

Lucy's Ludicrously Large Lady Lumps - Write up

A first person story from the perspective of Lucy, an innocent enough Asian American girl who is just coming up to her 18th Birthday. She recently got accepted into the local college. We start with her moving into a dorm on campus. She meets her roommate who has had a very different upbringing to her. Lucy has always been a bit of a shut in, preferring the company of anime, manga and video games to going outside with friends. Her roommate, Jess, is the complete opposite. Not wanting to upset her new roommate she agrees to go to a beach party. Thankfully she meets Jason, Jason shares many similar interests as Lucy and they both hit it off and quickly become friends. They find out they are both on the same course and over the course of the semester they become great friends.

Fast forward to Christmas break.

Lucy notices something strange, she doesn't quite understand it but every time she is around Jason she starts to feel... funny. She awkwardly asks Jess for some advice and Jess suggests that she has the hots for Jason. She blushes profusely and denies it. She couldn't have feelings for him... right?

Next time she sees him she notices the feeling and she starts thinking about what it would be like to hold his hand... maybe even kiss him... The feeling grows more intense and she rushes back to her dorm.

Feels strangely tired and goes to sleep. Wakes up with suddenly F cup boobs.

Skips class, See Jess in the morning. Awkward scene where Jess gropes her to feel if they are real. Lucy struggles to get dressed, she meets up with Jason and he is shocked. He acts different but Lucy can't understand why or doesn't see what's going on.

The feeling returns and either A.) or B.) happens again this time they are much bigger. Easily melon sized, incredibly perky and round.

Stays home, thankfully no class today but she is worried she will grow again and asks Jason to meet her tomorrow morning. Uneventful day.

Next Morning More growth.

Torso covering boobs. (2nd to last size for Chapter 1) She has to wear the bed sheet as a makeshift shirt, she asks Jason to stop by the 24 hour campus shop to pick up the biggest hoodie they have.

Jason helps her get from the dorm to a shop and back home with more clothes. There is a weird tension and a feeling in the air.

Next day Jason arrives and sees that she has grown again.

Rest of the story will play out without growth for a few days as Jason helps her in her day to day.
