- Ice yellow (Vallejo mc)
- Mahogany brown (Vallejo mc)
- Purple (Vallejo mc)
- Evil suns scarlet
- Abaddon black
- Wild rider red
- White

Before we start painting the miniature, we locate the light reflections on the Staff of the spiritseer by taking a picture of it under our desk lamp. I have primed the miniature in Chaos Black as it has a great shine to it, which makes it easier to locate the different light reflections. I have added a guide for how to locate light reflections in the post description.

We start by basecoating the staff with a 1:1:1 mix of mahogany brown, purple & cavalry brown.

We now add 1 part of averland sunset to the basecoat mix & glaze the frame of the light reflections on staff – add 2-3 parts of water.

We now add a  $\frac{1}{2}$  part of ice yellow to the previous mix & glaze towards the middle of the light reflections on the staff. We furthermore edge highlight with the same mix.

We now shade all the remaining areas by adding 1 part of abaddon black to the basecoat mix – add 2-3 parts of water. We furthermore shade the deepest recesses with pure abaddon black. Finally glaze the very center of the light reflections & highlight all the sharpest edges with pure ice yellow.

We now glaze the lower  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the staff with thinned down purple – add 2-3 parts of water. We furthermore begin on the gems – basecoat them with a 2:1 mix of evil suns scarlet & black.

We now glaze the frame of the light reflections on the gems with pure evil suns scarlet. Add 2 parts of water.

We now glaze towards the middle of the light reflections on the gems with wild rider red.

We now add a dot white in the very middle of the light reflections on the gems. We furthermore highlight around the edges of the gems with a 1:1 mix of evil suns scarlet & wild rider red – add 1-2 parts of water. Done 😊 !
