

"I don't like it when people fuck my wife without her permission, so we're going to work on a few house rules..."

Unfortunately for Pei, her mind was still so fractured and dizzy from Harry's big, stiff cock, that she couldn't do much of anything. Harry pulled her ass off the edge of the chair and then moved in with his rod at the ready...

The traveler's eyes widened as Harry Potter moved in behind her. Pei nervously let out a worried breath as she felt his hot breath washing all over her naked back. Her pussy was still full from his last creampie, but somehow, the man of magical blood and touched by fate seemed just as hard as when they had started. So... there she was, a servant of the Starmother, gasping as she tried to get her strength back while the whole time, a continuous stream of thick human cum leaked out of her vagina.

"Harry, we should talk about this first," Pei insisted, debating between activating another of her runes. The problem was, activating even one took a lot out of her and would take time to recharge. Still... she knew how big his cock was and-

"Woah... wait..." Pei said as she felt Harry's huge cockhead pressing up against her entrance. There was no way it was meant to be inside there. Pei braced herself for the blow and then suddenly heard a slightly weakened voice speak out.

"Harry, wait," Pei recognized it as Ginny Potter's voice. Her eyes looked to the side, and she noticed the redhead moving along out of her peripheral view. The visitor got a bit nervous, but she was thankful that Harry's wife had stopped him. That was... until she heard Ginny continue talking.

"I'm going to have some fun with her..." Pei gulped back some fear. 'I never have brought the beast into the mix. I'm sure we could have had some fun later on...'

Suddenly Ginny slapped her hands on Pei's ass and was rewarded with a pained bleating from the girl.

"I'm sorry, okay... It was just some fun, that creature is actually quite friendly. He would never have hurt you. At least... not really, you know?"

All of the bitch's words fell on deaf ears. Ginny had a specific goal in mind. "Fleur, that spell that you tried out a couple weeks ago..."

"Oui. I remember zit, Ginny," Fleur said with a peppy flourish to her voice.

"Use it on me, please," Ginny instructed before giving Harry a sly grin.

"But, ov course." Fleur allowed herself a bit of a wicked smirk as she figured out what her friend was thinking up.

Hermione moved in a bit closer as Fleur collected herself and prepared to use the spell. "As much as I would like to stick around, I should make sure that the children are alright. Next time it will be your turn Fleur," Hermione said, a hint of disappointment sneaking into her words as she left the French woman, the two Brits, and the strange invader behind.

"Yes 'Ermoine," Fleur nodded to her friend before she looked at Ginny. "Now... juz stand still for a moment..."

Fleur produced her wand and set her eyes on Ginny's naked pussy. With a wave of her wand, all of the signs that Ginny had been ravished by the strange creature vanished. But the beautiful and busty French witch wasn't done quite yet.

"Crescerio Kolo..." Fleur said softly before the edges of her lips curled into a smirk. She was a fan of the spell. It was one thing to be fucked, by gorgeous men. It was another thing altogether to be fucked by others...

Before all of their eyes, Ginny Potter's flesh started tingling and then reshaping itself. In short order, the flesh above her pussy morphed, and a large phallus stretched out from her body.

"It iz always incroyable..." The blonde woman declared breathlessly while her free hand stretched out lazily over her plump breast. Meanwhile, the magical spell continued unfurling its purpose upon Ginny.

Soon enough, the spell had finished up, and Ginny's body not only sported a large cock, but through the skill of the French witches' power, the magical construction became intimately connected with her native pleasure.

It was quite surreal for Ginny.

There was a reason she never had quite got up the nerve to ask for the spell to be placed on her before, but right now she felt like it was the perfect way to enjoy some revenge on the interdimensional harlot who had crashed into the relative peace and tranquility of her life. Everything had been going as she wanted. But now, for reasons she didn't put a single galleon on, this troublemaker Pei had upended her day.

Ginny moved up to Pei's small naked ass. Even as anger and frustration stirred inside of her own bare body, the redhead couldn't help but feel something else stir inside her body. She had grown used to seeing Harry's juices slowly sliding out of whoever the two enjoyed together. Even if it was the ravished pussy of an Asian-looking tart like Pei, Ginny couldn't help but feel aroused.

'He fucked good. Like the bitch she is. I wonder if she can get pregnant from human cum?'

The exchange between her mind and her heart made her enchanted cock throb mere inches from the strange woman's exposed and unprotected sex.

Knowing that Pei wasn't going anywhere fast, the woman with a well-endowed bust and a magically created cock decide to take her time. Ginny's fingers reached forward, started playing along the outside ring of the bitch's cum-soaked pussy. Pei's sex looked like a soft flower that had been coated with thick syrupy cream. Ginny loved it and sniffed heartily, picking up the scent of the bitch's sex, along with the incredible expression of her husband's cum.

Each rub and stroke made Pei's naked body shiver, sending more of Harry's cum slowly out of her sex. Harry's wife took particular pleasure, hearing every little whimper while she continued playing with the sensitive petals of Pei's lower lips. Each passing moment Ginny could feel her magical cock brimming with more energy.

'You're already his you little slut, you just don't know it yet,' Ginny thought before darting her fingers in and out of the young woman's warm dripping cunt.

"Mrrwhhmmmm... What... what are you doing to me?" Pei asked, still a bit perplexed that Ginny wanted anything to do with her after how her creature had treated the woman with long redhead locks. She was about to learn about Ginny's fighting spirit. The former Gryffindor Seeker wasn't one to just take a loss and mope about it. She was going to get some payback.

"Well, unlike you, Miss Pei, I actually know my manners," Ginny declared proudly while her fingers continued probing and massaging the inside of Pei's juicy entrance. It didn't feel any different from Hermione's or Fleur's. Whatever Pei was, she still seemed pretty close to human. As she continued playing her fingers inside of Pei's vagina, Ginny was kind of glad that Harry and only fucked the girl for a short period.

'Her slit is still nice and taut for me. After I'm done with her, she'll know better than to sniff around things that are not hers. At least, not without my express permission,'

Without another word, Ginny Potter pulled back her fingers and then lined up the incredible cock that Fleur had bestowed upon her body. Her first thrust was sudden and rough, and the buxom redhead still coated in juices from an interdimensional monster buried more than half of the faux-cock inside the woman.

It was quite the scene for Fleur and Harry as they watched the thicker and slightly more muscular Ginny brace her hips against the strange girl with tight buttocks and breasts that were a far cry from Ginny's spectacular rack.

"Ooh la lah..." Fleur said before pinching her nipple idly.

"Ohhwahauh!!! What is that? I... Uhuah...." Ginny relished the strained and almost panicked tone in her voice. After the first mewl of pain and pleasure, the beautiful young witch pulled back with her magical member and then prepared to thrust right back into the bitch's squirming pussy. As the head of her cock disappeared again within Pei's sex, Ginny's mind was distracted by something besides the rune-marked girl's screaming moans.

'This feels very strange, but it is definitely pretty fun,' Ginny thought as she rolled her hips slowly and enjoyed the peculiar texture of the strange girl's warm insides. Gaining a newfound appreciation for Fleur's skills in conjuration, Ginny poured it on. Arching her hand back, she delivered a powerful slap right against Pei's right asscheek at the same moment that she filled up the space of her pussy once more. Ginny's eyes observed as Pei's naked body was reddened while the black-haired girl's pussy shot up a whole level in tightness.

"Oooh... feels like you like a little punishment. Don't you?" By that point, it was clear that Pei didn't have the control left in her to give Ginny any rational answer. Ginny didn't mind not being answered too terribly. The strange girl's pussy was giving her plenty of answers, and then some.

"You must be the biggest slut where you come from. You're moaning and getting wet as a lake. I can feel it all over my legs," Ginny snickered as she continued pumping her magical penis with powerful and fast thrusts.

"But... ngh... you're still so tight. Harry, were you going easy on her?" Ginny's eyes turned back towards her husband as she pulled back from another hammering thrust. Like many times before, Harry was still at full mast, even after having spewed his jizz deep within the same hole that Ginny was currently fucking. The black-haired jezebel squealed like a stuffed pig, and Ginny gave her handsome and sturdy husband a little wiggle of her ass. When she returned her focus to Pei, the cocky redhead pulled back both her hands and then dealt another double-slap to Pei's ass.

"Ah!!! Fuck, that thing is too big!" The traveler from another world moaned out. Heat swelled up throughout her body as the wife of one of the most famous wizards in the world continued spearing her body with something both incredible and too much for her still sensitive vaginal walls.

"It's like the cock is scraping against my womb all over again. Please.... Just give me a moment... to explainuaah!!!"

Ginny's teeth clenched as she pushed through the distracting words. The redhead whose day had been interrupted so outlandishly wasn't in the mood to hear it. Her continuous pounding melted Pei's words into a nearly constant chorus of pleading whimpers and trembling howls. Meanwhile, Ginny's body started dealing with a little heat of her own. It felt like her cock was being blasted by dragonfire each time she slammed her hips up against Pei's tight asscheeks.

'Oh... I'm going to cum soon. But there can be more... I can feel more,'

Sweat formed on her brow and bounced off her hard nipples as she continued throttling her captive. Ginny couldn't believe how long Harry could fuck her if the friction and pleasure she was experiencing were any indication. But as she thought about Harry, another thought occurred to her.

"Harry. Fuck me..."

"What are you saying?"

"Fuck nruaahh... fuck me while I fuck her. I want to feel your cum in my womb as I paint all of her insides with cum," Ginny felt confident having Harry fuck her while she fucked Pei would feel amazing. Harry quickly got into action.

Standing behind her, Ginny stopped thrusting when she felt Harry's enormous, stiff cock start pushing inside of her. She reached her hands back, pulled her asscheeks nice and wide, and offered her husband up her pussy. Harry's cock was so big and throbbing; Ginny actually had to nibble on her lip to stop from cumming right then and there.

"This is a little strange, but I think it will work," Harry admitted. Ginny turned her head back and managed to kiss her handsome black-haired stud. It did feel strange, being connected to Harry and the bitch, but Ginny almost immediately felt hornier because of it.

"Okay. We need to start at the same point, Harry. One two three..." With that, both Harry and Ginny moved forward. Each of their cocks pushed nice and deep into their respective openings. Ginny's body leaned over Pei's naked body. It felt so amazing having Harry's cock back inside of her. The creature had tickled her mind and filled her with pleasure; she would admit to that. But there was nothing better in the world than feeling her husband's cock slide along her vaginal walls.

"Sorry, Harry, but you need to fuck me really hard. I'm about to cum, but I need to feel your cum inside me when I do,"

"I'll give you what you want, Ginny. You can be sure of that..." Harry said, his breathing already taking a turn as he locked his fingers on her hips and started pushing his cock closer towards the entrance of her womb.

"Ginny..." Pei whimpered out. Her voice was so quiet; Ginny almost didn't hear her words over the sound of all of them fucking as one. "Please keep going... This... this feels so good. I'm sorry for what I did,"

"I am sure you will be," Ginny said before spanking Pei once again. The strange black-haired woman came in that instant. Her hair flew chaotically, and her pussy tightened up incredibly. Ginny made two more thrusts before she lost all control herself. Gripping Pei's ass like a treat, she would never give up, the lovely redhead pushed the tip of her cock as far inside of the other woman as she could.

"Mrruaahhuhaah!" Ginny cried out, delirious with pleasure from the sensation of the magical cock. It felt like rockets of pure joy were flying off from inside of her body. In that instant, she felt so glad that Harry had chosen her to receive such stimulation. Her head felt dizzy, and her legs got weaker, but she never stopped thrusting into Pei's pussy, even when Harry started cum inside of her own cunny.

"Ginny... Grraauahh..." Harry growled out. His hands reached around her body and squeezed tightly on her bouncing tits. Ginny's mind exploded through every second of it as wave after wave of her husband's fantastic cum flowed all along and against her deepest walls.

"Please, Harry. Fill me up. Cum a lot inside my naughty openiuaahh!" Ginny screamed out, and her mind literally went blank as she spasmed and convulsed. Each shiver and twitch made Pei's body tremble as well. At that moment, it felt like the two girls were sharing a very intimate and robust connection.

After all of their bodies calmed down, Harry pulled Ginny back. She squeaked a bit when her false cock was pulled free of Pei's now twice fucked pussy, but she did take great satisfaction watching the huge torrent of cum bubble and splash out of the bitch's cunt. Harry slowly untangled his own cock from Ginny's pussy, and he had to hold her up as her body threatened to fall forward without the support of his thick rod pressed inside her naughty hole.

Ginny sat down for a minute and noticed that her cock had already vanished and that Fleur was looking very flush herself. If she had to guess, Ginny figured the gorgeous blonde beauty had been enjoying herself quite a lot as Ginny fucked Pei while being fucked by Harry.

As her breathing finally got down to normal, Ginny put her attention back on their captive while Hermione reentered the room.

"The Dementors will have a lot of fun with you," Ginny growled out as she tugged the straps loose. Her first instinct had been to use a spell and create a nice big dildo mouth-gag. But she was feeling a bit calmer now after fucking the Asian-looking bitch. But... Ginny did think that it was time to get Pei out of her house and out of her life as soon as possible. She was a very open-minded woman when it came to sex, but she didn't enjoy having some extraplanar monster turned loose on her while a strange woman got stuffed by her husband.

"Please... that cannot happen..." Pei looked around nervously while her arms remained above her head. It was clear that she was finding no friends among the group. "I made a mistake, I... I am sorry. But if you toss me your Ministry, I won't be able to complete my quest."

"Then you should have thought about that before releasing that beast on me."

"Ginny please, I know that her 'entrance' was idiotic," Hermione paused and looked at the girl and let out a quick sigh. "but if we turn her over to the Ministry, they're likely to lock her up."

"Yes, that would be the point, Hermione. That thing fondled me like a Whitechapel prostitute!"

"I know... but my spell is still on her, and she is telling the truth. Lives will be lost if she doesn't help," Hermione stated calmly and effectively.

Ginny turned from her friend, fuming at the very idea of listening to her for any longer.

'Her mission didn't seem so important when she wanted to fuck Harry.'

"Fine, we don't just give her over to the Dementors," Ginny said slowly. Harry nodded to his wife and moved in close.

"We won't let her out of our sight, Ginny," Hermione said, trying to reassure her friend.

Ginny nodded, though she still wasn't in a forgiving mode with Pei. "Say we believed you, what would be the next step,"

Pei sighed and then nodded towards where Fleur had appeared with the children. "I think you're going to need to find a babysitter."
