

THE RESTLESS SHRINE

{Auntie Cribsnapper} When the orphanage burned down over a decade ago, only the dream shrine remained for it is the home of a nightmare hag who tormented the orphans each and every night. Her long, curling fingernails help her pull herself out from under any bed her victims sleep on and can shred through armor with ease.

{Auntie's Bed} Cribsnapper so adored tormenting her beloved orphans that she killed anyone who tried to adopt them. The flesh and bones of these would-be parents was then added to auntie's bed which hangs unnaturally from the ceiling.

{Reason to Visit} Most folks keep a safe distance from the orphanage as they believe it is haunted by the orphans who died in the fire, but some remember visiting the shrine years ago and receiving helpful visions in their dreams that same night. Such visions can only be given if Auntie Cribsnapper is dealt with.

