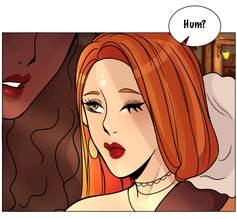
Oh in that case

I will come back later. I really want to taste it!

You know you're welcome anytime in my house.

Oh by the way!

Hum?



Did you see that shooting star last night?

It looked like a fireball, that was so huge.

I did not. Maybe I was already sleeping.

If you find traces of this comet, like fragments for example...

Pick them up for me will you?

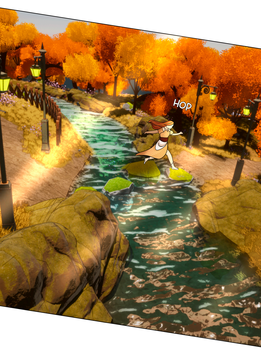
Yes ma'am.

Thank you short Queen.

I'm not short!

Yes you're soooo short little hamster.

Later in the morning



Hop

I need red apples, strawberries and raspberries.
Let's find the arborist and ask for his permission.
Dear lord! My trees!

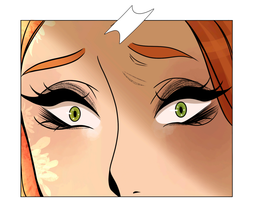
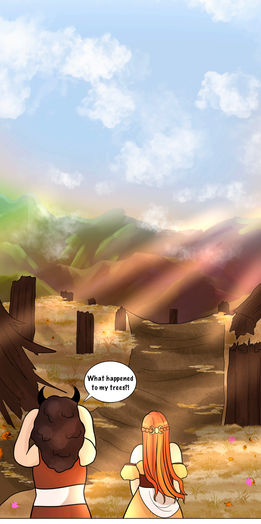
What's happening sir?!





What happened to my trees!!
