COTTAGE CHRONICLES

In this chapter of the Cottage Chronicles, the mighty Cottage Goddess temporarily stepped away from her mountain abode to visit family. The fall weather was crisp, with leaves painting the landscape in warm hues. In her absence, the devoted tinies held down the fort, navigating the chill by lighting a tea candle for warmth. As always, their loyalty and support were a comforting beacon. To all the cherished readers in the Tiny Army, your dedication warms the heart. Thank you for being an integral part of the Cottage, creating a community that extends across realms and seasons. Your presence makes this giantess journey all the more wonderful!

FALL CLOSET STAPLES

...that aren't sweatpants

The best thing about fall, has to be the fashion! The chilly weather is the perfect opportunity to showcase some style with layers and knits. Although, it is very easy to get too comfortable in just some sweats and a sweater. This article will review Fall closet staples that are comfortable AND stylish!

MATERIAL

When picking staples to last season after season, choose from these materials:

- Cotton
- Wool
- Flannel
- Denim
- Knit

The perfect fall wardrobe should keep you warm and comfortable. Here are some staples to invest in to get you through the season!

- Jacket
 - Denim or Leather
- Sweaters
 - I like to try and thrift cool vintage pieces
- Boots
- Flannel Shirts
- Layering pieces
 - Long-sleeve T-shirts, henleys, and lightweight hoodies are perfect for layering under jackets or sweaters.
