

Chapter 33 - Lili showered in my room.

I woke up the next day and opened my Status. I had 9 points to spend, but I'll do that later. I'm not going to the dungeon today.

Today, I want to focus on writing and the weekly mission given by the system. The mission is simple: I need to have sex outside, whether it's on the street or in an alley. In other words, public sex.

I've never had such an experience, but people say it's interesting and exciting. But who should I do this with? Should I try to win over Lili and do it with her? Or should I go to Aisha?

Speaking of Aisha, the percentage has dropped.

The percentage is now at 34%, it was 36% before. I should talk a bit more with her. I wonder if she has already found out about her pregnancy. Since she's a prostitute, she must be used to this kind of thing.

Is there anything to end a pregnancy in this world? She might kill the baby.

'I don't want that to happen. It's my child, isn't it?'

Haaaa~~

I let out a long sigh and sat in front of the computer. I put my notebook on the desk and picked up my pen to continue writing. I want to finish the first volume today.

Hours passed, and I finally finished.

However, how do I create multiple copies? I'll have to go to the library to learn how.

It's impossible to write several volumes. I need to make copies.

But I won't do that now.

I took a hot shower and changed clothes. Then I went to the dungeon, where Lili should be. She's probably working now.

Arriving at the dungeon, I saw some supporters walking around with some adventurers, but I couldn't find Lili.

'Did she not come to work today?'

But when I was about to leave, I saw Lili coming out of the dungeon. She was alone, carrying her huge bag. She looked around as if she was worried about something.

And then, she saw me.

Her eyes widened in surprise. After lowering her head, she started to walk away.

'She did something inside the dungeon, didn't she?'

I thought about what she could have done. But why would she run away from me? Maybe she doesn't want me to discover what she's been doing.

Hmmm...

I watched her for a few seconds as she walked away and then went after her. I ran and caught up with her in an instant. I put my hand on Lili's shoulder, and she turned to me. "Let me go!" she said.

"What happened? Did someone do something to you inside the dungeon? You can talk to me. Did you want to read what I wrote? I just finished the first volume."

Lili looked into my eyes, her eyes filled with tears. She lowered her head again. "No, it's fine. Leave it for another time." She tried to walk away, but I stood in her way.

I knelt and looked into her eyes.

"Hey, what happened? Tell me."

"Nothing happened."

"Alright... You don't need to tell me what happened, just come with me. I'll let you shower in my room, and then we'll eat something."

"Huh? Wait a second!" I grabbed her hand and started leading her. "Let me go!"

"I just want to take care of you, Lili. Come on." I smiled at her, and Lili stopped resisting, maybe because of the [Charming Aura] skill or because she trusted me.

And then, we finally reached my room.

The room was a bit messy since I hadn't cleaned it since I arrived in this world (I only cleaned up my sperm from the floor and walls). There were clothes on the floor and also on the bed. And there was leftover food on the computer desk.

It was something I had eaten while writing.

Lili looked around curiously.

"What is this thing?" She pointed to the computer.

"It's a computer, something common in my city, but it doesn't work anymore."

"Oh, the notebook you write in." Lili saw it on the computer desk and picked it up. "You wrote a lot. Your handwriting is beautiful, even though you wrote it so quickly. I wish I had beautiful handwriting like yours."

"It wasn't that quick. I've been writing since morning. Now, take off that bag and go to the bathroom. I'll lend you some of my clothes."

"Huh? It's not necessary. I don't need to take a shower! And you don't need to lend me your clothes!"

"Don't worry, come on. Here."

Lili entered the bathroom and saw how different it was. The toilet, the glass separating the toilet from the shower, the sink. It was a different bathroom from what she was used to.

Every detail was something unique to her.

"To turn on the water, use this. Wait a bit for the water to heat up. When you're done, call me, and I'll bring you a towel."

"But..." Lili was embarrassed, but I insisted. After, I left the bathroom.

After a few seconds, I heard the shower and Lili humming.

'She seems to be enjoying this.'

I set aside a pair of pants and a shirt for Lili. Even though they were masculine, they would look great on her. After a few minutes, I heard Lili calling me. Lili opened the bathroom door, and I finally saw her ears.

She only put half of her head out. I could see her ears, wet hair, and red cheek.

I handed her the towel, and Lili quickly closed the door.

["Charming Aura" is now level 3!]

'A good notification arrived.'
