Chapter 12: Young and Full of Plot Holes

When Hannah and Ryan made it back to the car they found the middle aged Hailey and Paige bicycling back up to them from the road on a pair of girly pink bikes that were too small for their heavier adult bodies.

“Girls?” Hannah asked intrigued.

“Oh Hannah, last night we had this strange urge to go ride bikes and so we went into town to our relatives houses and borrowed these. I think they belong to our nieces...” The women said. Hannah smiled at the sight of these older women wobbling around on the bikes they owned at 13 year olds.

She decided it was time to put them back to normal. She adjusted the dial on the youth ray and fired at them. Their bodies shrunk and tightened. Hailey’s hair became a vibrant red once more. Paige shed all the extra weight she had and became a slender blonde young lady. They hit young adulthood and continued back into their teen years. Their curves shrank and their faces regained their innocent sweetness. Hannah stopped the regression at 15. Both girls looked basically as they had before except with two extra years of maturity and slightly more developed breasts. “That’s to help the boys notice you a little more.” She whispered to her teenage students who began giggling to each other in the lyrical tone of young fresh faced girls.

“Hannah, is this your boyfriend?” They asked followed by ‘Ooooooo’. Hannah nodded, hugging him tightly.

“He’s cute! When I get old I totally want a boyfriend like that!” Hailey declared and the two girls hopped back on their bikes that now fit them perfectly once more.

“See you next week Hannah!” They yelled as they biked off down the road.

Hannah and Ryan arrived at the house to find Melvin asleep on the couch with Tiffany laying half naked across him with her barefeet in his lap and Brianna snuggled up next to him topless, her large sagging boobs straddling his arm as her gray haired head rested on his shoulder.

Ryan and Hannah gave each other a look like 'I don't want to know...' and Hannah zapped the two women. Tiffany's body firmed up and straightened. Her skin smoothed out as all her wrinkles vanished. Her hair went back to its platinum blonde as she rubbed her dainty pristine feet together in Melvin's lap and then rubbed his crotch with her foot as she slept. Brianna thinned down incredibly as the fat disappeared from her body and her limbs and torso tightened and toned. Her hair became dark again and her breasts lifted dramatically until the two large perky orbs pressed straight out into Melvin's bicep.

Melvin now had two smoking hot, half naked, college girls lounging on him where before the scene looked like a disturbing nursing home seduction.

The three of them slowly woke up. The girls were at first shocked at their young firm bodies but then shocked instead to find themselves exposed to Melvin.

"Ugh! Who's the dweeb?" Brianna asked, covering her chest.

"What are you doing here?" Tiffany demanded tucking her legs up under her body and covering herself as well.

"Ladies! Ladies! Don't you remember? You were both really old! I took care of you while you were weak and achy and incontinent." Melvin explained hoping they would remember.

"We... were old?" Tiffany asked, confused. Brianna looked down at herself not sure what to make of the memories she was having then looked over at Tiffany and her pink nail polish.

“Oh my god Tif, you were old! You were, like, all wrinkled and shriveled up! You were the cutest little old lady!” Brianna said, cracking up laughing remembering it.

Tiffany was embarrassed but then a recollection popped into her head.

“You were old too! You got fat!” Tiffany told her friend.

“I wasn’t fat!” Brianna yelled mortified.

“Yeah you were like Mrs. Claus fat and your big sagging tits were like down to your waist!” Tiffany said, cracking up laughing.

The two women then both looked at Melvin.

“You- you took care of us. You didn’t treat us like we were old and disgusting...” The girls said to Melvin in a moment of realization.

“That’s what Melvin’s all about ladies...” The dork said grinning with his hands behind his head.

The two girls looked at each other and shared a knowing glance and then turned to Melvin and slid his pants down.

After a few moments of tag-team fellatio and gratitude. Brianna stopped and looked up at Melvin remembering something.

“Melvin, did you give us full body massages when we were old women?”

Tiffany chimed in furrowing her brow “And dirty sponge baths?”

Melvin looked at them with embarrassment. “Ladies, ladies, understand I just gave you what you wanted at the time and it was my duty to make your twilight years as pleasurable as they could be...” He sputtered.

Brianna and Tiffany raised their eyebrows.

“Want to do it again now that we’re young enough to fully enjoy it?” Tiffany asked, her toes curling at the thought.

“You bet your sweet ass I would!” Melvin blurted out and the three of them went into the bathroom and locked the door.

Hannah and Ryan were taking a nap together in her room when the phone rang.

“Hey sis, everything back to normal?” Conner said on the other side of the phone.

“Yep everyone’s young again!” She answered enthusiastically.

“Great! Are Tiffany and Brianna coming over?” He asked with excitement.

“Uh I don’t think so... I think they’re in the other room having a threesome with Melvin...” She said and then winced in expectation of his response.

“MELVIN!??” Conner cried dramatically.

“Yeah... I also might let him, you know, live in the extra room since you won’t be here anymore... While he looks for a new job...” Hannah said and then held the phone away from her ear as her brother let out a series of curses.

“Okay, love you! See you later!” She said and hung up.

Ryan opened his eyes and looked at the beautiful strawberry blonde in bed next to him.

“Mmm it’s been a few hours since the last time we had sex, want to go again.” Ryan asked.

“Absolutely. It might have been hours ago for you but it was decades from now for me.” Hannah grinned. Ryan smiled, kissing her up her chest.

“I got to have sex with you at every phase of your adult life and one thing I learned. Hannah, no matter how old you are – you are really great in bed!” He declared.

“Why thank you. And as a special treat for you, right now I can be any age you want!” She grinned a sly grin and waved the two age rays around in either hand. They both laughed and had a lot of fun that day.
