

The Maid of Black and the Butler

Duke and the Black Maid

By Azure/For Revan196

Chapter One- What he doesn't know Won't Kill (Rob the Butler x Alice the Maid)

Sneaking around the garden area of the estate, Alice; the Duke's lovelorn maid, walked gracefully over to the back of the unused greenhouse alone. She had her usual dark Gothic dress with naked shoulders exposed and a fair hint of stocking-clad leg peeking through the slit of her skirt. The ever stoic expression remained on her face with her light blue eyes staring ahead of her and her lovely blonde hair down around her back like always. She truly was an angel in the eyes of the Duke, one he had hoped to catch the heart of were it not for the advances of one very sly butler.

Stepping out from the side of the greenhouse, Rob the Butler appeared with a lascivious grin appearing on his face. The man remained as tall as ever, wearing his dark butler uniform like always, which certainly brought out his physique. This was eye candy to Alice, who had a faint smile appearing on her normally blank face.

"So you finally made it, I was beginning to worry that you'd be kept by the Master because of our other dusting Maid taking the day off." Rob greeted, grinning pleasantly as Alice walked up to him with a soft smile on her face.

"It is no trouble, I perform my duties in advance so that we...Starts undoing the lace of her corset top...may not be disturbed.~" Alice breathed out in a husky seductive whisper, tugging down the tip of her corset dress and revealing her thick pair of ample D-cup sized titties to Rob's face.

He liked it whenever she showed him the 'Goods' prior to their usual 'Meeting' outside the manor. Alice was young and her flesh was so soft and full of life, it made her perfect for an older perverted man like Rob to enjoy. Fucking her always made him feel younger.

"Exquisite. Come here, my dear." He beckoned and Alice nearly threw herself into his arms, letting him bend his neck down as she stood up on her toes to kiss him head-on.

Chup!

"Mmhmm.~" Alice started mewling pleasantly inside of Rob's face, feeling him expertly curling her lips around using his own, then sliding his adult-sized tongue down into her young mouth so he could clean out her throat. This sent positively jitters of excitement through the young Maid's body, making her grind her legs into each other for she was feeling incredibly moist.

"Hmm! Schlpp..schlpp..schlpp...schlupp!...mmhm, my dear Alice. You taste marvelous today.~" Rob breathed out in moist hot breaths, letting his lips drag back on her tongue and seeing the dazed look of wonder showing inside of her young pale blue eyes.

They made out salaciously with tongues writhing about, curling into each other with Rob's dominating hers, dipping her in his broad strong arms in the process. Alice could only submit herself to him, feeling the usual welching feeling of gut in the back of her head knowing that she was doing this in spite of the Duke's affection for her. Despite confessing to him many times before and likewise receiving his feelings, becoming accepted, she still couldn't touch him physically yet.

Instead, she had Rob fill the void of much-needed physical intimacy, relishing it every time they meet and finding herself thinking less of Duke the more this went on. Her small dainty soft hands reached behind the older man's neck, running her fingers through his hair as he held the right side of her waist, pulling her closer to his body.

"Mmhmm! Aaahhmm.....Rob!" She breathed out once she broke off from his lips, looking at him with dazed-looking eyes while he simply gazed at her voluptuous bouncy breasts jiggling around. "P-please....take me. I fear we don't have much time before one of the Master's secondary Maids comes searching for us."

Rob nodded in agreement and was about to take a step back to let Alice present herself, but first, she held onto the zipper to his trousers with a soft smile.

"But first, I want to have a taste of something exquisite myself, If you please, Master Rob." She purred while licking her lips.

The old man couldn't deny such a request; to be sucked off by such a beautiful young woman. He stepped back and let her fingers tug down the zipper of his pants, releasing a thick and lengthy nine and a half inch dick standing fully erect. Alice couldn't contain her excitement and quickly lowered herself down onto her knees with one hand softly gripping the lower-half of cock.

"Aahh...! Oooh your hands are so pleasantly soft, Lady Alice. Now let's see how your mouth feels.~" He teased and watched as she moved her face closer to his length, opening her soft pink lips wide apart and allowing Rob to sink the head of his cock into her throat with a 'Schlup' noise being made.

Squelch!

"Mmmmm, hmm." Alice moaned warmly and closed her eyes. She kept her right hand gripping his shaft and pumping it gingerly as she began bobbing her head back and forth on his crotch. Her soft, blissfully slick tight lips surfed back and forth on his meat, over and over again.

Schupp..schupp..schupp...schupp..schupp..schupp!

Loud saliva-smacking noises of fellatio started filling up the air while the bird watched from nearby as Alice hungrily tasted Rob's meat inside of her face. Her tongue rolled gently around and underneath it as he pushed into the back of her slimy warm throat, giving the man the most intense sensation of pleasure he had ever experienced in his life. There was nothing like a young teenage maid swallowing your cock to make one appreciate the more blissful things in life.

"Hnhh...! Aah....Oh lady Alice! Yes, move faster. I want you to swallow everything into your stomach before we move on to the next step." Rob breathed out, holding the back of her head as she hungrily bobbed her mouth onto his thick pulsating cock.

She hummed and licked all over the man's shaft, enjoying the taste of it as he plunged directly into the back of her mouth. Soon her other hand went up to pump his length together with the other, keeping her blowjob going while he held onto her back with each of his hands. She looked up into Rob's face with a haunting smile, savoring the look of incoming release that appeared on his face once he started groaning loudly in euphoria.

"Nnhh..nnhn..nnh..nnggh.....aah..I'm feeling ready to cum soon, Miss Alice!~" He announced with a groan, feeling his shaft beginning to swell and his balls throbbing as though they were ready to explode.

This only made Alice suck him off even faster, throwing her head repeatedly into his waist and sealing up his shaft with aqua-moist lips that squeezed his skin even harder. It was the ultimate pleasure and he was beginning to feel the first pulse of ejaculate coming out, leading to him grabbing the back of her head and pulling her face-first into his waist!

"Hnghhh!" The man groaned loudly and felt his shaft throb, sending thick blasts of cum directly into the young girl's throat like so. Alice could only roll back her eyes in sexually-depraved euphoria as she felt the esophagus fill up with the old man's seed. She started swallowing everything immediately, making loud swallowing noises come out into the air.

Gulp..gulp...gulp..gulp..gulp!

"Mmmmbbhhff. Gulp..gulp..gulp!" She swallowed it all until he was finished cumming, leaving the man's waist and astonished to find he was still as hard as a rock. Such a sight stimulated her loins greatly. "Ah, that tastes quite delicious, Master Rob. You have been saving up for me, haven't you?"

"Aahh, that was amazing, and yes I have milady. Now then....stand up and pull that long dark skirt over her body, I am still very ready and eager to fuck you." He said, watching as she wiped away droplets of sperm using her fingers, cleaning them off as she stood up and placed herself against the surface of the greenhouse behind them.

Alice looked back over her right shoulder and hastily tugged the bottom of her dark dress up over her rump, revealing her ample pale-skinned buttocks shaped like a heart and wearing nothing there except dark fishnet stockings around her legs. Both her teenage pussy and her perfect young ass was on full display before him, she started shaking it left and right enticingly for she was ready to receive his seed into her body today.

"Do hurry up, Master Rob. I'd like to feel that behemoth going inside of me already, we may not have much more time before others come searching for the two of us." Alice begged, quietly and without a hint of desperation in her voice.

He loved that about her, the way she was always so composed and emotionlessly gentle with others. Grinning from ear to ear and moving into position behind her smaller teenage body, he grabbed the sides of her waist and guided the head of his dick into her moist tight-looking pussy from a fierce shove.

Squelch!

"Nnnhhh! Aahhh....!~" Alice moaned quietly in pleasure, raking her nails along the glass surface of the greenhouse as she felt her insides split open to swallow up Rob's thick appendage into her quim.

The man gently eased his way in further into her sex, placing himself at the hilt and feeling her soft ample buttocks collide gently with his waist. He let out a blissful sigh and relished the feeling of tight teenage pussy sheathed completely around his length as he started pumping his hips forward like so.

Alice had to bite down on her right fist in order to stifle her screaming from being loud, she felt Rob thrusting ever-so-gently into her from behind, making her tap the surface of the glass with her breasts in repetition. Each push of his waist into her rear made a gentle clapping noise that could be heard if anyone was nearby, but she braved the risk and savored the sensation of her walls churning around the old man's cock. She loved the feeling it gave her and made a positively euphoric smile on her face as she pushed into him in a repetitive motion.

"Uuaahh..aahh...ahh....ahh...aahh..aahhh! Ooohh...Master Robert!~" She breathed out with eyes closed and mouth agape.

Her body moved effortlessly back and forth into the man's front with her ass occasionally squishing up against his pelvis comfortably. They gently rutted into each other like animals during a mating press, eventually moving even faster into each other with moans and sharp smacking sounds of flesh colliding into flesh. Rob had started going harder on Alice's small teenage body, making her press the side of her face into the surface and moan.

"Hnnggh..ahhh...hhaah...ahh...ha...ahhh....aahhn! Oohh Miss Alice! Your womanhood is truly exquisite, I feel as if I may burst very soon!" He breathed out, pumping voraciously into her frame from behind and making her walls clamp down snugly around his length for she was ready to cum too.

Alice didn't say anything, instead, she simply looked back at Rob with an anxious smile on her face, telling him it was okay to cum inside. With a nod of her head, he started jackhammering into her body from behind, making her scream loudly as she came into the surface of the window with a delirious smile on her face!

"Haaaaaaaa.....!~" She cried out, albeit in a stifled manner since she had bitten down on her right hand again like so.

Alice felt Rob pump into her roughly a few more times until he delivered the last thrust into her pussy before letting out a thick helping of old man sperm inside of her body!

"Hngggghhh! Uuunngghh...!~" He grunted, feeling his balls swell and disperse cum over and over again like an animal inside of her tight teenage pussy.

Spplt..spplt..spplt..spllt..spplt!

Rob had let out numerous thick and heavy ropes of sperm directly into her fertile teenage depths, partially hoping to have impregnated her and marry her himself away from the Duke's prying eyes. The girl moaned loudly into the glass, huffing loudly in hot ragged breaths of post-coital ecstasy as she felt his spunk fill up the inside of her womb in no time at all. He was still cumming inside her, even at a weaker level, until he was eventually done.

Once they were finished, he pulled back from her body and let down her dress, uncaring if she happened to leak his seed wherever she went when she walked. Alice looked back over her shoulder at him with a blushing smile and winked, telling him that she'll be seeing him again very soon.

'Count on it, Miss Alice. I'll be happy to accommodate your every need.' Rob thought to her with a nod of his head and returned to his own duty of serving the Duke, all without him knowing the treacherous scandal going on right under his nose. 'I'd almost feel ashamed of committing this act were she not so frustrated and pent-up with need, but also, the sheer allure of breeding such a young lovely beauty is simply too much to resist.'

Later...

After several hours between doing simple housework like tending to the garden, making the Duke's bed, and leading the Maids to wash up the windows outside, Rob got an opportunity with Alice again. This time in the communal bathhouse shared between employees only, it was split between male and female sides with Alice currently sweeping up the female's side in another maid's place.

She was wearing an apron, gloves, and a bonnet over her blonde head as she pushed the broom around the surface of the floor while humming up a tune to herself. She was whimsically aware that Rob would sneak in at any moment and take her, the thought of submitting to him left her insides soaking with moisture from arousal. She was still stuffed full of seed, likely pregnant without her being sure. It was such a scandalous thought that made her quell with shivers of excitement.

"Mhmm mhmm mhmm mhmm mhmm.~" She hummed until hearing the door to the room open up quietly.

In crept Rob with a subtle smile, he watched Alice shaking her rump side to side as she steers the broom all over the floor. He loved the way her lithe teenage body moved, but more so the sight of how plump her ass appeared to be when being pushed through her dress. Walking right up to her, he placed himself behind Alice and rested his hands around her stomach, seemingly taking her by surprise as he embraced her completely.

"Oh! Master Rob, I didn't see you there. Hehehe.~" She giggled innocently enough and felt him spooning her backside with his crotch rubbing up against her surface.

A thick scarlet color decorated her cheeks when she felt his erection pushing out and touching the surface of her buttocks quite noticeably.

"That's right, I've been thinking about you quite a bit during my last shift, lady Alice. Wouldn't it be nice if I happened to have gotten you pregnant and take you to run away with me?" He voiced, making his lust evident in his tone and causing Alice to quiver with growing anxiety-ridden lust.

Meanwhile, Rob ground his pelvis side to side against her, making her struggle to concentrate until she felt his hands reaching around to grab hold of her breasts through her clothing!

"Aahh!~ Mmhmm....!~ M-Master Rob....here? Now?" She asked meekly with hot breaths escaping her lips. The man answered her by gently grabbing the side of her face and lifting it up, steering her in his direction so that his lips met hers in a deep kiss.

Schup!

"Hhmmhmmhm!~" Rob moaned into Alice's mouth, running his tongue all over the corners of her lips, kissing the young maid in the most perverse way possible as she hungrily swallowed down his saliva like so.

Her eyes started drifting upward, making her look a bit goofy in contrast to her usually stoic appearance, she started kissing back, tangling her tongue with his in a highly erotic way until she let go of the broom handle entirely to wrap her arms around his neck from below.

"Mhmmhmm! Hhmmhm! Slpp..shpp..shpp..shpp! Ah! M-Master Rob...take me!~" Alice breathed out as soon as they broke off their adulterous lip-lock. A hot gasp of air escaped her lips as she looked dreamily into Rob's eyes, desperately wanting him to ravish her right here and now.

Lucky for her, he was more than willing to oblige. Hastily pulling off her apron and letting it fall to the floor, he turned Alice around in his arms and pulled down the top of her dress to reveal her bountiful breasts! She was surprised by how aggressive he was getting, leading to her gnashing her thighs in response and feeling her pussy glistening even further.

"Exquisite indeed, I am going to enjoy you very much right here and now, Lady Alice. Please lie down onto your back and pull up your dress. I'd like very much to be on top of you." He commanded and Alice did as he said; gently lowering herself onto her kneecaps before rolling onto her back with legs pulled into the sky.

She kept her elegant black high-heel shoes on as she pulled down her dress, revealing her soft-looking thighs and showing Rob her naked pussy too. She still kept herself uncovered down below after their last affair out in the garden, showing him the fuzzy peach of her teenage sex willingly before spreading her legs part with her hands.

Alice had an eager and excitable face on right now, she was breathing hotly and waiting for Rob to undo his belt and pull down his pants for her. The fact that he did it in such a swift way made her feel the excitement radiating off the man, for he had so very much wanted to plow the girl into next week at this moment. Out came his cock, springing out fully erect with thick bloated balls dangling underneath. Rob may be old, but he was not without lots of virility and experience with women.

"Here I come, Alice. Do try to keep quiet lest we attract attention from one of the other cleaning servants still inhabiting the area. I cannot resist any longer, I must have you right now." He growled briskly, making her smile in appreciation and a heavy blush on her cheeks.

She reached down her sides and spread open the juicy pink folds of her pussy lips, welcoming him into her depths with an invitation. Rob pressed himself down onto Alice's body, letting the thick head of his cock sink into her sodden youthful sex like so.

Squelch!

"Hnnnggg!~ Aaahh.....! M-Master Rob...!~" She breathed out, feeling her young teenage walls spreading out around the edge of his dick as it sunk into her without notice. Rob pressed himself down, waist-to-waist, making sure he was as deep as possible inside of the younger girl.

Alice tossed back her head and stuck out her legs into the air, leaving them twitching excitedly as she felt Rob pushing into her cervix and slipping into her womb! She was beyond the veil of mere sexual pleasure now, at this moment she was experiencing absolute nirvana at the hand of Rob's cock hollowing her insides out. She quickly covered up her mouth with her hands, keeping herself quietly as he started making his navel collide with hers in a bent missionary style arrangement.

His balls started slapping against her sex, his waist pushed repeatedly into her groin, and her legs swayed up and down into the air as he began fucking her earnestly against the ground.

"Hhnggh! Aaahh..aahh...ahh..aahh..aahh..aaahhhh! Master Rob....!~" She breathed out again, experiencing mind-numbing liss at the hands of the elderly butler. Rob's pace was methodical, direct, and very precise in hitting her more sensitive weak spots within her womanhood.

Rob grunted hotly as he shoved himself to the brink inside of Alice's tight young sex, enjoying the squishy feeling of her tunnel as he bottomed out of her with increasing intensity. There was nothing like a young pussy like hers satisfying an old unloved man like him, it made him even more aroused, especially at the thought of knocking her up and stealing her way from the Duke. He pushed and shoved every inch into her writhing sex, making her whimper helplessly beneath him until he decided to grab hold of her one of her bouncing breasts and pull it into his right hand.

"Mmnnhg! Ahh.....!~" Alice squealed out a second time, arching her back and pushing out her chest into the air after feeling Rob's fingers pull sensually onto her left mound. He fluffed and fondled it to his amusement, squeezing her tit pleurably while keeping his pace going. 'H-he's squeezing my breasts....! Ohhh...it feels better than I would've thought!'

Alice tossed her head around, turning it side to side as she continued to feel Rob groping her boob while also fucking her soundly against the carpet. Minutes of this animalistic rutting continued until the man leaned over her frame, wrapping his mouth around her other breast and making her embrace him completely while screaming into the air! Alice's eyes fogged over with lust, her mouth remained open and let out a constant stream of moans and whimpers as she was fastly approaching climax.

Schlupp..schlupp...shclupp..schluppp!

"Mhmmnhmm! Delicious, Lady Alice. I can't get enough of these. Imagine if they were full of milk.~" Rob teased as he suckled onto the girl's boobs in tandem, grinding himself into her waist until he felt both of her legs cross ankles behind his back in desperation. She was beginning to cum and she'll do it with intensity as she felt Rob's shaft beginning to swell up with ejaculate, ready to be sent into her deepest most vulnerable place.

"Aahh...ahh...ahh...ah...ah...aahh!~ Rob! I'm....c-cumming...!" She announced, pulling her arms from behind his neck to cradle his face into her soft hands, making him pull up from her breasts in order to kiss her fully on the lips!

They let their tongues mingle furiously into each other in a fit of passion, both of them being blind to the fact that their sexes each started convulsing in the most intense mutual climax to date. Rob sundered his pelvis into Alice's waist several more times before firing thick highly potent ropes of sperm directly into her cervix! She, in-turn, clenched every vaginal muscle around the man's cock, milking him for even more and allowing old man sperm to fill up the entirety of her young and fertile teenage womb!

"Mmmnnngghh!" She screamed pleasurably into his face, allowing her tongue to be dominated by his own in a spiral of oral pleasure as they rode out their orgasms with each other.

Spltt....spltt..spltt..spltt..spltt..spltt..spltt!

Alice wailed salaciously inside of Rob's throat, pulling back her head slowly with her eyes drifting north into her sockets, giving her a goofy ahegao face as she felt him fill up the inside of her pussy.

"Nnggh...nnggh! Mmmnnggh...! Oh my, yes, dear Alice....that was the most pleasurable experience I've had to date. I do believe we were made for each other after all." Rob breathed out, coming down from his high as he held Alice's lithe partially-naked frame underneath him, letting her relax in post-coital bliss as their juices stained the clean floor.

"Huff...huff...huff....Master Rob...I...do believe you may be right.~" She responded coyly and flashed him a loving smile on her young face before embracing him in another tongue-swallowing kiss between a young teenage girl and old man. She did this shamelessly while trying not to think of the Duke again, it was here that a certain thought came flourishing into her mind. One that'll finally set Alice's priorities straight with who her affections should be given to from now on.

Taking an extra-long suckle of Rob's lips until she pulled back from his mouth with a hauntingly charming smile, she suggested one other lewd location in which to copulate with the head butler. After Rob had heard it, he was initially ambivalent on doing something so risky so close to the Duke's very presence, but the thrill of making love to her nakedly on his very bed was too tempting an idea to ignore.

"My, what an adventurous young minx you happen to be, Miss Alice. Why I would be very glad to accommodate you on this adventurous idea. I believe he spends his Friday evenings alone in the evening, tending to his piano practice in the music room, leaving his bed all alone until the Maids come to fetch him in the morning. It can be done....with the right materials on hand." Rob recounted, he sat up with Alice resting on his lap, staying 'joined' with his cock and running a finger around his cheek with a soft smile.

"It just so happens to be Friday, you know. Wouldn't you know it, Master Duke is actually out in the music hall right now practicing his Piano skills." He pointed out and Alice nodded in understanding as she pulled herself off Rob's naked body with reluctance, leaving a thick goop of sperm to ooze out of her quim when she stood up.

"Very well, I shall go fetch Master's tea and bring it to him." She began, then smiled deviously with a blush on her face when she said the next part. "Meet me in his bedroom in the evening and be sure to send all the other maids away, Master Rob. I do not want this night, this entire risky venture, to be ruined by any who happen to be passing by hearing us."

"I will make sure of it, Miss Alice.~" Rob replied with a smile as he got up and pulled his pants up again, watching Alice re-adjust her clothing as she shakes her ass a little while she pulled her apron back on.

Later, after successfully cleaning herself up and making her appearance look as refined as always, Alice walked into the music hall with a teacup held in her hands. She walked gracefully towards her very master, her original source of her affections; Duke, as he keyed the piano gracefully with forever diligent practice.

"Master, I have brought you some tea to help." She announced in her usual gentle stoic voice, catching the young lord's attention and making him turn his head to see her with an enthusiastic smile on his face.

"Ah! Alice....! I-I was so caught up in getting this ballad right that I didn't even hear you come in. Thank you." Duke, the ever-kind and woefully unfortunate boy offered his hand and took the teacup with a dish from Alice's fingers with a thankful smile.

Part of her felt guilty for doing this when he looked so innocent and remained as friendly as he always was. Duke may have been awkward, meek, and a tad eccentric at times, but overall he was just an innocent boy who had longed to marry her once he rids himself of this curse.

Tipping the teacup to his lips, Duke drank down its contents, humming with delight as it was his favorite Apple spice blend mixed in with a tart unfamiliar flavor.

"Ah, that's better. I really was beginning to get thirsty too, I've been practicing on this ballad for a while now and I think I'm nearing its completion already. Take a look." Duke said as she leaned over his shoulder, close enough to make him sputter like he always does when she's physically close in proximity.

'S-she's just so beautiful! Why can't be allowed to at least kiss her or even hold her hand?!' Duke mentally cursed himself, hating the witch even more whenever Alice looked as enchanting as she does in the moonlight of the scenery.

"Hmmm, this ballad is quite beautiful, my Duke. You have been long and hard at work at this, I take it. Duke nods If you work any harder on it you may wind up falling asleep in front of the piano and remain there, you know. Since none may touch you, you may not be able to carried away until you awake." She cautioned with a gentle supporting smile.

"Y-yeah, maybe you're right, but I do always make it back to my bed....before.....I....get...ti-Slump! zzzzzzz!" Duke slumped his head down onto the flat board of the piano keyboard cover, completely asleep. A snooze bubble came out of his nose, showing that he was knocked out cold and would be for a good long while. Six to eight hours at most.

"There we go, now you go rest peacefully now, Young Master. I must go and meet with Master Rob to discuss certain matters regarding my lingering feelings for you, as well as a few other things in the privacy of your bedroom." Alice said gently and draped a blanket she had brought in over the Duke's shoulders before leaving the area entirely, with a subtly excited smile on her face.

It was around evening time, past the dinner bell when Rob had finished up his usual duties as the butler and Head servant above all the others. Everyone knew how to do their job well enough and did so without needing him to reprimand or guide into performing it right. He had waited until the maids left for the day and made his way over to the Duke's Grandmaster bedroom, pushing the doors open to reveal a beautiful-looking Alice sitting at the foot of the bed wearing very sexually appealing lingerie over her young teenage body.

"Welcome, Master Rob. I am glad you could make it.~" She greeted with a coy smile, already seeing the look of excitement appearing on his older face as well as his erection pushing through his pants.

Alice was wearing a black lace choker around her neck, silken transparent stockings over each leg, a black corset with no cups, and a matching lace garter belt underneath with no panties. She was showing both of her voluptuous breasts as well as her juicy-looking teenage sex, leaving nothing to the imagination except a primal desire to breed her right and now.

"My word, Lady Alice, you look positively ravishing this evening. I take it that Master Duke...."

"He is safely asleep, peacefully so at his piano thanks to the sleeping powder you have given me to help soothe his occasional night-terrors. I am very much appreciative, Master Rob. Now please.... Scoots back onto the center of the bed with arms held out towards him....make love to me, all night long as you have always wanted."

That was the back that broke the camel's back, making Rob lose all composure as he started hastily undressing before the girl's eyes in a hurry. He tugged off his jacket, undid the buttons of his shirt, and unbuckled his belt before pulling all of it down and releasing his thick foot long member standing completely erect. He was naked from head to toe and this excited Alice to no end, especially since he started crawling onto the bed towards her with a lascivious grin on his face.

"Come here, my dear, I shall make this the most memorable night of your young life." He whispered darkly to her, making Alice sling her hands behind his neck as they embraced each other in yet another salacious tongue-on-tongue exchange with Rob exerting dominance over the young blonde maid.

"Mhhmmhm! Schlpp..sclpp..schlppp..slpp! Hhhnnnggg...! Master Rob....Master Rob...!~" Alice breathed out in between wet breaths of tongue slipping out of her mouth and rolling back into her own, they shared a very heated embrace atop the Duke's bed and pillows with their scent lingering in the air as they went.

Rob ran his strong hands around the sides of Alice's waist, fondling her lithe teenage body to his liking until he grabbed a hold of her right thigh, letting it wrap around him as he nudged her belly button with his cock. Together they made out like longtime passionate lovers, exchanging each other's spit in only the most salacious of ways with Alice whimpering underneath her breath, feeling wetter every second

For minutes this went by until Rob decided to taste something else, he pulled up off of Alice for a brief moment and gestured for her to turn around and stick her ass out into the air. She did so obediently without issue, rotating her entire frame until she was headfirst with the Duke's pillows like so. She clutched one when she felt his hands grabbing ahold of each of her thighs, lifting her young body up until her mound was directly below Rob's face.

The old man held her there and whiffed the scent of her snatch up close, feeling his hunger peak until he dove into the ruby-colored wetness of her teenage pussy and gorged himself on it with tongue burrowing inside!

"Hhaaaghh! Uuaaahh.....Rob! Nnhghh...!~" She cried out in ecstasy, feeling the most sensitive weak point within her entire body getting tongued out by the old man's lips. Rob slurped and sucked every part of her flesh, tasting her in every way possible as he fingered the insides deep.

This was making Alice's legs dangle helplessly into the air behind his head, she was gently kicking them apart and clutching a pillow underneath her arms in reaction to this most intense session of cunnilingus yet. Her moan was muffled into the pillow, showing her eye fogging over with lust and blinding pleasure as she felt Rob hungrily swirl his tongue around the inside of her sex for five more minutes.

*Hmhmhm! Schlupp...schlupp...schlupp! Ohhh, so exquisite your young peach tastes, Lady Alice. I may grow addicted to this splendid taste." Rob breathed out, letting his tongue rub up against Alice's exposed clit, making her suddenly gush explosively all over his face in orgasm shortly after.

Her legs twitched angrily in the air as her body shuddered, her moistness gushed all over the old man's lips, leading to him hungrily gorging himself on her snatch all over again while doing so. He tasted every ounce of her nectar, cleaning her up when she was done and rolling his tongue all over her juicy highly sensitive mound before gently lowering her onto her kneecaps.

"Aahh, delicious indeed. It appears you quite enjoyed the service I provided, Lady Alice, now then....Lines up his cock directly above her juicy snatch....let's begin with the next service. The one in which I will impart my seed into your fertile young insides without our Duke knowing of it." He growled, taking each of Alice's hips into his hands and guiding the head of his cock directly into her sex once more.

Squelch!

Alice threw her head back and trembled intensely as she felt Rob's immense cock pushing all the way through her young slippery insides once again. From this angle and position; the doggy style form, she felt him go in even deeper and touch more erogenous areas than the others. Alice shivered with ecstasy as she felt him pushing his way into her womb once again, the head of his cock plopped out inside of it and nudged the very walls of it, making her rake her fingernails all over the Duke's bedsheets like so.

"Hhngghhh! Aaahhh.....! Ohhhhh...Master Rob...! I..I really feel it, it's so deep inside of me right now. Mmmnh!~" She moaned, breathing heavily until she felt the man lean over her backside, sniffing the side of her face until his tongue traced its way from her right cheek over into her soft lips for yet another invasive lip-lock.

Schup!

Alice accepted it right away and turned her face so that she could wrap an arm around the back of his neck from underneath him. She made her way into his throat with her tongue, allowing Rob to suckle on it as much as he wished while he began rolling his pelvis over her buttocks, gently fucking her onto the bed. It was more a hip-grinding session rather than an outright fuck frenzy, but Alice appreciated the gentler part of lovemaking as she made out with him like she was trained to be his wife.

Together their tongues rolled all over each other in a salacious, erotic manner with Rob tasting every inch of her lips as well as the inside of her mouth. No part of her oral cavity was untouched by the old man's tongue as he cleaned out her palette for a few minutes before beginning to buck heavily into her frame from behind. Once his hard pelvis slammed into Alice's waist, she felt a trembling jolt of pleasure run through her entire body and began to mewl heavily into the man's lips as he began rutting into her with increasing passion.

The bed started creaking, the frame shook as Rob's thrusts became harder and more intense, making Alice's smaller teenage form sway back and forth to his movements. Her breasts swayed and her pussy gushed all over his length, sealing in his cock as she felt him hammering away into her womb like an animal gone possessed. Soon enough, her lips left his mouth so that she could howl into the air, keeping her head tilting back while feeling her buttocks slap against his navel like so.

"Uuaaahh....! Rob....! Aaahh..aahh..ahh..ah..ah....ah..aahh...aahh! Ohh it feels so good! So heavenly divine! I...I want to feel this forever!~" She cried out, ignoring all memories of Duke's bashful smiles of cuteness when looking into her face. The feeling of guilt remained in her heart, but it was being drowned out by pure carnal pleasure being given to her in the form of an old man fucking her young body raw against the bed.

Nectar came sprinkling all over the old man's crotch, nearly constantly at that, making stains of their lovemaking seep into the Duke's bed. Alice's buttocks slammed into his crotch again and again with Rob surrendering all forms of self-control so that he could breed this young maid thoroughly. For minutes to an hour into the night, they had fucked nonstop in this position, leaving Alice to cum at least three times since the start. Her pussy would gush and soak up all over his cock while still being hammered away into by his penis. She was breaking into a euphoric smile, one that would never be seen on her normally emotionless face unless it was in this exact situation. She could feel every hard thrust of Rob's mighty shaft rending her spongy insides, bottoming out of her in a way that made the girl go crazy for sex.

Rob, grunting laboriously with hot breaths escaping his lips, continued pummeling Alice's youthful body from behind until he altered their positions by pushing up her buttocks until her feet lifted off the surface. He was on his kneecaps still, but Alice's lower half was being carried into the air by his hands and his sundering hips still bottoming against her waist like so. Her face was now smothered into the pillow, moaning loudly in hot muffles of breath, screaming into it she felt yet another orgasm rip through her body again!

"*Hhnaaagggghhhhh!~" She cried out in ecstasy, feeling Rob's shaft swell as he was about to cum inside of her once more.

"Nngh! I'm...cumming as well, my dear Alice! Take it, take all of my seed within you, and bear me a baby right here on the Duke's bed! Aaaagghhh....!~" Rob drew back his hips and slammed fiercely into her body from behind yet again, sheathing every thick rigged inch of old man cock into her pussy as he let out a thick outpour of sperm into Alice's sex!

He grunted fiercely in ecstasy, feeling his balls pump and swell like a pair of medium-length balloons and pumping the girl full of his seed with a blissful smile on his face.

Sppllt...sppltt..splllt...spllt..spllt..spltt..spltt!

Rob felt like his sperm would be endless in how much he shot into her body all at once, so much of it went inside of her pussy that some of it spilled out onto the bedspread surface. He could hear and even feel each loud glob of cum being guzzled into her body as he had laid there on top of her, spooning her backside, letting everything drain out until Alice passed out from post-coital exhaustion with a peaceful smile on her face.

"Haah.....what a wonderful evening this was, Master Rob. Hehehehe....." She giggled deliriously in a gentle way, resting underneath him as he continued to stay pinned to her buttocks and let out a few final ropes of sperm into her depths.

Together they laid naked on the Duke's bed, letting their stink of sex cascade through the bedsheets along with their genetic filth intermingling with each other, be it sweat, pussy nectar, or sperm.

"It truly was, Lady Alice. Let's continue this again very soon, provided you don't have to file for maternity leave two weeks from now.~" The old man chuckled darkly as he cupped Alice's face into his hand and pulled the girl onto his lips for another sinful kiss between girl and old man.

In the bliss of their lip-lock, she looked at a faraway photograph done of the young Duke and herself, closing her eyes on it as she basked in the sinfully scandalous embrace she was sharing with the Head butler.

This was a privilege only the Maid of Black could share, and she would continue sharing underneath her Master Duke's nose for as long as possible.
