

Chapter 184 - Visiting the Loki Familia home for the first time.

When I said this to Ishtar, she continued staring at me for a few seconds without believing what she had just heard. She was looking at me as if I were a complete idiot.

'Well, I can understand her.' But didn't I just kill one of the strongest members of the Freya Familia? She should trust me.

"Listen, I might not have a plan, but I killed him, right? I'm sure I can handle all the members of the Freya Familia."

"Even so... Do you think that will be enough? Just dealing with Freya's subordinates isn't enough. As long as she's alive, she'll remain a threat. I thought you had a plan to deal with her."

"Even you don't have one..."

"Haaa~~" Ishtar let out a long sigh. "If you don't have a plan, I don't think we can work together."

"Listen here, little goddess. I just killed an important member of the Freya Familia because you told me to. I'm not going to accept you jumping ship."

"Who are you to tell me what to do?"

"You're not making sense. Listen, if you don't want to work with me... I'll deal with them. But after I've finished, I'll go after your Familia." I turned to leave. Then I heard Ishtar's footsteps.

She was walking towards me. However, I didn't sense any threat from her.

Ishtar stood right in front of me and looked me in the eye. We stared at each other for a few seconds, and then she opened her mouth. "Good luck." She smiled at me and then turned to walk away.

"I thought you were going to do something more interesting."

I left the Ishtar Familia house and walked through the entertainment district while being lusted after by a few girls. However, I went straight to my mansion to take a hot bath.

After my shower, I went into the kitchen and prepared something to eat since Jessica was cleaning. After I'd finished eating, I left the mansion while I carried my two swords.

I also bought two new potions so that I could "disappear."

I set off again in the direction of the Freya Familia's house.

I drank my potion and entered their house again. Contrary to what I expected, it was quiet, as if nothing had happened. I thought there might be a commotion, but that wasn't the case.

However, there were now more people here than before.

'Hmmm, I know a few of them...' I scanned the place and wondered if I should kill everyone here and get it over with, but I didn't. I analyzed the area once more before leaving the Freya Familia house.

Once I was far enough away, I went into an alley and waited for the potion to wear off.

"What do I do now?" I walked through the city until I saw someone I hadn't seen in days. It was Ais. She was together with Tione. The two of them were in front of a stall buying something.

I kept watching them from afar.

'Tiona isn't with them. Could something have happened? Bete isn't here either. They're probably not going to the dungeon today.'

With a smile, I approached them.

"Ais, Tione." I waved to them both. They both turned to me at the same time. Unlike Tione, who showed some displeasure at seeing me, Ais showed no emotion.

"Hey." Tione went back to talking to the salesman.

"Hi. What are you doing here?" Ais said to me.

"What? I was walking around, or do you think I was following you or something? I saw you two by chance."

"... Tiona's not here... There's no reason for you to stay here."

"Do you hate me that much? I thought we became friends when we met last time."

"I don't hate you. I'm just saying that Tiona isn't here."

"And where is she?"

"She's at home. She's been feeling under the weather for the last few days."

"Then I should visit her," I said, joking. However, Ais quickly refused to let that happen.

"You can't."

"Hey, Ais, don't be so hard on him." Tione, who had finished buying what she had to buy, approached.
"You can visit my sister if you want, I'll accompany you."

"Tione, the goddess will..."

"She'll only be annoyed if she finds out."

"What a surprise."

"Hm?"

"You seemed rather unhappy to see me. I didn't think you'd offer to take me to your sister."

"Well, she likes you."

"Hahaha. Well, I'll take you up on your offer." I said, rather excited. It'll be the first time I'm visiting the Loki Familia house. I wouldn't turn down this offer. Besides, the longer I stay with Tione and Ais, the better.

I'm looking forward to trying new things.

####

It was a surprise that I was "invited" to the Loki Familia house like this, but I'm here, walking along with Ais and Tione towards the house. I was extremely excited.

The possibility of seeing Tiona and having sex with her inside the Loki Familia house excited me.

Not only that, but the possibility of doing something with Ais or Tione also excites me a lot. But It isn't easy.

'If I want something to happen. I'll have to ask for Tiona's help.'

I said before that I wouldn't do anything with Ais yet, but I can't wait any longer. I want to see her naked, I want to grab her modest breasts, I want to fuck her and make her show me an expression of pleasure.

Just thinking about it makes my cock hard.

"We're almost there. I'll go with you, and Ais will take this." Tione handed what she had bought to Ais. They had bought things to eat but hadn't eaten anything because of me.

"I thought Ais was going with us."

"No, she needs to do something, doesn't she?"

"Yes." Ais agreed.

"If that's the case, fine."

So, I entered the Loki Familia house together with Tione.
