

"Oh, hush my little pet! See, I didn't mean what I just said on the phone! Of course, you will get out of that cage around your dick again, you'll even get to spurt your load if you're a good boy! You know what, if you sit up and beg me for it like the filthy bitch you are, I'll just unlock you right away! Would you like that, daddy? To unload your aching balls on my pantyhose-covered legs, soaking the nylon with that pent-up cum? Yeah? Okay, I think after today, you've earned it! So, here we go, let me just pull out the keys and - Ooops! Oh no! It must have slipped through my fingers. I'm so sorry daddy, but I guess you'll stay all locked up and frustrated in that cage for good! Unless you can get those keys out of the drain, that is. I hope you understand that I don't want to get my hands dirty... Aww, poor daddy, are you crying? That's adorable!"

Crawling on the floor, Richard lowered his upper body as far as you safely could without completely falling over and tried to see where the keys had landed. In thy muddy hole under the drain's lid, he could see them faintly glimmering, reflecting the light of the streetlamps. To further increase his humiliation, Valerie called over some friend of hers. Soon a small group of people had gathered around the sweating pet, laughing at its desperate attempts to somehow fiddle with the lid.

The worst thing for Richard though was Carl coming over. He hated that arrogant prick that always used to hang out at his house when he met with his "daughter". It had always made him furious to hear the two of them fuck in Valerie's room when he was at home, filled with jealousy. Eventually, Richard had thrown Carl out and forbid Valerie to ever see him again. Now that the once powerful man was reduced to a helpless dog, chaste and muzzled, Valerie enjoyed paying him back by jumping on Carl, wrapping her shiny legs tightly around his waist while they started to kiss and make out. Their moaning and giggling in his ears, Richard had to stare in horror as the keys slowly sank into their muddy grave.
