

A DAY AT THE FIGHTS:

QUEEN OF THE NORTH

BY A. F. COMBAT

Hello folks, and welcome to an afternoon of topless boxing action! I'm Al Clarkson alongside Dan Reynolds and our first fight today brings together two women looking to prove who is the top fighter in their part of the world!

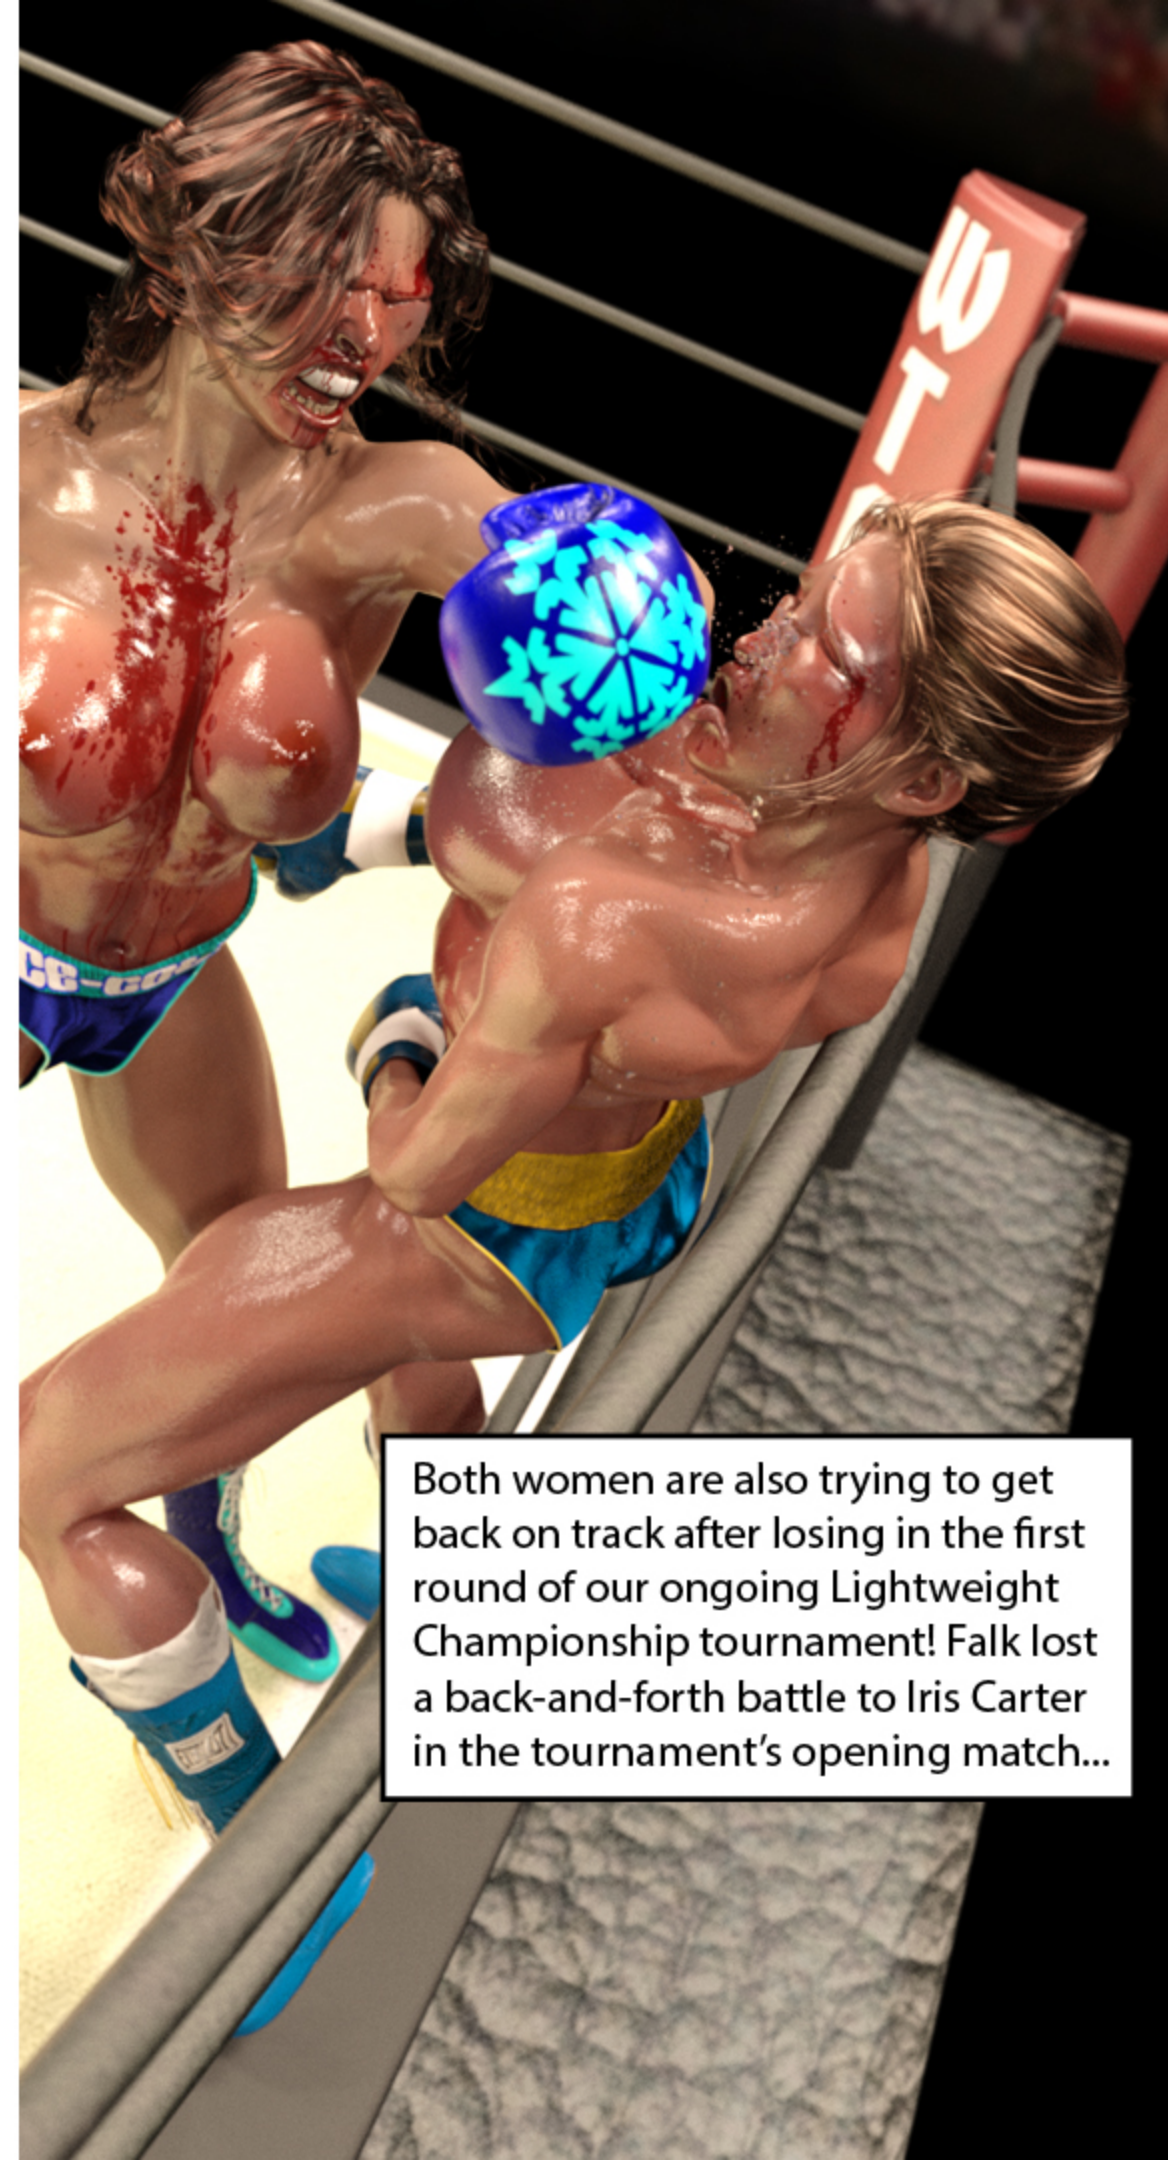

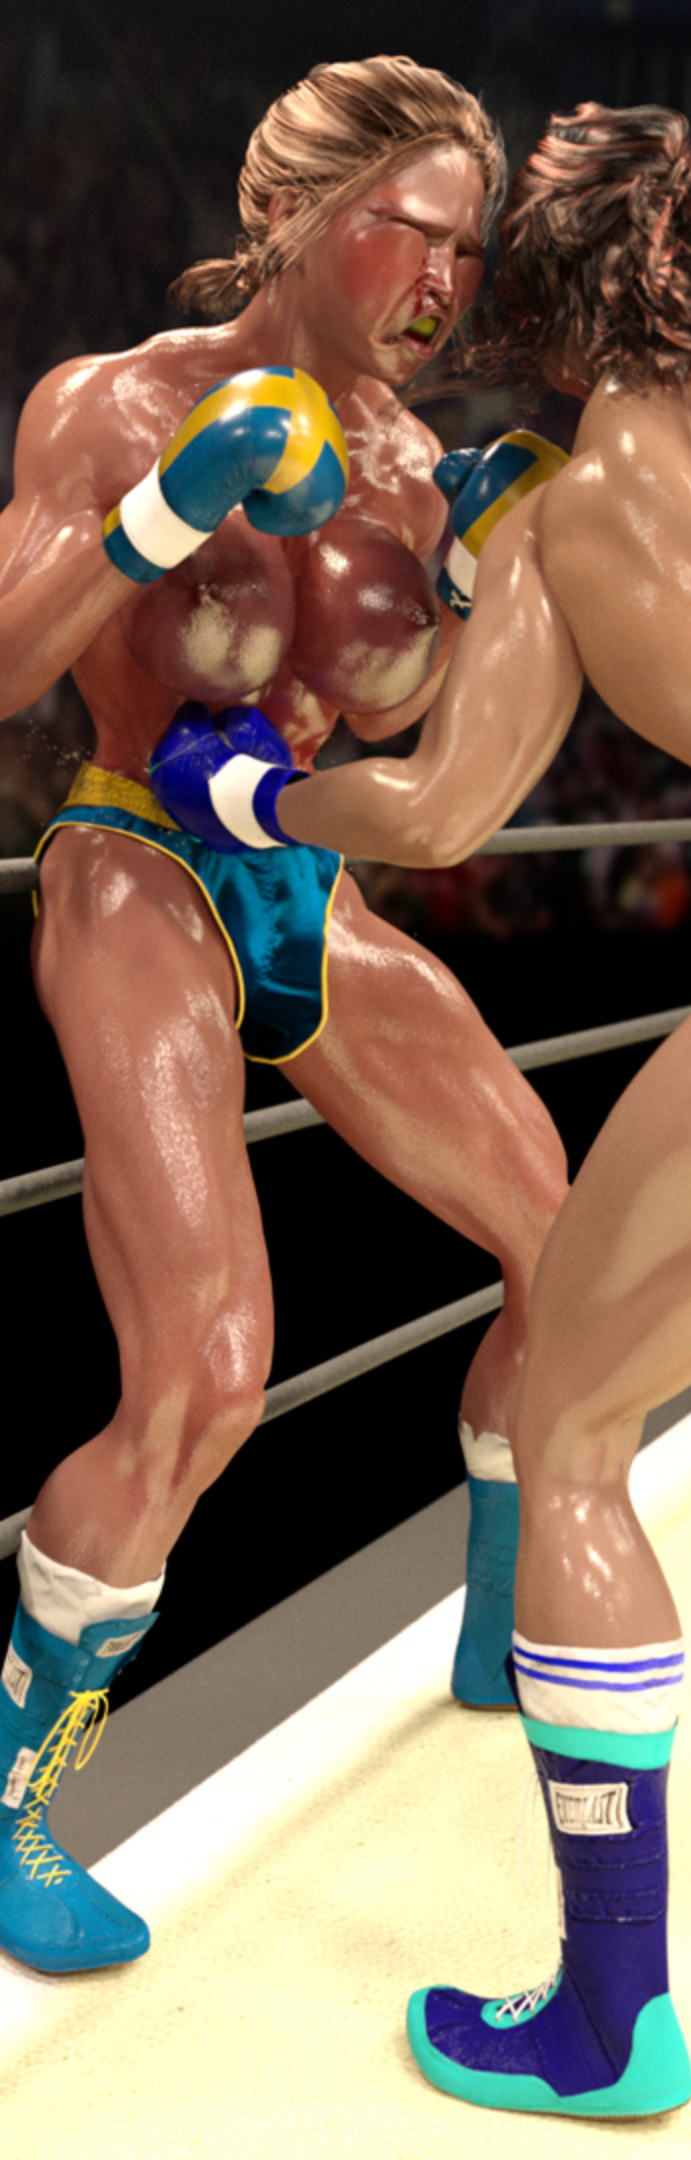

“BERZERKER” BRIGID WAGNER
29 YEARS OLD
H: 5’ 11” W: 149 LBS.
M: 42”-27”-39”
R: 26-8-2(25KO)

Yes, Al, we have the top boxers from Sweden and Norway fighting for bragging rights and the unofficial title of, “Queen of the North!”

LENA “THE LYNX” FALK
25 YEARS OLD
H: 6’ 2” W: 143 LBS.
M: 41”-26”-38”
R: 11-4-0(11KO)

Both women are also trying to get back on track after losing in the first round of our ongoing Lightweight Championship tournament! Falk lost a back-and-forth battle to Iris Carter in the tournament's opening match...

And it was YOU who took out Wagner with a first-round bludgeoning in the tournament's fourth fight, wasn't it, Dan?

Yeah... That was a fun fight! Quick, but fun.

Both women took no chances in their preparation for this fight, with Falk getting a lot of sparring in with top European contender and French National Champion Elodie Rousseau!

And Wagner got in a lot of rounds with former Heavyweight Champion Mariana Bautista, a good mimic of Falk's longer reach, but with twice the power!

It looks like that training paid off, because both women looked to be in prime condition at yesterday's weigh-in event!

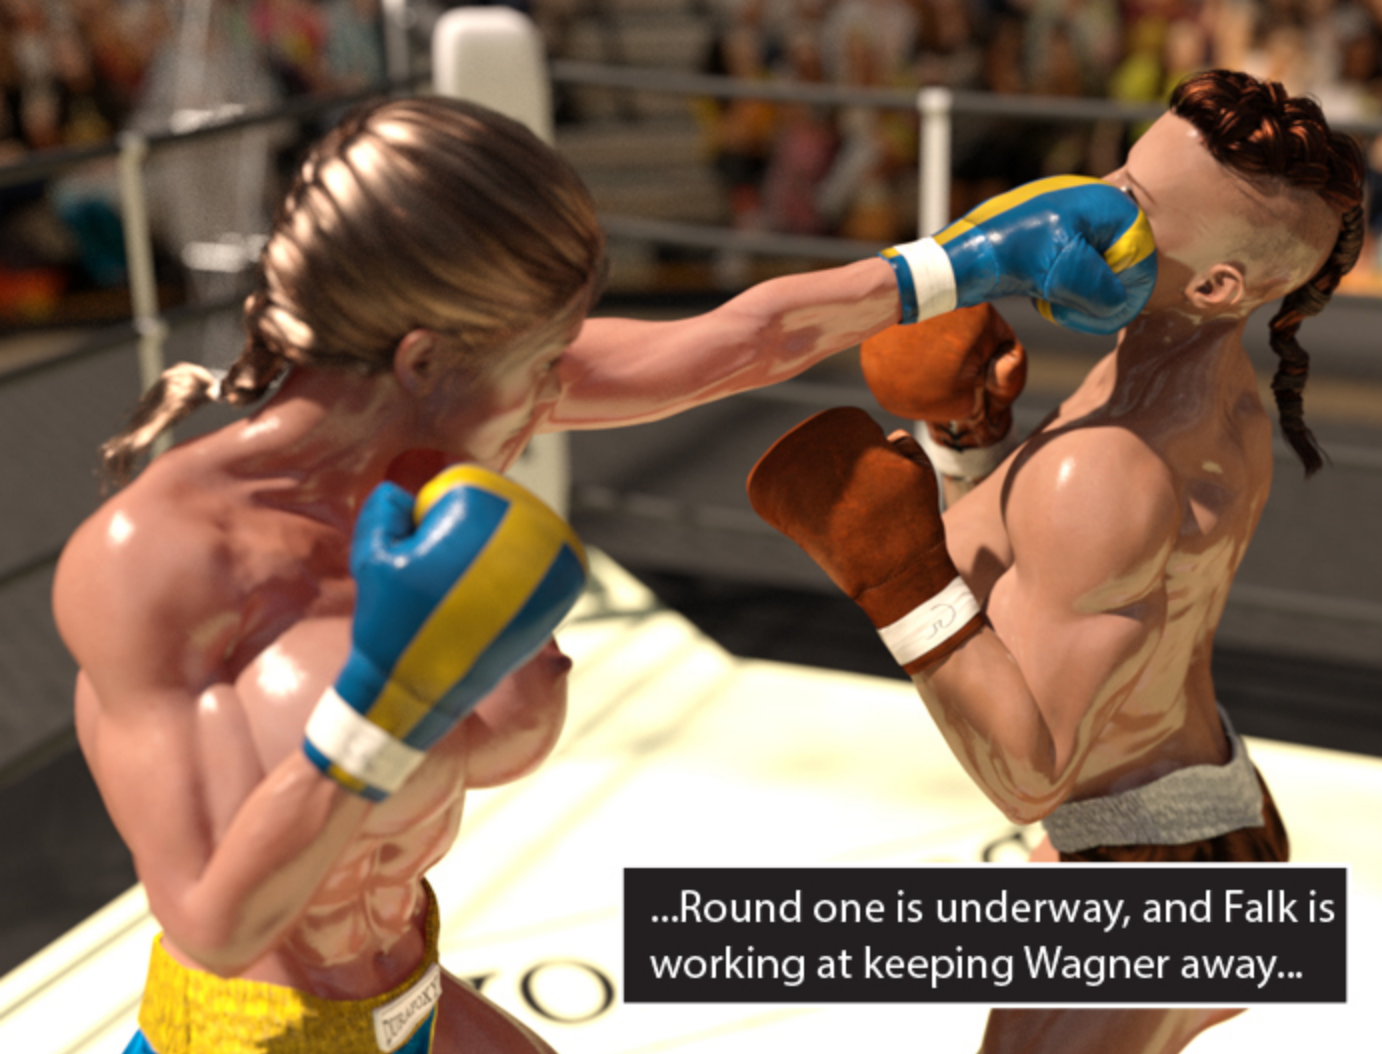

Afterward, Wagner was getting right up into Falk's grill, trying to psych her out before today's fireworks...

...And she's doing it again in the center of the ring before the bell for round one!

Falk's not budging an inch, though! She's just standing there, daring Wagner to make a move! Cold as ice!

...Round one is underway, and Falk is working at keeping Wagner away...

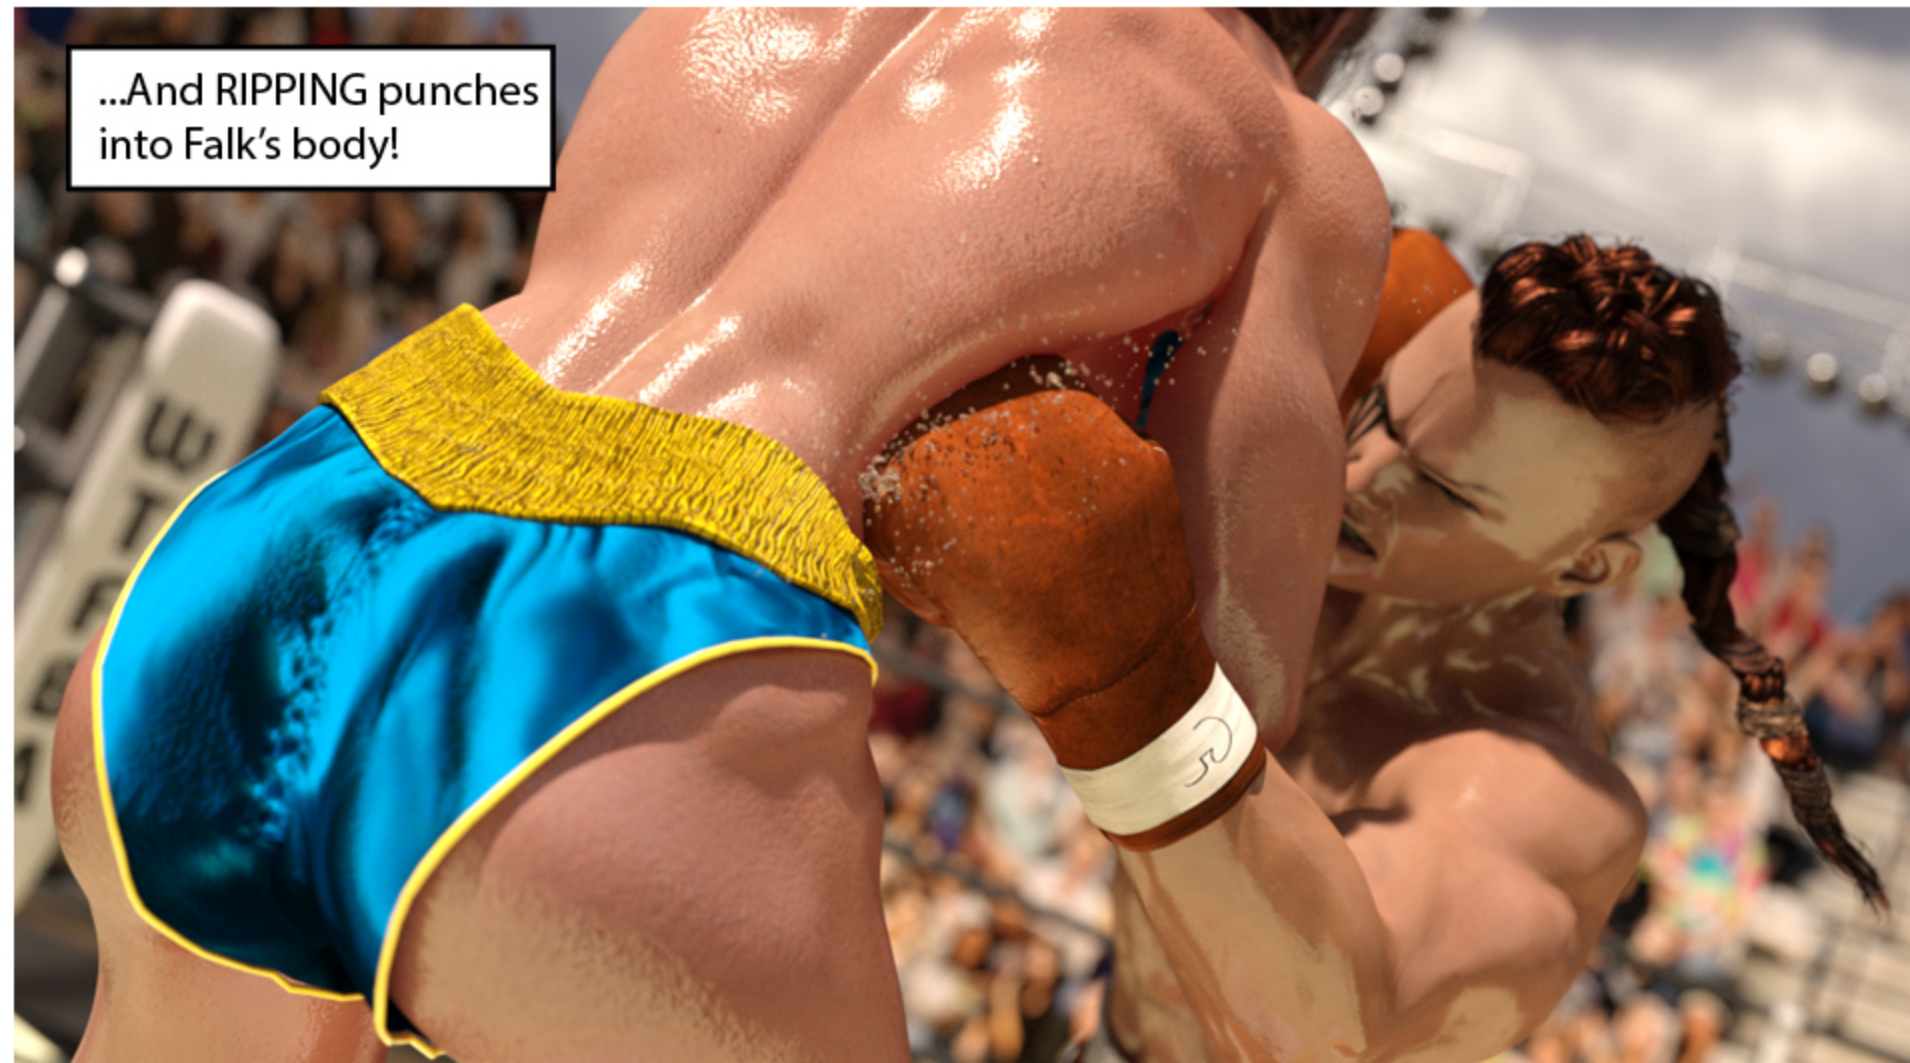

...Popping her head back with jabs--

--Then driving in the right hand!

Wagner is relentless, though, and finally starts working her way inside...

...And RIPPING punches into Falk's body!

...Halfway through round three, and Wagner is showing some craftiness in there, pulling on Falk's guard with her right...

...Then SLAMMING a left into the gap!

Another hook lands! Falk is faltering!

Lena's showing some craftiness of her own, tying Wagner up with a headlock--

--Then stabbing her left hand into ribs and kidney!

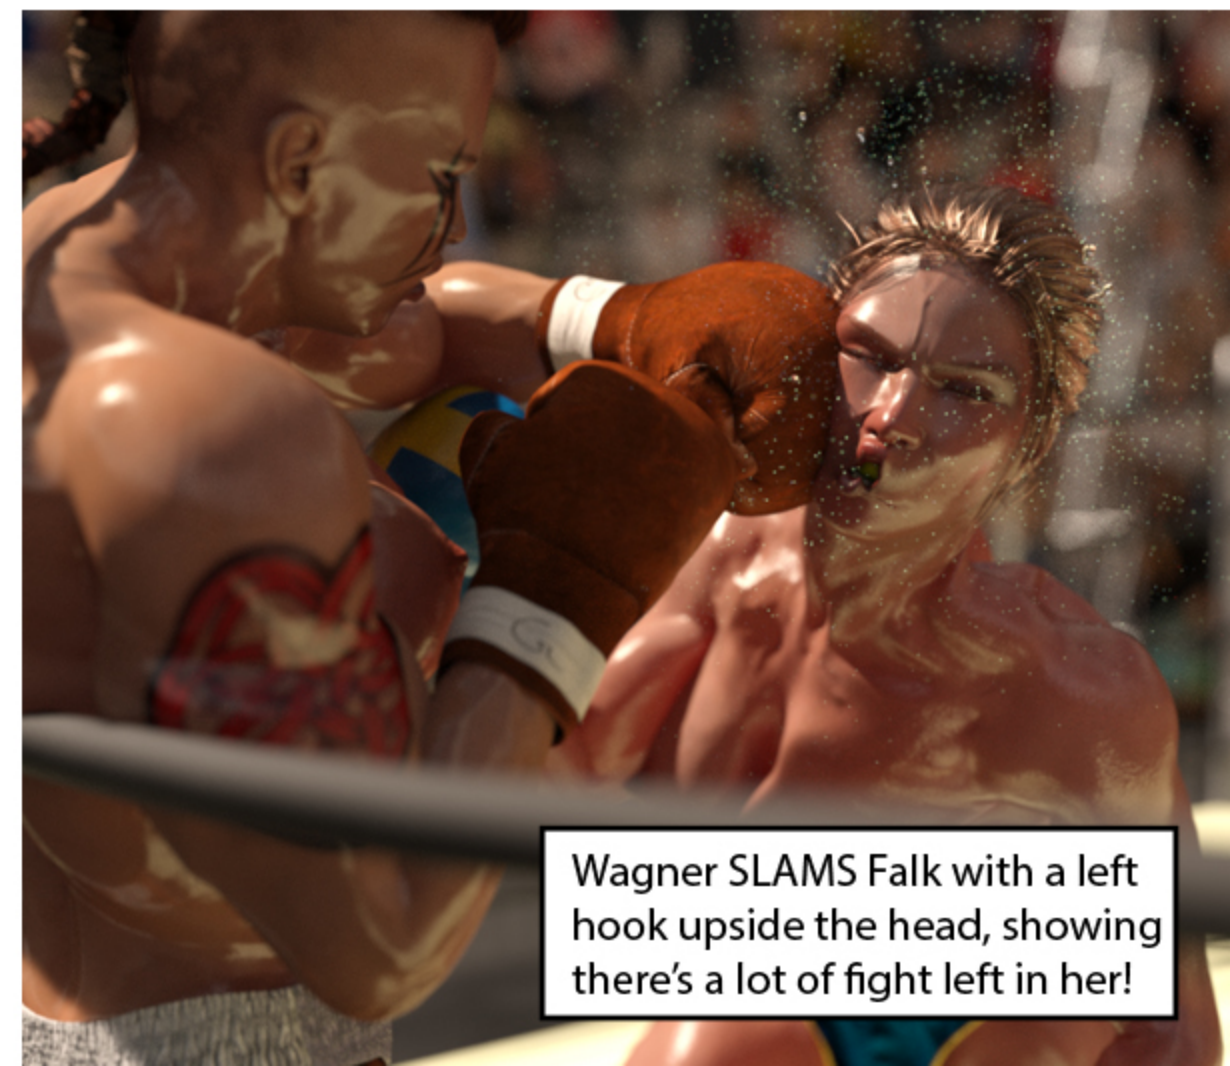

...Falk starts round five launching a rocket of a right hand to Brigid's jaw!

Falk using her jab to keep Wagner's guard high...

...Before she moves downstairs and starts BLITZING Brigid's breasts and belly!

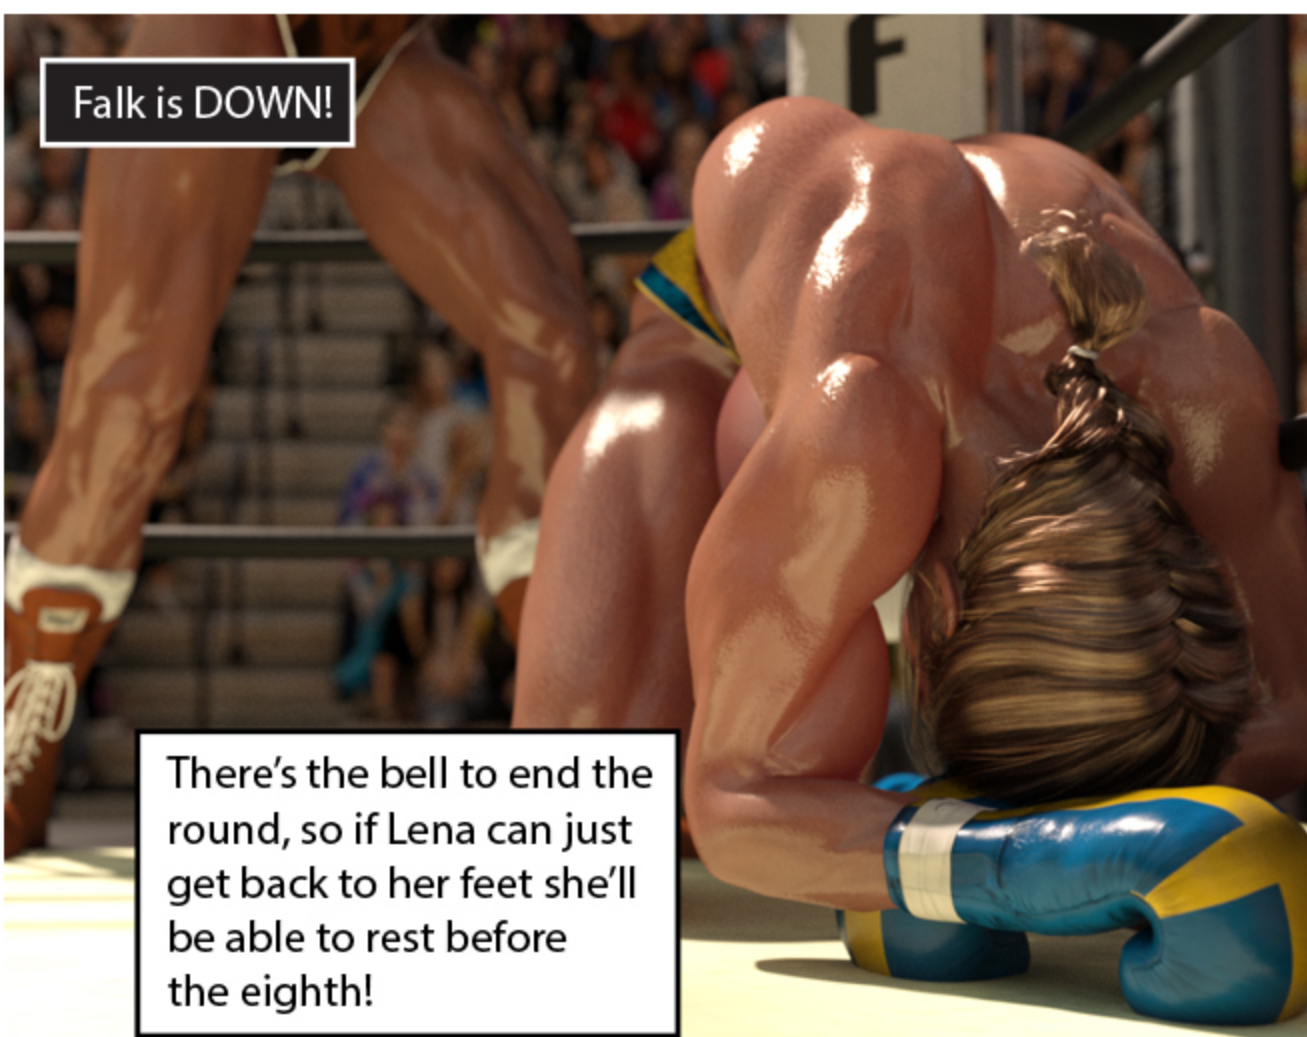

Wagner SLAMS Falk with a left hook upside the head, showing there's a lot of fight left in her!

...Round seven is coming to a close, and Falk has been taking a beating for the last three minutes! Wagner is just UNLOADING on her in the corner...

...And BOOM!

Falk is DOWN!

There's the bell to end the round, so if Lena can just get back to her feet she'll be able to rest before the eighth!

And Falk does get back to her feet, but she looks to be on shaky legs. It'll be interesting to see how much she recovers before round eight!

Here we go with round eight! Falk still seems hurt, but she's catching an eager Wagner with POUNDING jabs as she rushes in trying to finish Falk off!

She's using Wagner's eagerness against her, Al! Making her miss--

--Then making her PAY!

Wagner's defense has evaporated, and now Falk is starting to do some damage!

Falk is making a HUGE comeback after that disaster in the seventh round!

...The bell's about to ring for round 10, and it looks like these women have been in a war, not a boxing match...

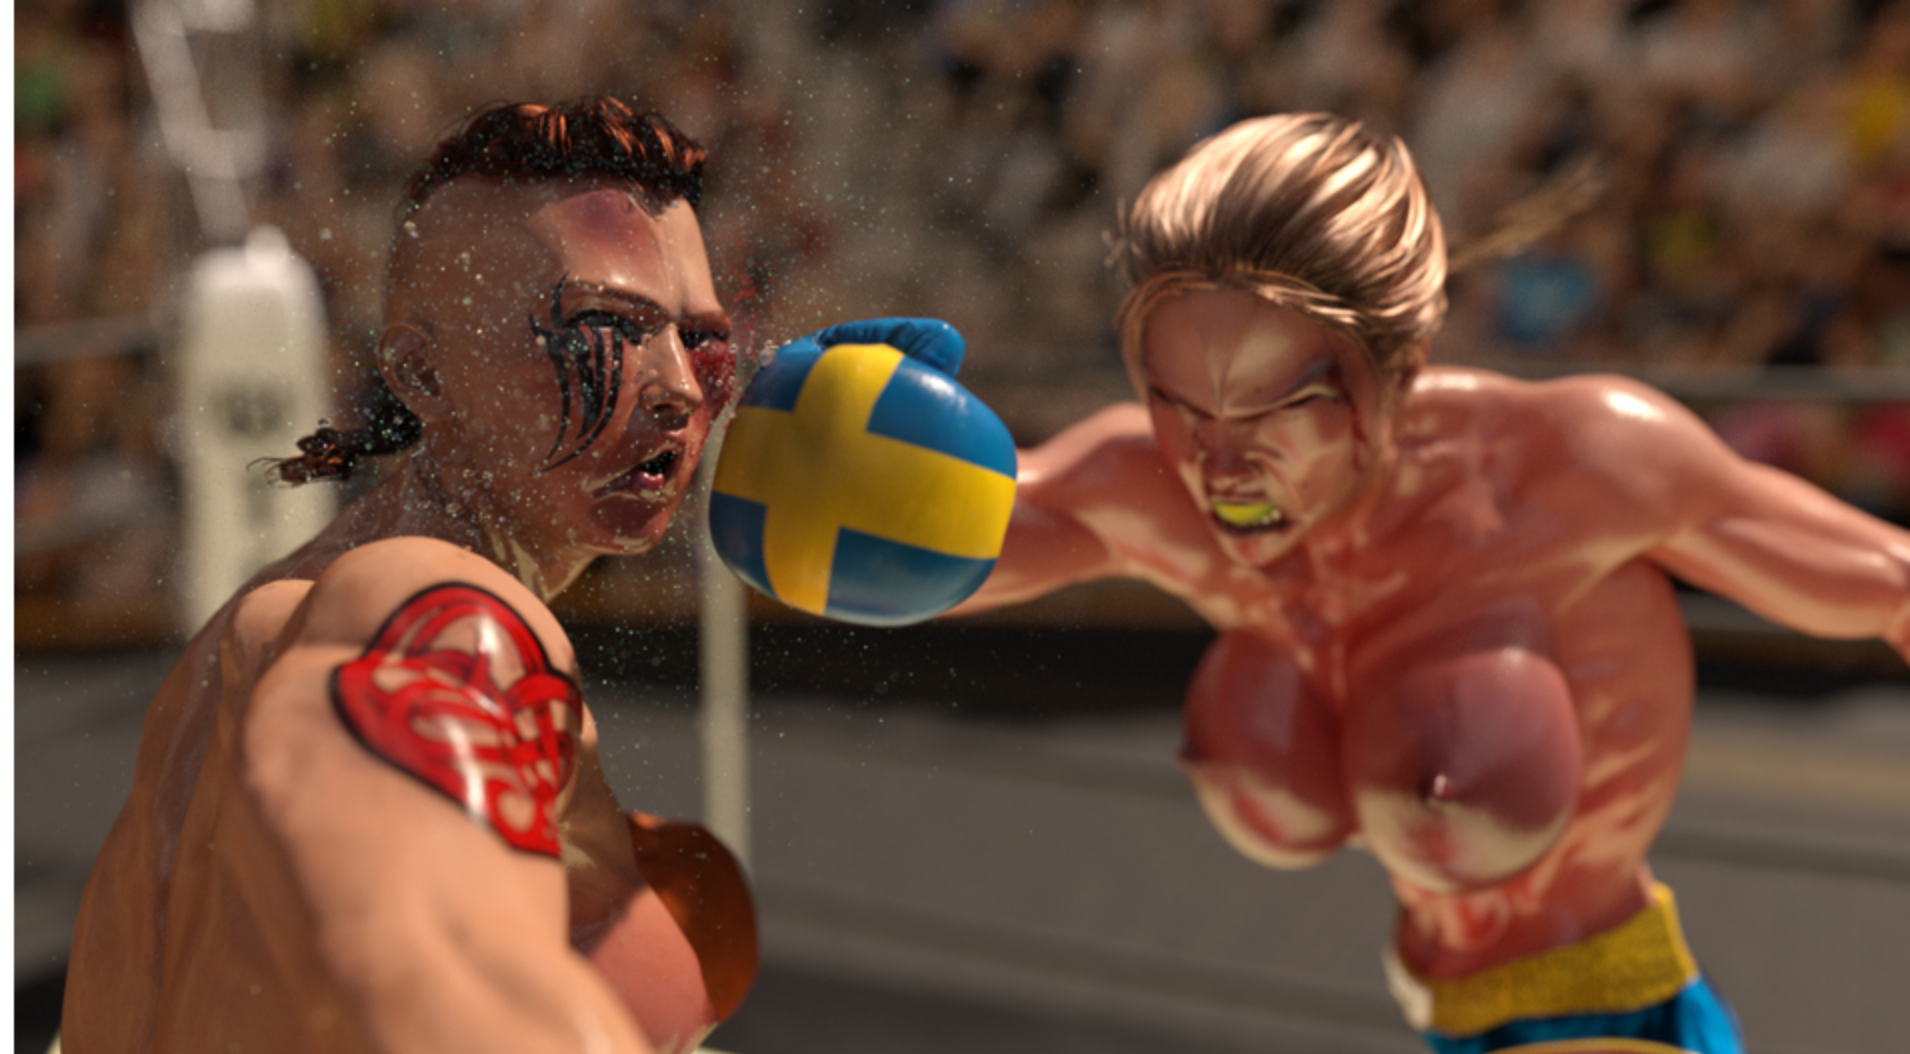

Both these girls are exhausted, Al!

They shuffle out to the center of the ring to do battle once again...

...And they just start trading right hands with no thoughts of defense!

It's just a question of who wants it more, now!

Falk's got the upper hand now, and she's driving Wagner to the ropes with lefts and rights!

She's got Wagner right where she wants her, Al!

That's right, Dan! Falk's lined her up, and--

--OH WHAT A PUNCH!

WAGNER IS DOWN!!! And she is NOT getting back up!

It looks like Lena Falk is walking away with a major victory!
