

Chapter 143 - Prison.

The God's assistant took the woman in her arms and disappeared. Her vision suddenly changed; she was now in a wide corridor with several doors made of iron.

It was a maximum security prison.

From within the locked rooms, some voices could be heard. Calls for help, curses thrown at God, and people trying to kill themselves. But of course, they were futile attempts since God would not allow them to die.

"I always get disgusted when I come to this place." The woman walked on, ignoring all calls for help, and reached the end of the corridor. She opened one of the doors and placed the woman on a bed.

It was a very clean room, unlike a normal prison cell. It had a toilet, a faucet with drinking water, and even a cabinet with food.

"It's a very nice place for a prison... But it always ends up destroyed after a while." Usually, prisoners in this place would go crazy, and their cells would all be a mess in a few days.

And, of course, God would not send anyone to clean their cells. The prisoners would have to live in filth for the rest of their lives. It was very stinky. "I'm afraid to look inside the other cells. I'm sure those idiots have shit all over the room."

The smell of shit was unbearable and suffocating. She wanted to get out of there as quickly as possible.

However, before she left, she put her hand on the woman's head. "AAHHH~" Screaming, the woman suddenly opened her eyes. Her body convulsed for a while.

"I didn't want to wake you up like this, but I had no choice."

"Where? Who are you?" The woman searched for her daggers. However, she could not find them. She also tried to use magic but couldn't.

"You better not try to do something stupid; I'm not as good a person as God." A fireball appeared on her hand, "And answering your question, this place here is a prison. You will stay here for now."

"A prison? What's that awful smell?"

"Your companions in the other cells are disgusting, so it all stinks. Since no one cleans it up, it gets stinkier and stinkier. Good luck." She tried to leave, but the woman grabbed her hand.

"Please don't leave me here. I feel like I'm going to throw up."

"You can leave as soon as you agree to cooperate with God so we can capture your 'master.' What do you think about that?"

"I... I can't."

"I understand, then stay here and wait. As soon as your master comes for you, we will take care of him."

"He won't come; he doesn't care about me."

"Are you sure about that?"

"..."

"Think carefully about what you're going to do." She walked out and closed the door, leaving the woman locked. She walked without looking back.

She kicked the cell doors and yelled at the noisy prisoners inside as she passed through the hall. "These guys drive me crazy."

####

"I just put her in one of the cells."

"You put her in the best cell?"

"I put her in the last cell; a comfortable bed was there. She'll be fine."

"Right."

"How long do you intend to keep her there?"

"What? Are you worried about her?"

"Are you kidding? Of course not! I couldn't care less. I want to resolve it quickly to return to living my life."

"Your life is not that important. Now leave me alone; I need to find some way to track down that guy. Waiting for him will be a foolish thing to do. Luan needs the system."

"It's so frustrating to see a God have his 'abilities blocked' by an idiot like that. I didn't know you were so weak."

"I am not weak... He's using something unknown to do this. Now leave me alone, and don't forget to take care of that woman. Treat her well."

"Okay~~ Okay~~ Do you want me to bathe her too? Do you want me to put her to sleep?"

"If you're going to do that, record it and send it to me later."

"You..." The woman was red with anger but restrained herself and then disappeared. God laughed and lay down on his couch. He turned on the television and looked at Luan for a few minutes.

'It's time to do this.'

####

When the afternoon came, I left the house together with Lili. We did the same things, so I don't need to explain what happened. We went straight to my room when we got home in the early evening.

I lay down with her, and before we knew it, we were already asleep. I only woke up the following day with Lili in my arms.

I got up and took a cold shower before going downstairs.

"Good morning, Jessica."

"Good morning, Luan. Did you sleep well? You and Lili slept early yesterday." Jessica gave a sarcastic laugh.

"What? We didn't have sex all night."

"I didn't say anything..." Jessica placed a cup of tea in front of me. "That's a new tea. Try it."

"..." I took a sip of the tea, which was a delicious citrus flavour. My tongue went numb for a second. "It's quite tasty. What is it?"

"The name is 'Jambu' or something like that. They discovered this new herb a while ago; it's becoming famous in town."

"I went out yesterday and couldn't find it for sale."

"Would you like some more?"

"Yeah, sure." Jessica filled my cup again. I sipped the tea while I ate my usual breakfast with plenty of carbohydrates.

After breakfast, I left the house to go for a walk. And when I was only a few meters from home, I received a message.

[ You will probably be able to use the system starting tomorrow ].

"Huh?" It was like a system message floating in front of my eyes. So god can do that? "Well, of course." I shrugged and continued walking with my hands in my pockets.
