

Walkthrough / Guidelines for SnowStorm v0.3.0

— Intro —

In the early game, while you are being captured, you need to build your first affinity point with either Astrja, Nox or Candrid to obtain an opportunity for a way out of the cage. The option you choose will decide which clan you are joining for starters:

- Waiting for Astrja to convince her father, will make you join the White Wolves
- Escaping with Candrid will make you join the Bloody Bears
- Providing intel to Nox will make you join the Dark Ravens

— Daily Quests —

After a first week of discovery of your environment and clan, you will enter a new phase where you can choose which mission/quest you want to do for the day. It will be the opportunity to know better the other girls from SnowStorm, even those outside of your clan.

The daily quests are usually available from Monday to Friday and will feature one or two girls most of the time, while the main story will usually advance during weekends and involve the whole clan or the whole village.

Astrja, Nox, and Candrid are exclusively linked to their clan. You won't be able to romance them together for obvious story purpose. The relationship with all the other girls can increase regardless of the clan, it's always a bit easier when you are from the same clan, but it's not mandatory.

— Gameplay/Tags —

Is this game a Sandbox or an RPG? No. It's definitely a VN with some freedom at times and slight RPG stats but there is no grind, and no complicated maps. That said, you might have to think about your actions, their order, the girls you choose to romance, in order to get all the available content. But the main content is pretty linear and logic. At a few rare occasions, an "Important Choice" screen will notify when an option can change completely the course of the story.

Does this game have NTR? No. There is no plan for such content in this game.

Is this game a Harem? It is not the purpose of the game and story. That said, you can romance multiple girls and one of the clans seems to be a bit more into that logic. So, it has haremish parts.

Is there vanilla/romance/lust/domination/corruption? Yes. All that. Depends on the clan and the girls. The relationships can vary from very vanilla to very rough from one girl to another. They are all different but you will realize quite soon the type of girls that are for you. The MC's behavior will mainly depend on his clan but he might have to adapt at times if he wants to develop certain relationships to the limit. But there are things you'd better hide from the others...

— Affinity Mechanics —

To get +1 affinity with a girl, you usually need to choose 3 suitable options during a specific quest or part of the story. In general, you have 4 or 5 opportunities to score, so you can have a few misses.

Getting +1 affinity will unlock a new quest with that girl and/or a deeper relationship (doesn't mean always love, there are different kind). If you fail to get the affinity point during a daily quest, you will have the possibility to replay it during another day. Next level won't be unlocked until you get it.

With the main girls of the story (Astrja, Nox, Candrid), it is advised to maximize your affinity with them to get the best experience. Unless you go for a specific challenge that you will discover when the time is right.

In the following pages, you will find the specific walkthroughs to get those affinity points, in case you struggle for some of them.

— Stats Mechanics —

Your MC will get some coins and some stats during the story. (STRENGTH, DEXTERITY, INTELLIGENCE)

You will earn them thanks to certain actions or choices you make during the playthrough. Some clans and some girls are more favorable to the increase of certain stats.

These stats will allow you to perform a different action that can be cooler, hotter...or not. They are not required to advance on the main story as you will always have a stat-less choice. But it usually helps and brings a few sides bonus, so it's good to get them if you want to have the best experience.

Where can I get them?

1/ From your clan choice:

WW : + 1 STR / +1 INT

BB : +1 STR / + 1 DEX

DR : +1 INT / + 1 DEX

2/ From the daily quest or main story (in the order of the affinity points)

Astrid: +1 INT/ Nothing / +1 INT

Astrja: Nothing/ +1 DEX

Mathilda: +1 DEX / +1 STR

Nox: Nothing/ +1 INT / +1 INT

Lizgard: Nothing/ +1 STR

Katja: +1 DEX

Candrid: Nothing/ +1 STR

Sonja: +1 STR / + 1 STR

Yrsa: Nothing/ +1 INT / +1 INT or STR or DEX

3/ When fighting the outcasts:

WW : +1 STR or DEX

BB : +1 DEX

DR : +1 DEX
