Hey, Bly, can I ask you a very personal question?

Hmm? What is-

-THE FUCK

I was gonna ask if you liked the FIT...

...But, I can see you do!

Seeing as you were never great with...

People.

SO -

- I figured I'd be more direct.

You thought I wouldn't find out?

Staring when I bend over...

...Huffing my laundry...

...The Websites.

We rabbits have 360 vision you know?

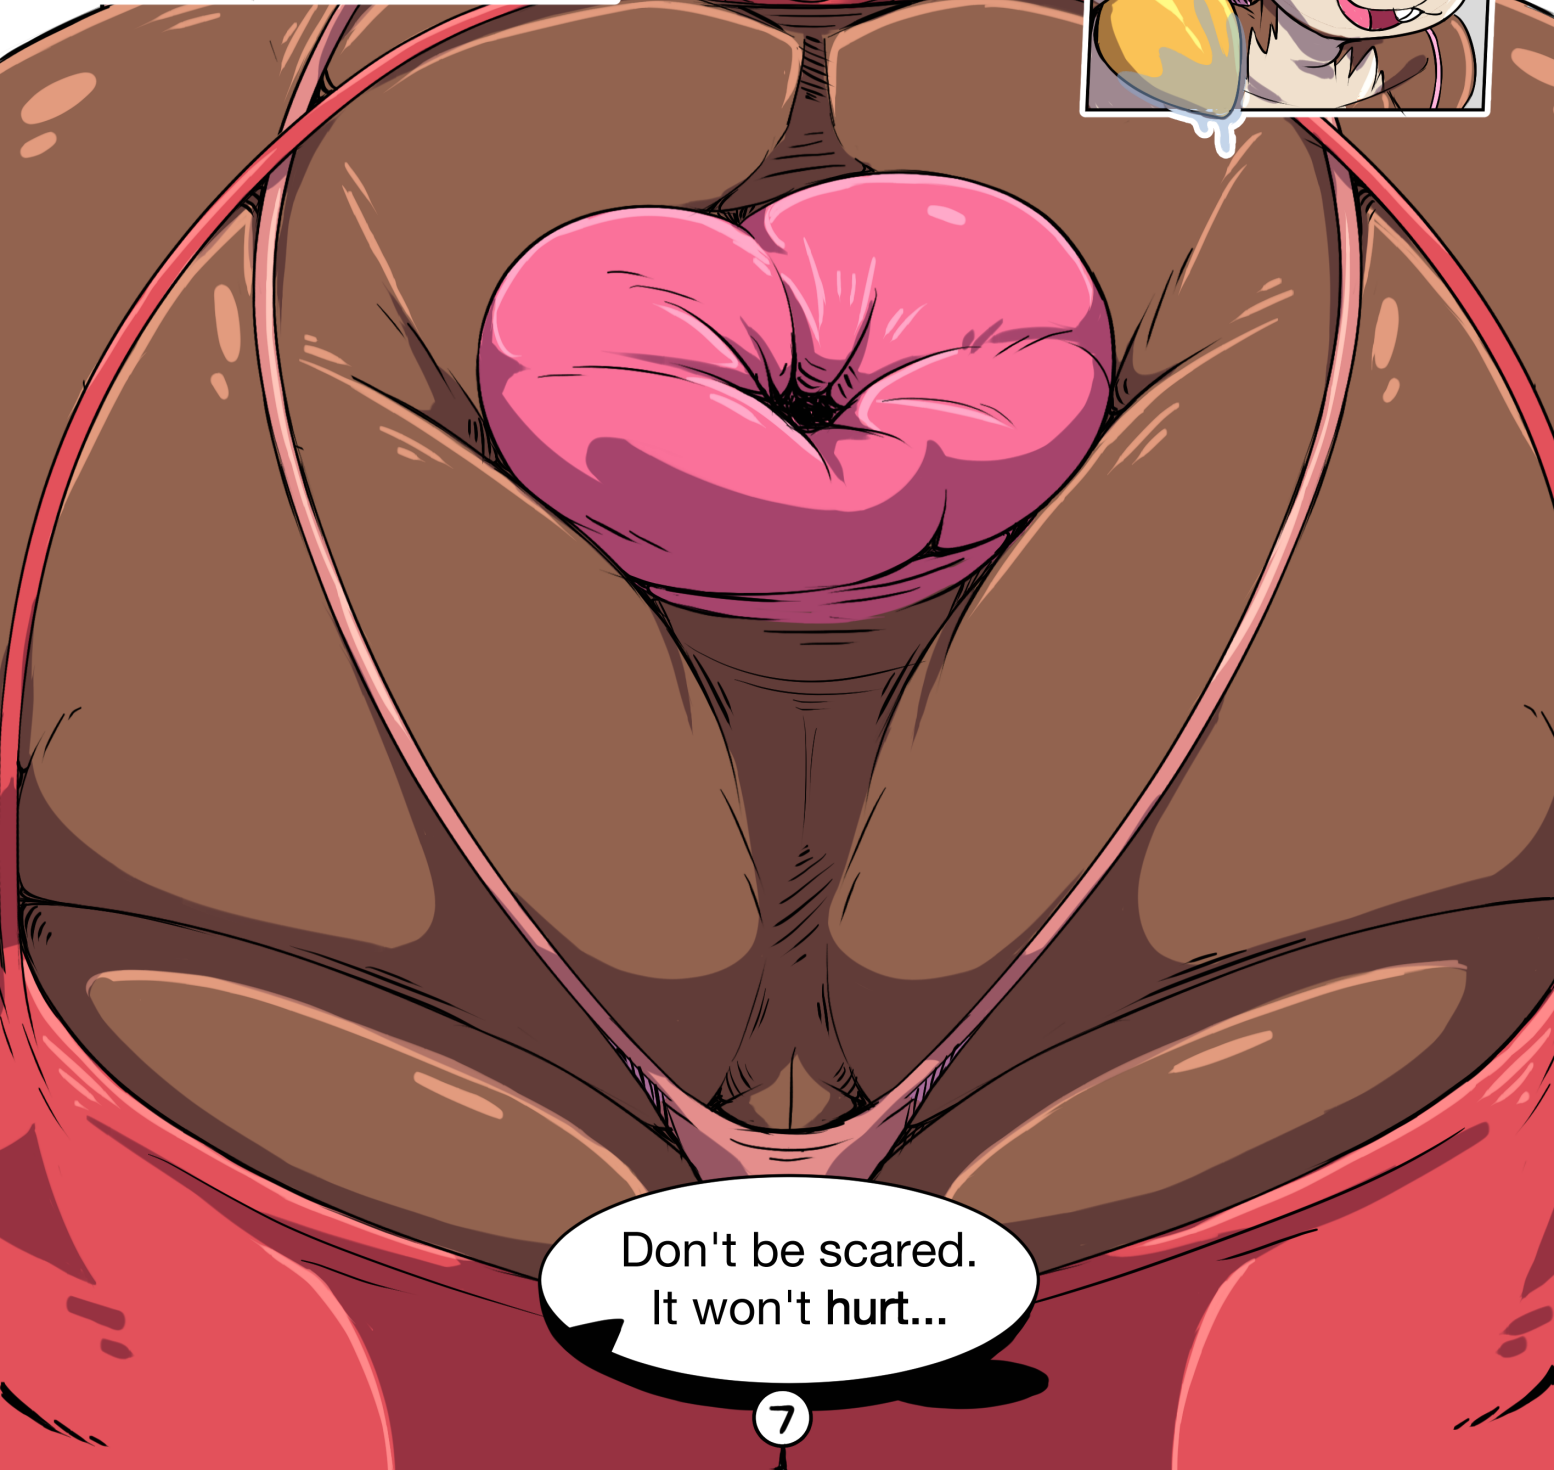

Nngfthm

Mmp-Ahh...

...Much better.

Don't be scared.
It won't hurt...

Fwi!

...That much.

Wha- Hey! Really?!
Man, its only been a minute!

NMFhn
- Nugh.

... Kinda cute thinkin' about it.
I wonder how much I could milk out of you like this...

A Special Thanks to all my Patrons!

Thanks for putting up with me doing nothing but this for, like, a month.

This was quite the roundabout arduous project. I didn't think it would take as long as it did to make.

However, I can't say I didn't love working on it. At least it didn't take as long as I thought it could take. For a first foray into comic making I think this came out very well. Though I may stick to doing more monochrome work in the future. I think I have what it takes for long form story telling!

I would like to give an Ultra Special thanks to Bly for letting me use his character for this and of course you for reading!
