

“Wait, did he say he was going to beat his meat?” Zeel asks innocently. I think he was confused about the term. Kai looked like he was holding in a laugh and Hopp seemed conflicted on whether to tell him or not.

“It doesn’t matter.” I told Zeel, causing Kai burst out laughing and soon faded out as we moved on to a Serpentine, coiled in the center of the room. She was covered in beautiful red flowers and a bright green scale coat, reminiscent of the floral and fauna of a blooming forest. She had a large midsection and stared at us slowly.

“Do any of you know how to give a rim job?” She asks. I was stunned by the question. I haven’t had a girlfriend long enough to get close to her in bed, so no. I shook my head.

“Like a car thing?” Zeel asks as she looks at him. Hopp shrugged and Kai sighed.

“Why do you ask?” Kai questioned her. She giggled childishly.

“If you can satisfy me, I’ll let you pass.” She said, I then glanced back at her mid section to see several body shapes wobble inside of her. Kai sighs and steps forward. She turns over and shows her vagina and looks to Kai for a response. He bends down to start licking and slobbering over her, not wasting any time. As he did, I heard her make loud gasps and exhales of breath, clearly sourcing from Kai’s furocity. I then looked away from her face and glanced at Kai once I heard him make muffled yells. His snout was stuck inside of her vagina! She sucked in harder and I heard a slimy noise as his head was sucked inside fully. She wraps the remainder of her tail around his arms and waist and starts to push him in. His body was dangling out of her from lower waist down, and she started panting when his entire upper body was inside of her. She then releases his body and uses the end of her tail to shove the rest of him inside. He started struggling but she only opened her mouth and started drooling due to euphoria. His feet were left and they started to have a thick, chunky, milk like liquid flow onto his feet. I saw him cringe at the matter and he tries to kick and struggle in order to shake it off. However she only gasps harder and starts panting and the liquid only spreads farther and in more places. It starts to make a puddle after a while.

“Ahh, one of you... push his feet...in...deeper!” She yelled and then sighed in a relaxed tone. Zeel seemed traumatized and Hopp was looking at me for a response. I cautiously step forward and slowly put my whole hand onto the slimy liquid. I already felt it sticking to my hand and I didn’t even pull it back yet. I start to push him inside of her, but Kai’s reluctance and struggling lead to more gasps and pants to me having to push harder with both hands. She then sucked in harder and my hands went with it with the rest of Kai, who disappeared into the slimy mess and my arms were immediately absorbed inside of her and my now wet face pressed against the sticky, white, tar and scales. She exhaled finally and more slime spewed out and splattered all over me. I was used as a shield for Zeel and Hopp. The slime covered my whole front side and some got inside of my mouth and I tried to pull my hands out of her but they seemed stuck. Kinda like trying to pull out a screw from a dresser without unscrewing it first. Hopp grabbed hold of my back and started tugging wildly.

“Oh I do love it when my prey struggles! Especially when they try to get out of my pussy!” She laughed. Hopp tugged once more until the slime gave way and I flew out and crashed onto her. I quickly got off and started to look at the snake. The white tar covered the place that Kai had entered and a lot of moving bulges started shaking and moving quickly. The snake reacted appropriately and let out a loud;

“Ahhhhhhhhhhhh...” She said in a relaxed tone as bodies struggled inside of her in an attempt at something. Zeel, Hopp, and I were speechless and weren’t sure what to do. We saw what we think is Kai, struggling a lot and moving around inside of her.

“Do you think maybe we should decide who gets vored in the next room while we have time?” Zeel asks in an attempt to tune out Kai’s artwork. Now that I think of it, I wasn’t sure if I was really up for the task anymore. I already explained my reasoning and I feel like that for a good reason.

“I only want to get vored by some sexy beast that’ll keep me inside of them and take care of me. If I’m not aroused, I’m not gonna get digested.” Hopp says. Zeel and I were surprised. We both shrugged it off, however.

“I just wanna make it to the 5th room.” Zeel says. If there are only 7 rooms in total, he must be asking for a lot. They then turn to me. I realized that I didn’t have actual reasoning besides fear for not doing it. Other than that, I have no reason. I put my head down.

“Ok.... I’ll be next.” I said in a gloomy tone. The snake screamed in an orgasmic way and we all looked at what was happening. We saw Kai’s hand burst out of the vagina and start to pull himself out. In his hand held the key to the door to move on. He then started to pull out his head, which was barely visible due to the endless amount of white tar that was dripping out of the vagina around him, still having him half consumed and practically drowning him. He then tugs his shoulders out but he quickly recedes back into her reluctantly. She was pulling him back inside! He kept sliding back and forth continuously because of the snake's lust. Even the bodies inside of her were rumbling wildly. Looking back at Kai, We wanted to help but that’d be against the rules. We’d all be disqualified and forced to be vored by the person we cheated on. I do NOT want to be in Kai’s slimy, sticky, and wet shoes. He tried once again with a mighty pull and it broke the snake's focus, she then started spraying everywhere and was panting wildly with a visible orgasm. I think she was more than satisfied now. Kai was now half way through and pulled the rest of his body out, slowly. He struggled to stand up but I quickly ran over to help him up. He lifted the key above his head proudly and we all sorta cheered for him? His smile then faded as he looked at me.

“Were you the one who pushed me in?” He asks. I nod my head slowly, unsure of why he asks. He then pulls my face closer and wrapped his arms around me and pressed my head against his shirt. It was freakishly warm and as you could have guessed, sticky. As I was being held against him, I felt what his chest felt like. I realized then that he had some awfully hard abs with pecs protruding from his shoulders, cushioning my implant comfortably. I started to enjoy the hug and pressed my face against the wet but manly torso of his.

“Now do you know what it was like there?” He asks, I then realize that he wasn’t hugging as an act of love, but rather an attempt to drown me in semen and warmth, to cramp me. “The rest of the guys in there were just jacking off to be inside of a vagina! And didn’t even try to escape! Is that like a contagious thing here?” He asks. He had an angry tone when he said it. He then stopped holding me and I pulled myself off of his shirt, despite how sticky it was , which made it hard, and how hard because of how hot and sexy he was. We moved onto the next stage through the door, the serpent being much too distracted to guide us through like the Noivern from before. As we walked through the door, we came to a thin shore along the door, the rest of the room was covered by a deep pool of blue water. I couldn’t see through it. We looked around for our vorer, but we couldn’t see them.
