SYPHA

A few months ago, some men suddenly began to shrink due to an unknown virus that appeared all over the world. Sypha is a medical student who, as a complement to her internship and for some extra qualifications, volunteered to take care of some shrunken patients during their exams, while scientists try to develop a vaccine. The only rule that Sypha had in her house was not to disturb her when she was studying.

Shhhh! We don't want to bother her, remember? It's the only rule we have to follow!

We don't care! We're hungry and we're humans, not pets, so we shouldn't be treated this way!

Hey you! Stop talking and bothering me! I'm studying!

HAHAHA! You must be very stupid and careless if a few small noises distract you.

Come on, we're hungry!
Hurry up and bring us something to eat! We are your patients, not just some pets, and it's your job

Rrrrrgh, damnit! I've had enough of all you little ungrateful pests!

I think... it's time to clean some small pests from my home.

And there is no better way to end small pests than to "squash" them! Hahaha!

Ahhhhh! What are you saying, you crazy bitch?! Oh no, she's serious! run!

You look so pathetic running from me, do you really think you guys will be able to escape?

They're so fragile,
begging me to stop, it makes me- Ahhhh... It makes me feel so hot

CRUSH

The little ones run while they see how Sypha enjoys crushing her patient, turning him into a red stain under her shoes with a sadistic smile on her face.

STOP PLEASE! DON'T DO IT,
HAVE A FAMILY! DON'T CRUSH ME!!!

Oh, what do you say, little one?? I can't hear you

Sypha squashed the little man like a bug, completely ignoring his pleas..

She only began to move her foot on the little one crushing all his remains

After a few moments, she stopped to examine her work on the floor, getting excited by the new sensation of power she felt.

Oh God, that was so exciting!!!!

This feels so good...
Ahhhh... I feel.... like a Goddess, crushing her slaves!

Sypha contemplated the little boy crying on the ground, having witnessed the fate of his 2 crushed companions, and the feeling of power increases

Oh Jesus, my body is on fire! I need to stretch...

The hotter and more aroused Sypha's body became, the bigger and tighter she became.

Ufff... now I'm perfect.
Ready to finish what I started!

While the little one was in a state of shock, the giantess took her shoes off to relish in the feeling of crushing the noisy little one

No please stop, I beg you!
Sypha! Forgive me, please... I'll do everything you say!

PLEASE!!!! STOP IT!!!
NOOO!!! ANNNNNNNN!

Sypha's foot crushed the little boy, the life draining from him in seconds, the pressure causing him to explode into a bloodstain now stuck to her sock.

Ahhhh... finally, some peace and tranquility to continue my studies in...
it feels so good...

Hehe... Although... Maybe I could offer to "take care" of a few more little ones... I'll just say that they escaped! Hahahaha!!!
