Mahou Shoujo Blowheart -ENG

-Episode 3-

A moment of crisis Kokoro saw Sigelinde's leg trampling her stomach.

'This body size.. I can do it!'

Kokoro grabbed Sigelinde's leg, which was stepping on her, and tried to take a take-down by walking her hind legs, Sigelinde, who was off guard, fell and was bound by Achilles Lock.

"Chit...! Cheeky..!"

But Kokoro's Achilles Lock wasn't perfect because she wasn't used to Lock, and Sigelinde, who shook herself to create a gap, pushing Kokoro's legs and free from her.

Although it wasn't a perfect technique, Kokoro, who first took the standing position, became advantageous. She tried to hit Sigelinde with her fist that focused her mana as much as possible.

"Don't miss! Maken! Shining bl...!

At the moment, Sigelinde holds Kokoro's legs forward with both arms and crosses her legs in an X-shape to secure the legs of Kokoro so that she cannot move forward.

"Ugh...! My lower body...!"

While her legs are completely sealed and her fists are not reaching the opponent's body, Sigelinde pushes the crossed leg and knocks down the Kokoro. Kokoro, who is flop down with split two legs, crouches quickly like a turtle. Sigelinde climbs on her back and whispers.

"You're being arrogant, aren't you? Did you think you'd win on the ground?"

"Chit..! Then!"

When Kokoro tries to raise her body by pushing with her back, Sigelinde hooks Kokoro's two legs to force her to open them, and tries Back-take to Kokoro, who loses her balance and falls.

Flustered Kokoro tries to turn her body around, but it's already on Sigelinde's palm. Sigelinde snatched Kokoro's right arm and hangs both legs around Kokoro's neck and tighten.

"You did it, dogwater. My dress is covered with dirt because of you. How are you going to take responsibility?"

As Sigelinde's legs tighten, Kokoro's face is crumpled in an ugly way with stuck in tight.

"Ugh..! keck..! I can't breast..!"

"Hmm it's a good face cutie♡"

Kokoro's face was reddened by the humiliation of being violated by her younger opponent and pain.

I'll never admit! Blowheart is invincible! I'm not gonna be a toy for a girl like you! I'll make sure you're screwed!

I must loosen this first!

Aim for the leg grip?

If Achilles Lock worked, there would be damage to the leg! Rather escape form this situation using my arms?

Lift it up with her arm and hit it?

It's the weight I can lift, and if she is a regular opponent, this is the standard way to do it. And if I can turn it into an attack, It's a one-shot reversal.
