

Right, right..!

His heartbeat is loud..

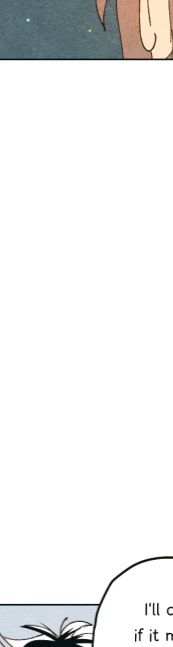

I'm curious..

Your emergency PIN..

Why did you set it as my birthday?

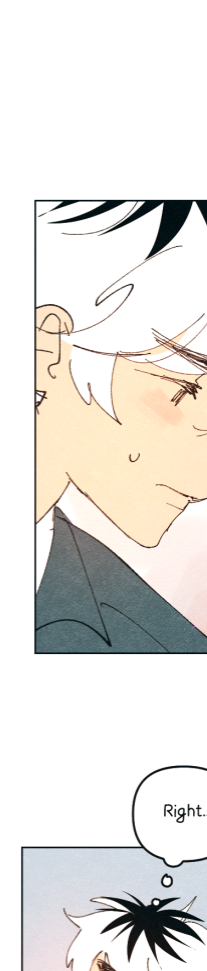

Oh, haha.. Is it weird?

It's super weird..!

It's my birthday, Crush..

Of course it's weird.

I'll change it if it makes you uncomfortable.

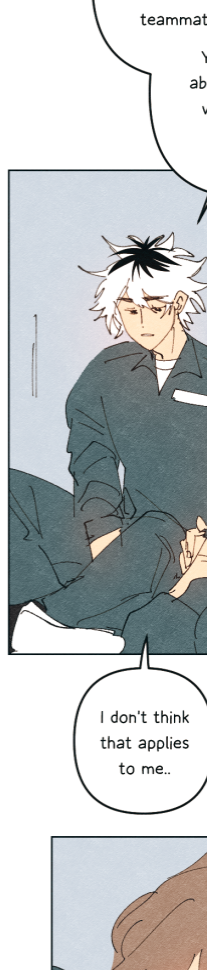

Idiot..

That's not what I'm saying..!

I just..

I want to know why.

Right..

No more secrets..

You know how..

When babies are small, they lack object permanence?

..Yeah?

If a ball rolls out of line of sight, babies will think it stopped existing..

I think I'm like that..

..with people.

They said "Don't get too attached to your teammates.."

You won't be able to handle it when they're gone"

I don't think that applies to me..

I don't think I can get attached even if I tried.
