

Of all the girls in Class 1-A, Mina's bubbly in more ways than one. She's not only excitable and peppy, but she can also be pretty tomboyish at times, especially when it comes to burping. With the exception of Momo and Tamaki, Mina's probably one of the most naturally students in the school, and much like those two, it has to do with her quirk. Mina's acid quirk doesn't just allow her skin to secrete acid, but it also radiates throughout her body naturally. Her stomach produces a higher concentration of acids than the average stomach does, which causes her to digest larger amounts of food faster. It's why she burns through food faster than most of her classmates, but it also produces a lot of extra gas as a result. Most assumed it was acid reflux, but it's more a byproduct of Mina's quirk burning up more and stirring gas as a result.

As such, Mina learned really early on that she's really good at burping on cue. Initially, she had to just so her stomach wouldn't hurt from buildup, but because she's so excitable, she made it a skill she's quite proud of. When she was younger, she used to take bets from other kids to see how many times she could burp in a row. Or she'd burp the alphabet to get her friends laughing. Any time another girl would scold her for being gross and unladylike, Mina would very loudly belch the words in response, daintily cover mouth while grinning impishly and asking if that was ladylike enough for them.

Sufficed to say, way more of her friends were boys, growing up.

Even now, she still LOVES to burp. It's incredibly fun and satisfying to her, and any chance she gets, she's all too eager to get into burping contests with whoever dares to challenge her. The first time Kirishima ever accidentally burped around Mina, he got immensely embarrassed...that was, until she chugged down her soda and let out a HUGE burp that easily dwarfed the one Kirishima let out. Of all her friends, Kirishima isn't just the one she gets into burping contests with the most, but he's one of the few who can actually beat her. She's always trying to get other girls to ease up and be less ladylike because she's confident that they'll have tons of fun too.

Soda makes her burp a lot, since the combination of her acid-quirk-fused gas and all that carbonation makes her as burpy as she'll ever be, letting them out one after the other. If she holds them in long enough, the buildup she'll experience will cause her to grow slightly bloated, until Mina clutches her stomach with one hand and forces out the longest belch you've ever heard, which usually ends with her moaning with sweet relief at FINALLY getting that one out and patting her stomach which will deflate as she burps.

Mina's response to a good burp is usually to giggle or lightly pat her busty chest and huff or knock loose a cute little afterburp. If she's around a friend who can let loose too, she'll eagerly coax them into trying to top what she just let out.

When Mina gets stuffed though, that's when she lets loose her BIGGEST belches. Due to how her stomach acids burn things up quicker, if she ate a really heavy meal, it's going to digest much faster and leave her with a smooth, round, and very sloshy beer belly. And with how intense her digestive process is, the sheer volume of gas that she accumulates is immense. When she's that stuffed, Mina will slump back, slap her fat, sloshing belly, and let loose an utterly GIGANTIC belch, one that blasts out of her maw and echoes across the room. And with how soft and jiggy her bloated tum gets due to the liquefied slurry simmering inside of her, if Mina's showing off her belly, it will actually ripple from the sheer force of her massive eructation.

Her S/O will swoon when she's so overstuffed, and her round, gluttoned belly will feel so unbelievably smooth to the touch, and invitingly warm too. They'll lift her shirt up and slowly run their hands all across that big, smooth middle of hers, resting their ear against it and listening to it churn aggressively, and pressing on her big belly as Mina shamelessly throws her head back and lets out one large, throaty belch after another; belly rippling with each forceful eruption she lets out. And no matter how many burps Mina's let out by that point, so long as she's still as bloated as she is, they're going to keep coming since her acids will use the churning meal inside of her to just keep building up more and more gas until she finally burns enough of it off.

Sufficed to say, when it comes to UA's top belchers, Mina's up there with the best of 'em. And she's damn proud of that to boot.
