Hilichurl ownership

“Hey, Paimon! Have you seen Aether?” Amber asked the little fairy as she hovered around the camp.

“Nope! He said he had to take care of something in the woods. Don’t know when he’ll be back.”

However, just behind a tree a not too far from them, but far enough not to hear anything.

“S-Slow down-Haa!” Aether is on his shoulders, his legs up in the air being, is having a Hilichurl ram his bright red cock down in his ample rear.

The young man’s own cock, large and healthy, is stiff as steel as it bounced and slapped against his stomach as he tried to hold back disgraceful moans. Precum from his cock head clung to his stomach and flicked on his face as he is forced to look up at the monster’s hairy testicles slap down on the ring of his asshole. The beast plowing into her like an animal. Treating him like some rutting bitch needing to be bred and nothing else.

“Haa~! Oohh!” The monster cock, knot and all, made a small lump in the blonde’s slim stomach as it rampaged in his ass. Each thrust making his betraying member stiffer and stiffer as he tried to suppress the sweet girly moans that escaped him.

The Hilichurl had gotten the jump on the young adventure and bested him in a fight. However, instead of killing him or merely walking away, the monster took out his cock and claimed the young man. Bending him over and fucking him. Ruthlessly, without an ounce of care, the monster made the young man his bitch. Figuratively and literally.

“Ha! N-No I am ngh~!” The girlish young man’s cock spewed a dizzying long rope of cum on his face as his eyes rolled in the back of his head. The first thick gooey string hitting his face while the rest drizzled on his clothes

The monster came whenever and wherever to ram his cock up Aether’s rear or down his mouth. It truly made the young traveler his fuck toy as the young man seemed to never not have the monster’s cum in or on him. Aether was lucky enough to somehow convince the beast not to take him in front of others. Though that only seemed to make the attacks more frequent.

A rule unknown to the adventurer that does not understand the Hilichurl language is that if you best a female in combat, they are yours to take as your bride or to be a blunt fuck toy. It is clear this Hilichurl is using Aether as the latter. Granted at first it really did think the young man was a female.

Aether's soft facial features. Small height lovely long blonde hair, and surprisingly ample shapely rear, would have fooled any man. But once the monster stuck his hearty cock in the traveler's rear, he could not have cared less. Aether's tight constricting ass is heavenly to lay into without remorse. And no matter how hard the monster pounded into him, Aether's asshole would be as snug as a viper.

Though as much as the young man tried to fight back.

"Haa~!" The pleasure is just too great. His cock beat like a drum against his stomach. The most aroused it's ever been, it seemed not to matter how many times the monster made him cum like a trashy whore, his member would stay as hard enough to break stone. And his climaxes somehow keep feeling better and better with each one.

The current one, coating his chest and face, is thicker than the last. Even more, than the monster's near paste like ejaculate, Aether's orgasms from the monster remaining his ass could have gotten any woman pregnant five times over. However

The Hilichurl gave one last deep hard thrusts and popped his swelling knot inside Aether's vacuuming asshole. Luckily the young man wasn't any more emasculated as he didn't climax against form the monster's knot crashing into him.

"Haaa~!" He came from the force of the monster's discharge punching into his prostate. Unlike Aether's the hung demon's climaxes did not come in ropey discharge. It felt like another cock had slammed into his prostate. Forcing his cock to climax twice as his cock shot a single long gooey thick string of semen over his face once more. Coating his visage and filling his throat. forcing him to wallow his own seed while the monster treated him like a breeding bitch.

The only solace Aether can take is that the monster does climax as long as he does. Granted that still is a full minute of being locked together with the beast as his cock pleased. Making it feel like the whole earth moved under Aether as a heavy powerful burst of pungent spunk crashed into his abused ass. When it was finally full, bubbles and small strings of cum leaked out of his fuck hole.

Finally, the monster pulled his flaccid member out of him after hours of filling Aether's stomach with his seed. Leaving Aether's stiff cum cover body to rest on the ground as the monster left him. Not bothering to check if his cum rag was even sane anymore. And to Aether's shame, his cock twitched in betrayal as it begged for more. However, the young man is more concerned at how he will explain how he is walking with a slight limp to Paimon.

The alleyways in Mondstadt are thankfully clean. Which is good for the young blonde whose face is being pushed up against the cool wood of someone's house as the Hilichurl behind him roughly pumped it's fingers in his ass.

"W-Wait! Someone could-ah!?" Aether had tried to stay in town for a few days. Hoping the monster would get bored and leave him be.

"Ah!?" But that seemed to anger it as it tracked him down and cornered him in the alleyway. Roughly thrusting three of his large fingers in his asshole as it pulled back on his hair. The monster's fingering making his cock cum a little. A single thick rope of cum drizzled the wall as his cock bounced freely

With his hand keeping a tight grip on his hair, the monster pulled his meaty fingers out. Aether's asshole gaped a little as spit hung in thin threads. Connecting the monster's fingers to his gaping rear as the young man breathed heavily.

However, the monster's anger is not going to be quelled by a simple fingering. Pulling back on Aether's braid, the beast slammed his cock hard and deep into the young man's asshole. Making the traveler's head snap back in a gurgled moan and his cock bounces up in delight. At the same time, the Hilichurl delivered a hard slap on Aether's full, round ass. Leaving a deep red handprint on the effeminate boy's rear and getting his cock to give out a glorious climax.

As the monster roughly slammed his hips into him in anger, his hand come down hard and fast with quick slaps, Aether's cock once again showed its true colors. The monster actually slapping orgasms out of him as each time his hand landed on Aether's cheeks, his cock shot another gooey ropey discharge of cum against the wall of someone's house.

"Ngh~! It's too-haa~! Much~!" It did not help he was moaning openly, in broad daylight, like a hungry cock craved whore. Loud enough that he is sure someone could hear them. He wasn't even thinking about fighting back out even trying to hold back any pleasure. His mind too clouded by the feeling of his asshole being stretched. His prostate is endlessly being slammed into as his left ass cheek is a tanned red. He rocked on the tips of his toes as he mindless drooled on the wood of the budling. Though it is mostly the monster holding him up by his hair as he could barely feel his legs.

"Ohh~!" And now the monster had switched to the next cheek.

The Hilichurl took his frustration out on Aether with a permanent hard tug on his braid. Snarling at his bitch for trying to hide from him, it didn't let up even as Aether's cock for once started to let out less of his seed with each gush of cum flowing from the tip. The sun was starting to go down as Aether had his twentieth climax.

With one single hard slap that left the monster's hand to linger on Aether's plush ass, the Hilichurl gave a short howl as it hit his own climax finally. Filling the young man up with his seed until he pulled out his cock from the young boy's asshole. Getting a yelp of pleasure from him as he slumped against the wall. Utterly drained as his lust driven body shivered and jerked. Cum spilled out of his gaping asshole as he gave weak sighs of life.

The monster was not done yet as his prick stood defiantly hard. Snatching him by his braid again, the Hilichurl shoved Aether's face against his odious ball sack. Either the monster had become more patient, or he was tired from disciplining his slut, he merely rubbed his long shaft on Aether's face. Spit and cum slathered the young traveler's effeminate face as the hurdle rubbed his weighty cock on his face. Occasionally smacking Aether's face rudely with his member as the young man panted. Forced take in the deep, heavy male musk that made his body shiver. The demon's hairy sack forced itself on Eventually, Aether opened his mouth and started licking the head of the cock. Submitting to the beasts as he started to swallow more of the member. The taste of his own ass and the monster's lust on his tongue is heavy and forces a moan out of him as he moved his lips up and down the cock.

The Hilichurl grunted as it started thrusting his hips into Aether's face. Still taking its frustration out on Aether, it grabbed his braid and slammed his hips into the young man's face. His cock bashing the back of the blonde's throat. Making Aether's gasps and sputter as his face is repeatedly buried in the monsters' musky pubic hair.

The Hilichurl pumped his cock down his fuck toy's throat and held down his face. His knot popping past his lips. Locking Aether's mouth down as his cock fired off a healthy load of jizz down the fuck boy's mouth. The first thrust erupted out of his seal lips and gushed out of his nose as it was too much for Aether to handle. Forcing him to swallow faster for the rest of the blast of gooey spunk that roared out of the dark red prick humming in his neck.

Aether's cock gave a hard jerk as it came along with him suffocating on the shaft. Locking him as the Hilichurl's submissive cock holster as his cock spray more of a load than the Hilichurl. A soup thick white discharge firing in the air as he is forced to swallow the virile monster cum. Until the monster ripped his knot from the blonde's mouth and showered his face with, the rest of his cum. It slapped his face hard and dangled from his cheeks while he panted for air.

With his cock satisfied the monster left him there as a warning to never try and hid from him. Covered in cum in the mild of a dark alley.

“So, embarrassing...” Aether shifted in the black baby doll lingerie as he stood in the hotel room. The black lacey short dress stopped just above his belly button and did not do anything to cover his erect nipples. The black thong cradling his modest cock did not hide his throbbing hard on poking just out of it and staining the cloth while the sting dug into his ass. The choker around his neck is just as stylized as the rest of his clothes.

With a red face, Aether turned to the reason why he is wearing such a risqué dress. The monster that has been bending him over every day for the past month is sitting on the bed of the inn. His bright red cock standing tall and throbbing between his legs as it waited for him. Finally, fully submitting to the monster.

Aether, his face blistering red, turned to his new master and kneeled down to met the monster's shaft, bigger than his own, beating in his face. The bright red monstrous member bounced eagerly occasionally tapping his face as the twisting vein that traveled along the length to the base of his knot twitched and jumped. Leaking profusely thick droplets of pre-cum from the tapered tip.

Aether gingerly took the cock in his hand, shivering at the heat that radiated from it. This time without the aid of the Hilichurl to force him down, he slowly started to take the cock in his mouth. His tongue circling around the tapered head of the shaft before he steadily lowered his head down the long member.

Sloppily, Aether bounced his head up and down the monster's knotted prick. Showing off both his skill and what a month of being forced to gag on the prick has taught him. He is even being able to swallow the fat knot at the base of the cock. Popping it out of his mouth and dragging his tongue along the whole shaft before taking it back in his mouth.

“Hmm~♥. Haa~♥...” Aether sucked like the trained whore he has become. Jerking what he could not fully fit in his mouth with his while his lips slathered the member in a greedy kiss. His other hand is not ideal, however. It held his own stiff member in his hand. Pumping it in time with him lavishing over the heavy prick in his mouth. Moaning as his prick twitched in his hands as he could feel his own body grow with lust.

The Hilichurl hummed in delight at his sex toy's work. Laying a hand on Aether's head, guiding him to suck faster as the monster could feel his orgasm quickening. Along with Aether as he popped the shaft out of his mouth. His hands blurring as he pumped the monster's cock up and down. His mouth open, panting eagerly as his tongue hanging out his mouth. Looking up with utter desire in his eyes, he pumped his own cock even faster as the monster's jizz erupted and sprayed his face.

"Mmmph~♥!" His mouth immediately became filled with the gooey white discharge while her face is coated in the sticky climax. His face got the same treatment as long honey thick ropes of cum slapped on his face. It dangled off his cheek as he pumped more of the monster's cock. Aether licked the threads of semen off his mouth, yet before he could his own climax the monster pulled him up onto the bed and in his lap. Its cock throbbed between Aether's rear while the young traveler's own prick bounced eagerly in delight.

The Hilichurl raised Aether up and dropped him on his cock. The knot and all filled his asshole in one thrust with the beefy cock making a large lump in his flat belly, hitting his prostate like a battering ram.

"Oohhh~♥♥! I am cumming~♥!!" And like that Aether's cock fired a long thick blast of cum from his orgasm. The monster bounced the girly boy on his cock with great force. Aether's member flicking and swinging in delight as the hurtle rammed his hips into him. His cock firing a goopy virile of cum in the air. It drizzled on over his body and dance on his drooling tongue. The slutty dick happily bounced and flicked in the air from riding his master's knotted prick.

"Haa~♥! Harder~♥! Fuck me harder~♥!" Aether happily moaned and cried in bliss from the monster's shaft rampaging in his rear. His cock is hard and stiff from the beast's ramming into his ass. His knot popping in and out of the bitch boy's sensitive asshole. Aether bracing his arms on his master's legs as he bounced along in time with the Hilichurl's rough thrusting. His hands switching from Aether's waist to his arms. Pulling him back into his pounding until his knot swelled again and filled Aether's ass with his seed again.

"Ngh M-More~♥!" The monster was done yet as it took a more forceful approach and pushed Aether flat on the bed and slammed down even hard into him. The traveler drooled onto the bed as the Hilichurl rammed his cock into him. His own member is still as stiff and aroused as ever as it gave a small burst of semen squirting from the head.

As the Hilichurl's knot slammed into him, filling his stomach with warm spunk Aether's felt his own cock shudder and shot his load as well. Far more than the Hilichurl his cum coated the bed and his chest in a wasteful spray of white. The monster pumping him full of his climax while Aether moaned under him.

The traveler's moans echoed throughout the night with his new lover. Waking a few of the other people staying at the inn.
