

S
EELS

„Hey there peeps!“ Mira grinned into her phone after she had pressed the record-button. „Im here at green lake, enjoying the nice weather! You should really come over if you got the time!“ She walked further into the lake until she stood in the water knee-deep. „Hm, I wonder why there is noone else around here, it’s such a beautiful place!“

„Even the fish like it here!“ Mira smiled, as she saw a few of them swimming around her, as she walked a little further in. She fiddled around at her top a bit, before she lifted up her phone again. „Cant wait what you guys will say to the new stuff I bought as I was in Tinora last week!“ she smirked as she tried to find the right pose for a selfie.

She didn’t notice the few larger fishes that swam around her by now. Their long shadows slowly drew smaller and smaller circles around Miras legs while she was still busy with finding her perfect pose.

„Click!“ - „Hey!“ The moment Mira took her picture, one of the fishes had jumped out of the water or something. She looked down into and saw the long, orange body of an eel swirling through the water around her. „You meanie, now im totally soaked!“

Mira took up the phone to take another pic, as another splat hit her belly and crotch „HEY!“ She stopped. The small eel lookd up to her, its head was peaking out of the water. „Don´t you-!“ It seemed like if the eel was squirting water at her intentionally!

Suddenly, Mira felt how cold air touched her naked skin where her drenched bikini should have been. Confused, she looked down as she saw that – whatever that eel had squirted at her – had dissolved most of the fabric that had covered her wet, shaved pussy before.

Mira didn´t feel like posting anything anymore. A feeling of lust had taken her over, as she felt her pussy swelling up. Heavily breathing, she tried to get out of the water, as she noticed the eel was still aiming at her between her legs.

Then, without a warning, the long slimy body of the eel darted out of the water. Mira felt the wet snout of the creature pushing deep into her nethers, as she slipped on the stony ground and fell. She was under water only for a short amount of time, but she felt the slimy body of the eel drilling inside her mercilessly.

She tried to scream out in a mix of disgust and pleasure, as she felt her labia stretching around the head of the slimy fish as it travelled deep inside her vagina. Back on the surface, Mira tried to stand up. The long body of the eel was twitching between her legs, its head buried deep inside her aroused cunt. „GET OUT... OH GAWD...„ Mira tried to pull out the slimy intruder, but her hands slipped over the slick body like it was a slippery piece of soap

She felt the eel pushing deeper and deeper inside, while her swollen cuntlips drooled slime the eel was excreting. „please...“ Mira moaned. The feeling of the long slimy body inside her, wiggling around was disturbing and arousing at the same time.

Suddenly, Mira felt a warm liquid on her chest. Long strands of drool were dripping down her chin – drool like she had never seen before. Clean and thick, it started to destroy the fabric of her bikini top! „Hgnoooo!!“ She growled, causing a huge gush of slime now escaping her mouth, covering her breasts in a layer of viscous slime.

It seemed like it was the same slime like the eel was excreting, since it aroused her nipples as her bikini fell into the lake. Desperate, Mira tried to reach the shore while the tail of the eel still fidgeted between her tights like a tentacle that came out of her pussy.

Her mouth started to feel weird. The slime that was flowing out of her mouth had appeared everywhere on her body by now. „Whaaatsss thiss?!!“ In Horror, Mira felt how the slime had started to dissolve the top layer of her skin. Below, a slimy kind of fish-skin, drenched in eel-slime pushed through.

Her body felt numb, as Mira tried to wipe the transforming slime away. „Hhhgnnooooo!!“ Her once feminine fingers had started to fuse together, forming a grotesque three-fingered claw in front of her eyes, covered in green eel skin.

With clumsy movements of her new, webbed fingers Mira ripped away even more skin instead of actually getting rid of the slime, as her body turned into the body of a giant eel more and more.

Her face felt funny, and Mira suddenly realized, that her mouth was slowly ripping apart! Shocking her even more, It didn't even feel bad - more like a release! Her full lips slowly stretched back over a disgusting eel-snout as her new head started to make her old face feel like an unfitting mask more and more.

With a final pull of her new, webbed hand, Mira pulled away what was left of her old face. Her legs had fused into a long eel tail in the meantime, slashing around in the water behind her. Her once human cunt had formed into a tight slit with a gaping opening at its lower end, constantly drooling thick slime.

Even if her body had transformed into a monstrous eel, Mira was surprised that her mind still seemed to be mostly intact! She let her new claw-like hands slip over her sensitive new skin. The feeling alone was making her shudder. Confident, she groped one of her new massive and slimy breasts. „Feelss awesssome“ She threw her monstrous head back as her finger drew circles around the massive mound her former human nipples had turned into.

Her eel-pussy was turning wet, as she carefully started to touch it with her other hand. It seemed that most of her former vulva was now protected by a tight slit. Below her original cunt, a new, gaping hole had opened, constantly oozing lubricant. Carefully one of her fingers slipped around the new orifice as she felt her feeling of lust coming back. „It sseems like I got a sssecond pussy..“

She almost peaked instantly as her finger pushed inside her new cunt. In bliss, she rubbed over her slimy breasts, as two of her fingers played with both of her holes now. The feeling was incredible! She pushed inside faster and deeper with each thrust.... a loud hissing escaped her throat... and then Mira got carried away by the most awesome climax she ever had.

After Mira had explored her new body over and over again, she saw something on the ground of the lake not far from where she had layed to rest a bit. Curious, she picked it up and hissed happily, as she saw that her old phone still seemed to work perfectly.

A naughty idea came to her mind. As a monster-girl, she could care less about the content-filter, couldn't she? With a smirk, she took up the phone and started to take selfies of her naughty parts, eagerly waiting for the reactions of her followers.
