CherryPop Reads: On-growing Roommate 2 - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

Your roommate Alex had been experiencing ridiculous growth spurts for a few days now, to the point where she can no longer stand inside the house, and her tits were also beyond enormous. No clothes fit her and you're having to run errands if she needs something, but otherwise life is fairly typical. It takes effort to ignore her massive naked body lounging around to make progress on work, but you make some progress from time to time. Just as you're getting into it however, her latest growth spurt arrives.

[Alex]

m Oh man, here I go again! m this is never gonna get old! m

[Narrator]

Another now familiar growth spurt hit her as she began to moan yet again. As you watched, her vast body swelled taller, her gigantic breasts swelled bigger, and her butt also appeared to be swelling out. Her breasts were already ridiculously big, beyond the cup scale, and their expansion did seem to be slower in comparison to some of her earlier spurts, they weren't quite done yet. Her butt however was padding out with a vengeance, and her hips gradually widened to begin to define an hourglass figure on her enormous body. All the while her height was swelling longer and longer. She was laying on the sofa, but it was more like over the sofa as both her head and feet extended far over the ends of it. Again, after about a minute of moaning and swelling, her growth petered out.

[Alex]

Whew, that one was good! Nice to see my butt getting some action too, guess my body is starting to realise these stupid huge tits need a counterweight. Anyway, now I just gotta wait till the next one.

[Narrator]

You and her both knew that these growth spurts were speeding up. Before she was getting one a day, but it had since evolved into one spurt every few hours. Following this same pattern, about an hour and a half later, she began to feel the sensation return.

[Alex]

m Oh, guess it's time! m Time to get bigger, that is! m

[Narrator]

Alex's body began to swell bigger once more. Her huge breasts were only growing in proportion to her height, but her butt on the other hand began to swell and bulge massively. Alex eyed it with joy as her height continued to grow and extend. How tall even was she now? Three times your height? Four? She was beginning to take up a whole end of the flat, from one wall to the other while lying down. Her breasts of course poured out into more of the flat, and her swelling butt was taking up more and more room as well. Once again, her growth spurt soon ended, but you both knew this wouldn't last much longer.

[Alex]

Whew, I don't think this place is gonna last many more of my growth spurts. Be sure you get out of here before I bring the place down, okay? My, you are looking pretty tiny now, ahaha~ Annoying it's getting so cramped in here though. But, with my growth spurts getting faster and faster, I doubt we'll be waiting much longer.

[Narrator]

Once again, of course, she was right. Her next growth spurt came only 50 minutes later.

[Alex]

m Wow, guess I couldn't even wait a full hour m this time! And wow m this one is gonna be big~ m

[Narrator]

Alex's body began to surge larger, and she began to bend as she became taller than the flat was wide. Her breasts and knees started to grow out towards you into the remainder of the flat, her butt still swelling up massively somewhere behind her, pushing the rest of her forward. Her huge face was grinning down at you in the ecstasy of growth as it always was, as Alex began to truly take up most of the room in the flat. More of the space in the room was taken up with each and every growth spurt that passed through her. You had to get up from the table as her breasts plowed into it and walk towards the opposing wall though even there it wasn't safe as the advance of her swelling flesh continued. As the space within the room keeps shrinking, you walk over to the door and open it wide, hearing Alex's swelling body begin to smash the table behind you.

[Alex]

m Yep, you'd better get out of here! m across the street if you can! m this is gonna be big!

[Narrator]

You fled out the door, hearing Alex's moans fading away behind you. When you'd crossed the street, you turned back to look, but the house was still standing. At least, for another couple of seconds.

[Alex]

big moan

[Narrator]

The flat collapsed as the gigantic form of your roommate's growth spurt came to an end. You could see the walls crumbling in the giant dust cloud that formed. Alex's body too was concealed within it, until you saw her head rising up out of it, followed by her shoulders and then the rest of her as she stood for the first time in several hours to her full enormous height.

[Alex]

big stretch Whew! That was awesome!! Glad to see you got to a safe distance buddy.

[Narrator]

With a huge thump, Alex's foot landed midway into the road, cracking the concrete around where it did, and she kneeled down to bring her giant face closer to your own tiny body.

[Alex]

Wow, you really did get adorable. Though, if you aren't busy, I think I might keep you around some more. It's nice to have a little helper by my side for the problems a big girl like me can't solve, like going into shops and stuff. That sound like fun to you?

[Narrator]

You nod, unsure what to say, and she lowers her palm down onto the road.

[Alex]

Step on~ Don't worry, I'll be super gentle.

[Narrator]

Carefully, you step up onto her palm, now about the length and width of a desk, and she lifts you up and up into the sky as she stands once again.

[Alex]

Hmm, now where to put you?... Oh! I know~

[Narrator]

Her hand begins to move closer and closer to her ridiculous tits, each now comparable to a small car, and you're swiftly dropped in between them. The flesh up against you is warm and smooth, and certainly a strange feeling, but not one you couldn't get used to.

[Alex]

Awww, now that's just about the most red I've seen your face all day. So, I guess we've still got some time until my next growth. Shall we go for a walk?

[Narrator]

Before waiting for your response, you can hear her epic footsteps thumping along the ground beneath as she begins to wander down the road.

[Alex]

I'm thinking we get out of the city. Not that I can do much about everyone and their dog seeing my massive body, which is looking pretty epic. My butt is catching up well btw, I don't know if you saw, but I'm balancing out. Anyway, I was thinking we should find somewhere a bit more quiet before I get tall enough to be seen above literally all of these skyscrapers.

[Narrator]

And so, for a while, you wondered, the housing getting smaller and more spread out as Alex emerged from the city. Seeing the world from between her massive tits was incredible, and gave you a taste of how tiny everything was to her. It was literally like walking around through a model village, everything appeared to be almost toy-like from her gigantic vantage point. Eventually, she was wandering through fields and winding country roads with occasional villages dotted around, at last pausing within a small area of woodland. The trees around did appear to be a little bit taller than her, which granted some temporary shelter.

[Alex]

Ahh, this is nice. How long were we walking? Even with legs this long, I'm kinda surprised I made it here before- m Oop, spoke too soon! m I guess it's time to get even bigger again! m

[Alex]

[Narrator]

Almost immediately, Alex's head rose up and out over the treetop canopy of the woodland. You could feel her breasts around you swelling and pushing up against you as the flesh moved and spread out. The feeling was peculiar to say the least, but Alex seemed to be enjoying it as always. After another couple of moments, you too were lifted about the canopy and could once again see far out into the distance. As her swelling continued, the trees began to fall away before her ridiculous breasts. Unfortunately, you couldn't see her butt from between her tits, but you could only imagine it still swelling outwards bigger and bigger as her tits had done.

Everything about Alex was ridiculous, and you couldn't deny that you liked that about her. At last, when the trees were down below her breasts, perhaps level with her belly button, this latest growth spurt stopped.

[Alex]

Well, it looks like I'm gonna have to give in. There's no hiding this incredible body from the world anymore, and as I'm gonna to keep growing like this, it'll just get harder and harder to hide my enormous body. Still, I'm sure we won't have too long to wait. My next growth will arrive very soon, I just know it. Ahaha~
