again. While the second generation may not be as popular as the first, the character designs are actually quite attractive. I personally enjoy the artwork I created, as I also incorporate elements of my own personal preferences into some of the scenes. I hope everyone will like it! XDD
