Larger canonical context and background:

“Cool Trash 1995” is a surreal murder mystery comic dealing with themes of grief and friendship. It takes place in 2006 and focuses on Slime, who wears a hockey mask and Freddie, an androgynous burnout who live in the same trailer park, Iris Garden. They make a trip to the place where Freddie’s younger brother’s body was found back in 1995.

The artstyle will be my own, mostly cartoony with some more realistic elements for backgrounds.
