Bob: "This is Bob Hightower coming to you from downtown. We are just moments away from a showdown we have all been waiting for. We first want to take a moment and thank our sponsor SH Inc. When it comes to size horny, they are only getting bigger and better! Now, lets head to the streets to check in with Tim."

Tim: "You got that right Bob! Tim Smalls here, on the ground with all of the enthusiasm. People have snuck onto the streets after being blocked off last night. Buses are being brought in but any efforts to delay the competitors has gone unsuccessfully. These people want to see a show, and by golly, they are gonna get one today!"

REC

Bob: "Wow Tim, we are so close to show time. Well, they knew the risks, Godspeed to them! Let's get into checking in on these two contenders."

REC

Tim: "Yeah Bob, I wish them all a speedy recovery from whatever comes their way. First we have '2b.' Entering as an early favorite... primarily due to her immense weight advantage and the fact she is an android, but nobody seems to be focusing on that discrepancy today. She will have her work cutout for her because her opponent has not been phased by Bob: "Right you are Tim. Tifa Lockhart, said before the match that she 'has never trained harder in her life' and that she plans to go into this knowing she left 'nothing on the table.' With both of these heaving chests moving into position we move now to our aerial coverage for the main event!"

Lucy: "Thanks Bob and Tim. Lucy Cooper here, covering this fight from the relative safety of our helicopter. We'd like to thank "Femmax" for sponsoring our aerial coverage, and while 'Results may Vary' for this supplement, our coverage quality will not!"

FEMMAX

It looks like our contenders are addressing each other with a bit of pre-match banter, let's listen in."

Tifa: "We finally meet. Face to face. Chest... to chest. You really think you are going to walk out here the champion?"

REC

Lucy: "Wow, big words from the bartender. 2b seems to remain silent and let her curves do the talking. We are flying over now and getting the view of exactly why she's been so heavily favored."

REC

Lucy: "...but I wouldn't sleep on Tifa either. Her top is strained and her goals are clear. She came here to win. We also want to let those of you at home know that the spectators on the rooftop received all the warnings and have signed all the waivers we could throw at them. Best of luck to them in the coming moments."

REC

Bob: "Thanks for that Lucy! It appears our contenders are ready to start as they are removing some of the sharper objects on the rooftop."

REC

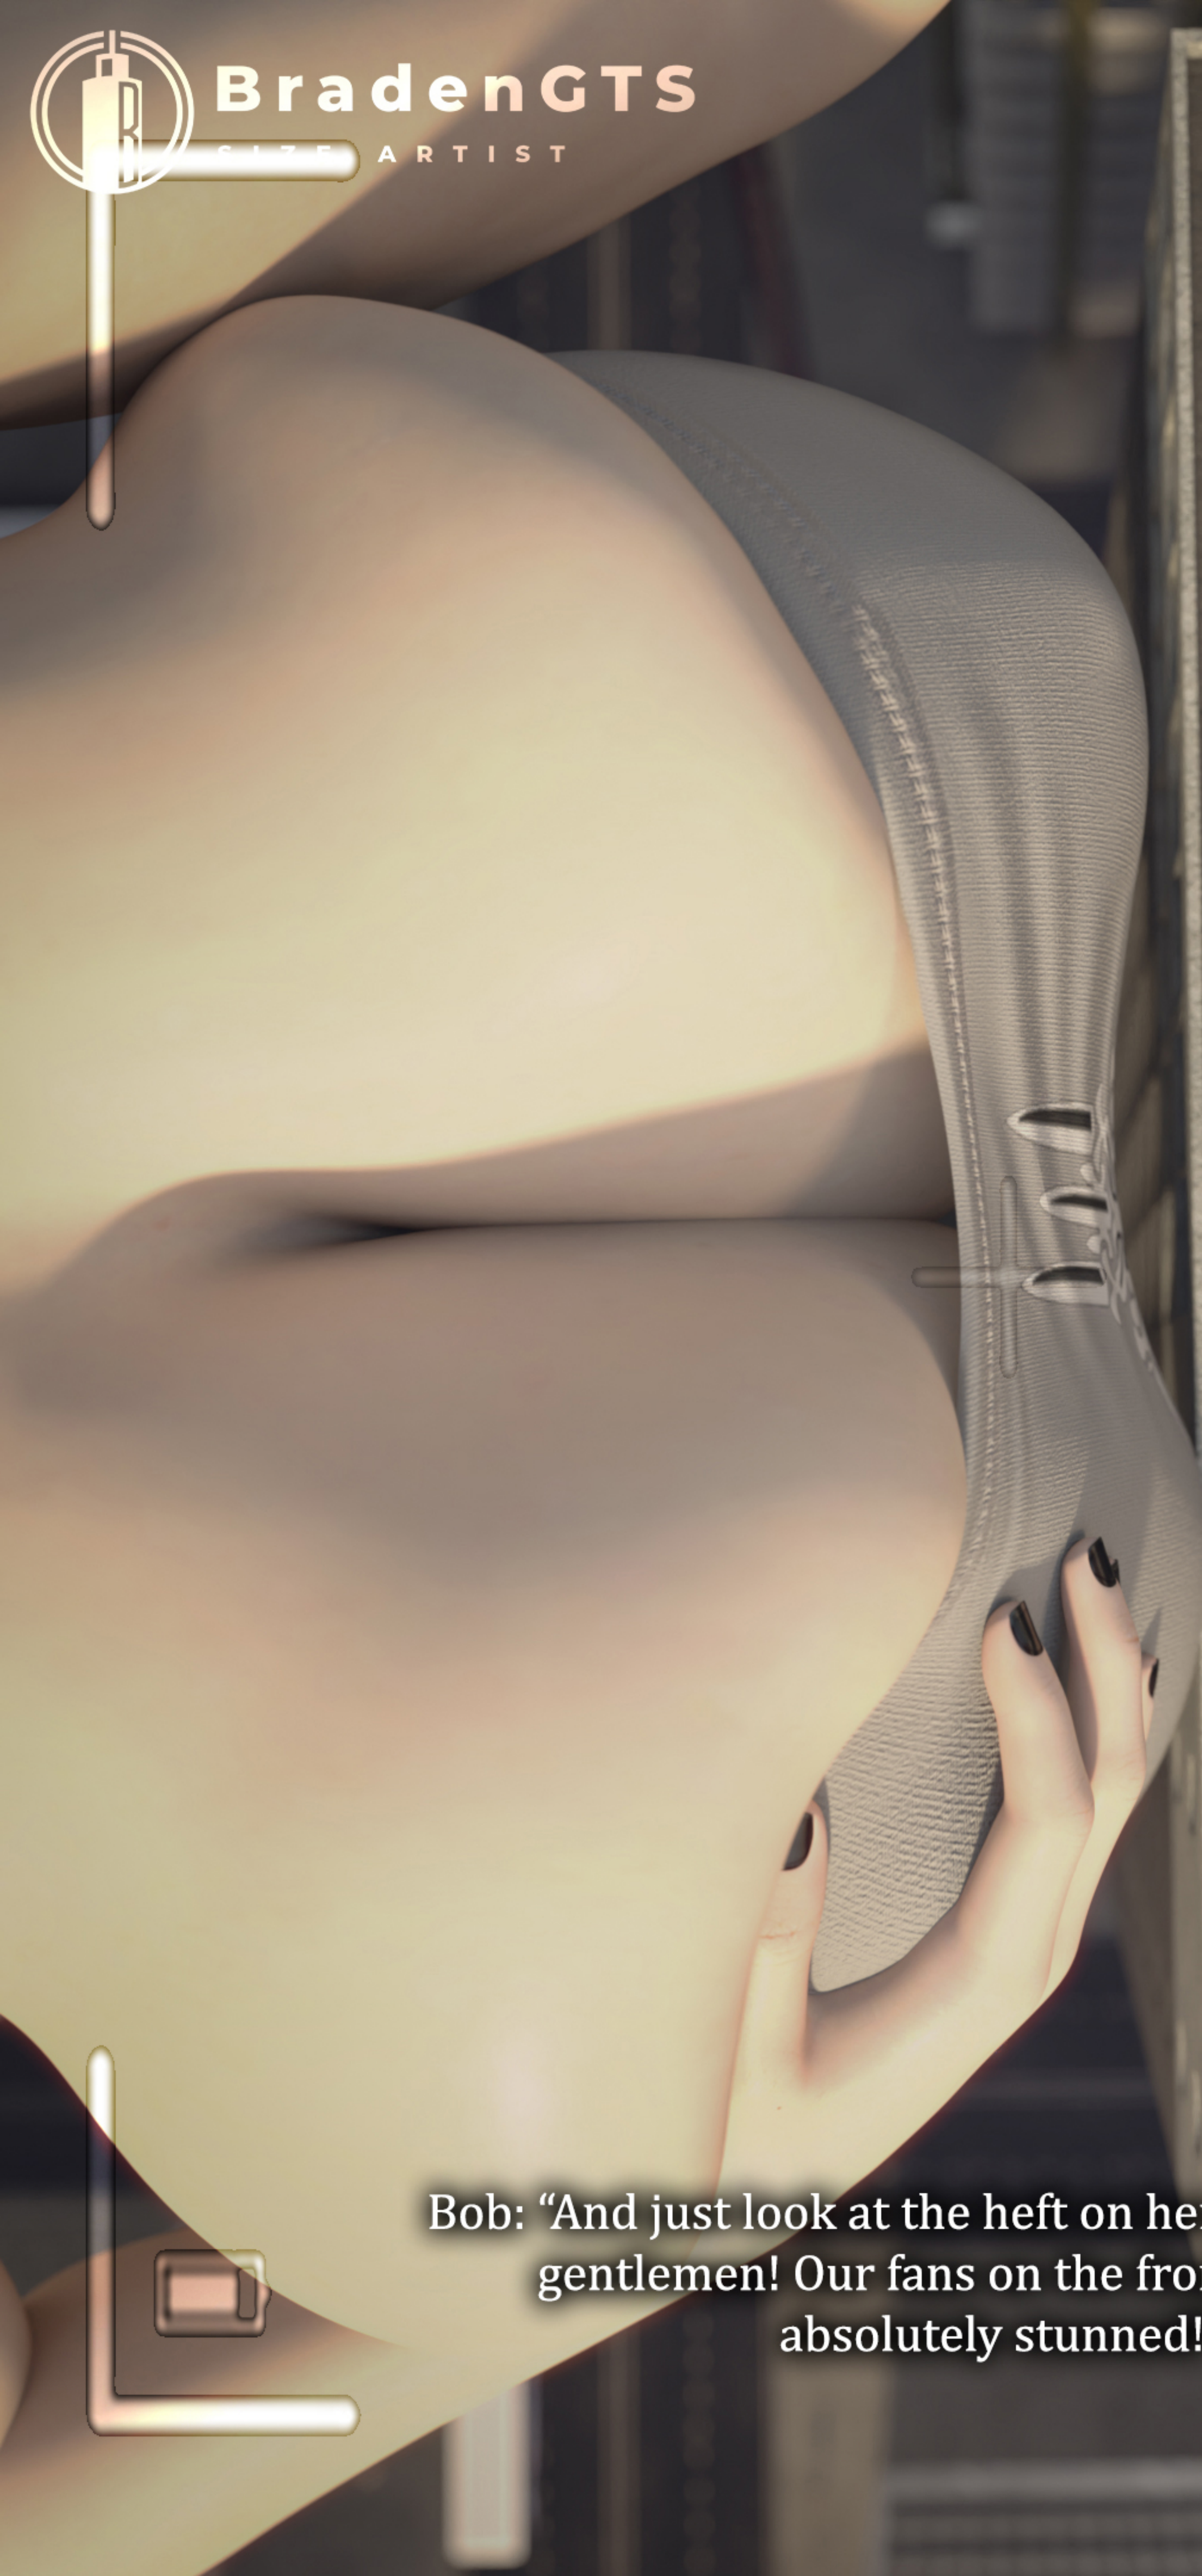

Tim: "Yeah, as strong and powerful as these ladies are, we would like to remind you all at home that their chests are as soft as ever. Safety is paramount for our contenders today, and these removals were approved prior to the match."

Lucy: "Safety... but there are clearly spectators on that roof in dan..."

Bob: "And just look at the heft on her chest ladies and gentlemen! Our fans on the front row seem absolutely stunned!"

BradenGTS

Tim: "Preparations are completed as some of that roof debris is making its way down here to street level! Watch out folks, it's about to get crazy here!"

REC

Bob: "And we are off as our match begins! Locked in, both titanesses lock breasts as they follow the strict "No hands policy." The impact of their bosoms being felt throughout the city.

Lucy: "Those on the rooftop appear to be in dan-"

REC

Tim: "And look at that strength! Neither competitor willing to give up an inch as the tension in the city is only matched by that of their tops."

Lucy: "But those spectators are in clear dan-"

REC

Bob: "...dangerously close to missing every second of this action. Just look at their faces. They are both determined to win!"

REC

Lucy: "Circle around we need to help th-"

REC

Tim: "We are getting pelted with glass down here!
These ladies really met in the middle and the building had to hurry and get out of the way. It looks like they are not finished though as they are getting ready to go at it again..."

Tim: "Bob, people here are on the ground starting to get a bit worri--"

Bob: "And just look at that determination from Lockhart. She intends to win this and nothing is going to stop her from achieving that goal!"

REC

Lucy: "It appears there is someone in 2b's Cleavage!
Circle around, they may need our help!"

BradenGTS

Tim: "It is just pandemonium down here!
Emergency personnel are scattering as the last of the busses are being filled with pedestrians to get them out of here!"
